

Main Events

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

Series 80, Number 1, Spring 1983

Photos by Andrea K. Helms

Brushing snow off boxwoods and flowering azaleas on the third day of spring, Professor Kate McKemie inspects the site for the inauguration of President Ruth Schmidt. Six inches of snow blanketed the campus just two weeks before the inaugural ceremony was to be held in the Amphitheatre April 9. Dr. McKemie, who volunteered her gardening expertise to prepare the grounds, was appointed, as the College Marshal, to oversee all physical arrangements for the ceremony and to lead the academic procession. Pictured in the insert, Amy Little '83 of Conley, Ga., works on an inaugural banner representing one of the 25 student organizations whose banners decorated the inaugural site. (Photographs of the inauguration will be published in the Agnes Scott Alumnae Quarterly.)

COLLEGE STAFF MARK 606 YEARS

Twenty-six Agnes Scott employees whose combined years of service to the College total 606 years were honored during an employee luncheon this winter in Evans Dining Hall.

President Ruth Schmidt, describing herself as "the new kid on the block," with less than six months service to Agnes Scott, presented each employee with a gift from the College. Those who have worked at Agnes Scott 25 years or longer were each presented with a pewter plate bearing the College seal. Employees with 20 to 24 years service received pottery mugs imprinted with the College's name and made by Agnes Scott art instructor Jay Bucek. Employees with 15 to 19 years service received crystal plates inscribed with the College's name.

The employee who had worked the longest for Agnes Scott is Acue

Garlington of the Physical Plant staff. He was honored not only for his 43 years of service but for his retirement, which was official the next day.

Agnes Scott employees marking anniversaries of 25 years or longer in 1982-83 are as follows: Custodial Services personnel John A. Austin, Annie R. Bates, Lena N. Davis, Maggie L. Ivey and Lucile Lisby; Willie Dawson of Food Services; Mary Carter, Assistant Readers'

Services Librarian; Mary W. Fox, Editor of the College Catalog and retired chemistry instructor; Julia T. Gary, Dean of the College; and Lillian Newman, Associate Librarian.

Employees marking anniversaries of 20 to 24 years are Bertie Bond, Administrative Assistant to the President; Corrie Cash of Custodial Services; Dot Markert, Assistant to the Director of Public Relations; Mollie Merrick, Assistant Dean of

(Continued page 3)

From The President

In choosing a theme for the inauguration weekend, I was conscious of seeking a subject which relates to Agnes Scott's mission as a liberal arts college for women, but not limiting the subject to education alone. One of the great issues of our contemporary world is the failure thus far to come to grips with the fact that if gender is not to be the chief determiner of work assignments, then all of us, women and men, must give our attention to new ways to meet the legitimate claims of both sexes to be paid for meaningful work, and to be nurtured and to nurture.

Women have been the chief caretakers of the young and of the home, and the volunteers who have made possible the charitable works which so characterize American life. Men have been the chief wage-earners and still earn $1.00 for every 59¢ earned by full-time female workers.

Now, with more than half of all women in the paid labor force, the pattern of housework, done largely by women, has not changed substantially, and women have double jobs to manage. Men's work frequently removes fathers from their homes for such extended hours that they are shadowy figures to their children. These crucial aspects of our contemporary lives raise questions such as these: Who will care for the young and the old? How will we provide the loving care all human beings need? Why do some people have too much work to do while others cannot find employment? Have we set such a high standard of living that we must spend more time working than is good for us, good for those we love, and good for our planet, as we affluent citizens of the world use up much more of God's creation than is our fair share?

These were some of the questions we pondered April 8 - 10 under the theme "Work and Well-being." It was a lively time.

— Keith Schmidt

On Campus

"RENAISSANCE WOMAN" VISITS CAMPUS

"A Renaissance woman," is how Agnes Scott chemistry professor Alice J. Cunningham describes pharmacologist

Marjorie G. Horning. Dr. Horning worked with Agnes Scott student and faculty chemists for two weeks in Campbell Science Hall stood open for guests at its rededication ceremonies held January 20 in spite of a snow and ice storm that closed down Atlanta and Decatur. Approximately 100 Agnes Scott and off-campus guests braved the storm to hear Dr. Marjorie G. Horning of the Baylor College of Medicine speak on potentially toxic chemicals and drugs and their relation to disease.

