Mark your calendar for our exhibition reception on March 4 from 6-9pm.

The Dalton Gallery of Agnes Scott College presents a juried exhibition of work by young emerging artists from the Atlanta area again- &yet again.

In January 2020 the Dalton Gallery of Agnes Scott College presented the inaugural &yet created by then Gallery Fellow Anna Carnes in collaboration with community partners. &yet again seeks to connect and foster conversations among young artists from communities around Atlanta. Thanks to our community partnerships we are able to waive application fees in an effort to create an accessible opportunity for young artists as well as award $3,000 to artists selected by Agnes Scott faculty and our jurors.

COVID SAFETY PROTOCOLS:

Off campus guests 13+ must provide proof of vaccination + booster upon arrival. Masks are mandatory indoors at all times. KN95 or N95 masks strongly recommended.
