

AGNES SCOTT
PARENTS COUNCIL
Saturday, November 8, 1986

I would like to invite you to take a first-hand look at your daughter's life at Agnes Scott. Involvement in Agnes Scott's Parents Council gives you opportunities to meet faculty members with whom your daughter is studying and keeps you up-to-date on what's happening on campus—what improvements are being made to the physical environment in which your daughter lives and what new learning opportunities are being provided.

I encourage you to join us at the November 8 meeting of the Parents Council. In addition to participating in the Council's general meeting, you can attend faculty presentations, meet faculty members over brunch, tour the campus, and bring your questions to a panel of staff members from the Admissions, Career Planning and Dean of Students offices. I hope to see you November 8.

John Beck, President
Agnes Scott College Parents Council