Photos by Andrea K. Helms

Visiting Dreyfus Scholar and biochemist Dr. Marjorie G. Horning (center) endeared herself to faculty and students during her residency in January. She chatted with students (left to right) Fran Ivey '84 of Wrightsville, Ga., and Denise Leary '83 of Cincinnati, Ohio, during the open house in the recently renovated Campbell Science Hall.

January as the College's Visiting Dreyfus Scholar in Chemistry.

Professor of Biochemistry at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, Texas, Dr. Horning has received international recognition for her research on drug metabolism and chemically induced diseases. However, she does not allow her career to preclude outside interests. She collects art, speaks fluent French, and travels for pleasure.

...an outstanding scientist in the field of biochemistry....

According to Dr. Cunningham, "Throughout Dr. Horning's visit, her extensive knowledge, varied professional experience, wide-ranging personal interests, and warm sense of humor charmed the students. She was an excellent role model for them."

As Julie Ketchersid '83 of Tampa, Fla., said, "In her discussions and lectures, Dr. Horning gave her listeners a feeling of excitement, inspiration, and exuberance for the expanding field of chemistry."

Dr. Horning's residency was sponsored by the Camille and Henry Dreyfus Distinguished Scholar fund. Agnes Scott's Chemistry Department selected her as the Dreyfus Scholar

As of April 15, $60,000 is still needed to pay for the renovation...

because she is an outstanding scientist in the field of biochemistry, a new area of the department's curriculum. "We have just added a senior seminar on biochemistry," explained Dr. Cunningham, "and we are in the process of purchasing equipment needed for the related laboratory course, which will be offered next fall."

A biochemistry laboratory was among the new facilities added to Campbell Science Hall during this year's renovation of the building. The $3,000,000 renovation benefits the Departments of Biology, Chemistry, Physics-Astronomy, and Psychology.

As of April 15, $60,000 is still needed to pay for the renovation and to meet the $250,000 challenge grant from The Kresge Foundation. Gifts for this renovation should be made to the Science Hall Fund. □

STUDENT NEWSPAPER WINS STATE PRIZES

The Agnes Scott Profile, the campus newspaper, was recently awarded three prizes in the 1982 Georgia College Press Association's Better Newspaper Contest. The paper's editorial series received honorable mention in the senior college category. In the categories for colleges with enrollment under 7,000, The Profile placed third in overall excellence and second in best news section.

The Agnes Scott Profile is published weekly by the students. It is one of the few student-government funded newspapers in the nation that maintains its own independent editorial control. The editorial staff includes editor Laurie McBrayer '83, of St. Louis, Mo.; associate editor Marcia Whetsel '83, of Morristown, Tenn.; news editor Kitsie Bassett '83, of Leesburg, Fla.; arts and entertainment editor Rachel McConnell '84, of Atlanta, Ga.; features editor Debbie McLaughlin '84, of Peachtree City, Ga., and sports editor Sue Feese '84, of Danville, Ky. □

GLEE CLUB GOES EAST

By Debbie McLaughlin '84

The singing voices and enthusiasm of students in the Agnes Scott Glee Club took American goodwill to the Republic of the Philippines in March. Twelve members of the Glee Club and their director, Professor Theodore K. Mathews, participated in a Friendship Force exchange program for two weeks between Atlanta, Ga., and Manila, the capital of the Philippines.

The Friendship Force is a national, nonprofit organization of volunteers who work to promote understanding in the world through "the force of friendship." The organization was originally sponsored by President and Mrs. Jimmy Carter.

"The Agnes Scott Glee Club was the first chorus to serve as friendship ambassador to Southeast Asia."

"...the first chorus to serve as friendship ambassador to Southeast Asia..."

reported Professor Mathews. The Glee Club has made three other intercontinental tours in the past years including one to Russia and England in 1979.

Selected as the cultural arts group to represent Atlanta in the U.S.-Philippines exchange, the Agnes Scott Glee Club performed their repertoire of classical and popular American music in six concerts and one church service for schools, colleges, and communities. Their final concert, performed in a city park, was broadcast over Filipino national television.

While in Manila, the students lived with Filipino families. Later this year a group of Manilans will travel to Atlanta and live with American families.

The twelve Agnes Scott singers were Angelyn Bagwell '85, Tallahassee, Fla.; Nancy Carter '86, Chipley, Fla.; Carolyn Conley '85, Fairburn, Ga.; Tami Etheredge '85, Macon, Ga.; Frances Harell '84, Tucker, Ga.; Danon Jones '84, Columbia, Miss.; Katharine Milligan '86, Augusta, Ga.; Kathryn Richards '86, Decatur, Ga.; Melanie Roberts '83, College Park, Ga.; Renée Roberts '86, Chamblee, Ga.; Dawn Teague '85, Gaithersburg, Md.; and Ann Weaver '84, Huntsville, Ala. □

Photo by Andrew K. Helms

Twenty-three of the 26 Agnes Scott employees honored for 15 or more years of service gathered for a photograph on the steps of Evans Dining Hall. They are, left to right, (front row) John Austin, Mary Fox, Acue Garlington, and Lucile Lisby; (second row) Willie Dawson, Lena Davis, Maggie Ivey, Julia Gary, and Mary Carter; (third row) Annie Ruth Bates, Rosa Smith, Mollie Merrick, Richadean Zimmerman, Dot Markert, Julia Reid, Corrie Cash, and Bertie Bond; (fourth row) Elizabeth Hawkins, Della Spurley, Lois Jefferson, Emma Lois Reese, Elizabeth Ginn, and Kate Goodson. Not pictured are Annie Johnson, Rosa Lyles, and Lillian Newman.

SCIENCE HALL CAMPAIGN NEARS END; COLLEGE NEEDS $60,000 TO MEET GOAL

With two months and just $60,000 to go to meet the Kresge Challenge Grant, President Ruth A. Schmidt told 800 alumnae that "we are confident we can reach our $3,000,000 goal on the Science Hall Campaign." During Alumnae Weekend, President Schmidt pointed out that the College also needs to raise an additional 10 percent of the goal to cover the costs of the campaign including the interest on construction bonds.

Dr. Schmidt congratulated the alumnae for their generosity and hard work during the campaign and cited that almost half of the money already pledged was from alumnae.

A total of $60,000 in gifts and pledges is still needed by June 15 of this year for Agnes Scott to claim the $250,000 Kresge Challenge Grant to complete the Science Hall Campaign.

Donors who give $3,000 or more to the Science Hall Campaign will be named "Sponsors of the Sciences" and honored with a listing of their names or names in memoriam on a plaque to be mounted in the foyer of Campbell Hall. Donors who make gifts of $10,000 or more will be offered the opportunity to have their names or names in memoriam given to a laboratory, classroom, or office in the science hall.

To enable Agnes Scott to claim the Kresge Challenge Grant and meet the $3,000,000 goal for the Science Campaign, make your gift or pledge by June 15, 1983. □

606 YEARS (Cont'd.)

Students; and Rosa Smith, Custodial Supervisor.

Employees marking anniversaries of 15 to 19 years are as follows: Elizabeth Ginn, Periodicals and Readers' Services Librarian; Kate Goodson, Director of Accounting; Lois Jefferson and Rosa Lyles of Food Services; and, from Custodial Services, Elizabeth Hawkins, Annie P. Johnson, Emma Lois Reese, Julia Reid, Della Spurley, and Richadean Zimmerman. □

FOUNDER'S DAY SPEAKER OFFERS CULTURAL EXCHANGE

At the age of 94, Agnes Scott College has been presented a special invitation by another women's college in Atlanta.

During Founder's Day ceremonies

The President of Spelman College, Dr. Donald Stewart, delivers the Founder's Day address on Agnes Scott College's 94th birthday.

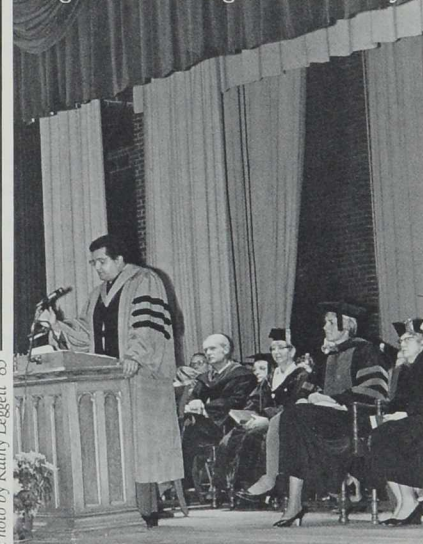

Photo by Kathy Leggett '85

February 23, Dr. Donald Stewart, President of Spelman College, challenged Agnes Scott and Spelman, a predominately black college, to "exchange faculty and students in areas of strengths and weaknesses." In his talk titled, "Higher Education: A World View," he proposed a program whereby Agnes Scott students would be introduced to the "Afro-American experience," while Spelman students would be exposed to "Agnes Scott's highly regarded Greek and Roman philosophy courses."

Founder's Day commemorates the birthday of the College's primary founder, Col. George Washington Scott, born February 22, 1829. □

WRITERS' FESTIVAL TO BRING TOP POET

Donald Justice, one of the foremost American poets of our day according to Professor Margaret Pepperdene of the English Department, will visit the campus April 20 to take part in the College's twelfth annual Writers' Festival. Joining him will be Josephine Jacobsen, Honorary Consultant in American Letters to the Library of Congress. Both writers will serve as judges in the 1983 Agnes Scott Writers' Contest and read selections from their own works.

Photo by William R. Klender

The writing contest, initiated in 1972 by the late Professor Margaret G. Trotter of the English Department, offers an opportunity for students enrolled in Georgia colleges and universities to have their short stories and poems critiqued by professional writers. Cash prizes of $100 each are awarded for the best poem and for the best short story, which are selected by the guest writers. In past years, the guest judges have been, among others, Robert Penn Warren, Eudora Welty, Harry Crews, Howard Nemerov, and James Merrill.

Professor Justice won the Pulitzer Prize in 1981 for his Selected Poems. He has also been honored with grants from the Rockefeller Foundation, the Ford Foundation and the National Endowment for the Arts. His other works include The Summer Anniversaries (1960), Night Light (1967), and Departures (1973). He is a professor of English at the University of Iowa.

Short-story writer and poet Josephine Jacobsen is making her eighth visit this year to the Writers' Festival. Her books include The Shade Seller, A Walk With Raschid and, most recently, the highly acclaimed The Chinese Insomniacs. She is on the literature panel of the National Endowment for the Arts. □

Photo by D. R. Miller

CAMPUS LOOKS

By Debbie McLaughlin '84

The prevalence of hunger, both locally and internationally, aroused the conscience of the Agnes Scott community this winter.

The awareness of hunger was first brought to the campus with the "Issue for Citizens" convocation series initiated by President Ruth A. Schmidt.

"One out of eight people in the world is so malnourished that his life will be cut short, and one out of four people continues to be hungry," were startling statistics set forth by the Rev. James A. Cogswell, director of the World Service and World Hunger for the Presbyterian Church, U.S. He also pointed out that the United States "now contributes less than two-thirds of one percent to food-aid assistance for developing countries."

Hunger in Atlanta was described by Father Austin Ford, director of Emmaus House, a settlement house providing community services to inner-city residents. In his talk, "Hunger and Poverty at Home," he said that poverty is at such a high rate

"One out of eight people in the world is so malnourished that his life will be cut short..."

in Atlanta, "there are poor people sleeping in parking lots at night, keeping warm by oil cans, and killing pigeons and eating them."

Frances Freeborn Pauley, a 1927 graduate of Agnes Scott, talked on "People's Advocacy in the Legislature." Ms. Pauley organized the Georgia Poverty Rights Organization seven years ago to help poor people in the state learn how to lobby for themselves.

In a related "Focus on Faith" talk sponsored by the campus Christian Association, Ken Sehested, director of SEEDS (an educational ministry and publication program) addressed world hunger. Interpreting Biblical scripture as biased toward the hungry and the poor, he challenged his audience to make a Christian commitment to solving the world's hunger problem.

Concluding the campus-wide discussion on hunger, a "Faculty Tabletalk" session showed the film "Bread and Life." The film provided a provocative look at the pro's and con's of the controversial "lifeboat ethics" theory, which raises the questions as to whether all the world's hungry should be fed or whether some should be allowed to die because our planet can't not produce enough to feed them.

WORLD HUNGER

In contrast to the lifeboat ethics viewpoint, the Rev. Cogswell suggested that, as a Roman Catholic sister once told him, "We must learn to live more simply so that others may simply live." □

FUTURE STUDENTS VISIT AGNES SCOTT

Students applying to Agnes Scott and their parents don't have to guess what life is like on this academically-oriented all-women campus, thanks to the Admissions Office. Applicants who attend Kaleidoscope in the spring "jump feet first" into classes, extracurricular activities, and dorm life.

This year, the two-day Kaleidoscope, April 7 and 8, offered applicants the opportunity not only to attend classes in their favorite academic areas, but to participate in rehearsals and meetings of student organizations such as the glee club, tennis team, yearbook staff, theatre group, and dance group. Parents of applicants had the unique opportunity to meet parents of current students to discuss finances and other aspects of sending daughters to Agnes Scott.

Kaleidoscope '83

Women beyond the usual college age will be invited to the campus May 11 for a Return to College Visitation Day. These prospective students will tour the campus, meet with students, faculty, and administrators, and attend classes in their fields of interest. □

Photo by Andrea K. Helms

AGNES SCOTT GOES TO NEW ORLEANS FOR MARDI GRAS

Agnes Scott students enjoyed the festivities of Mardi Gras in February when the local DeKalb Council for the Arts transformed a warehouse into New Orleans' famous Jackson Square and adjacent Canal and Bourbon Streets. The Agnes Scott student Arts Council sponsored a booth advertising campus cultural events, and the Agnes Scott Studio Dance Theatre performed for the festival's family day. Agnes Scott students (left to right) Cayce Callaway '84 of Ringgold, Ga., Holly Rogers '86 of Macon, Ga., and Maggie Taylor '83 of Jefferson, S.C., dressed for a publicity photograph promoting the indoor festival that drew a crowd of 3,000.

SOPHOMORES ENTERTAIN PARENTS

Fathers and daughters danced away an afternoon during Sophomore Parents' Weekend February 18, 19, and 20. The Sophomore Class gave their parents a taste of Agnes Scott life by taking them to class, introducing them to faculty and administrators, and entertaining them with a synchronized swimming show and a tea dance, among other activities. Dancing are (left to right) Mr. Roger Butler of Selma, Ala., and his daughter Doris and Dr. Ben Feese of Danville, Ky., and his daughter Laura.

Photo by Kathy Leggett '85

ARTS COUNCIL HONORS COLLEGE

Agnes Scott was recently honored by the local DeKalb County Council for the Arts during Mardi Gras, the Council's annual fundraising celebration. The Council presented a certificate to the College naming it a member of the Royal Court of Mardi Gras.

The Royal Court consists of organizations which have contributed, supported and developed the arts over the years within the county. Agnes Scott was one of six community, civic, and business groups honored this year.

Citing the many art shows, literary figures, and "world-class performances" that the College offers annually, the director of the Council, Barbara Chamness, called the College's community participation in the arts "truly outstanding," and commended the College for taking a "leading role" in supporting the community at large. □

COLLEGE SELECTED FOR LIBERAL ARTS SUMMER WORKSHOP

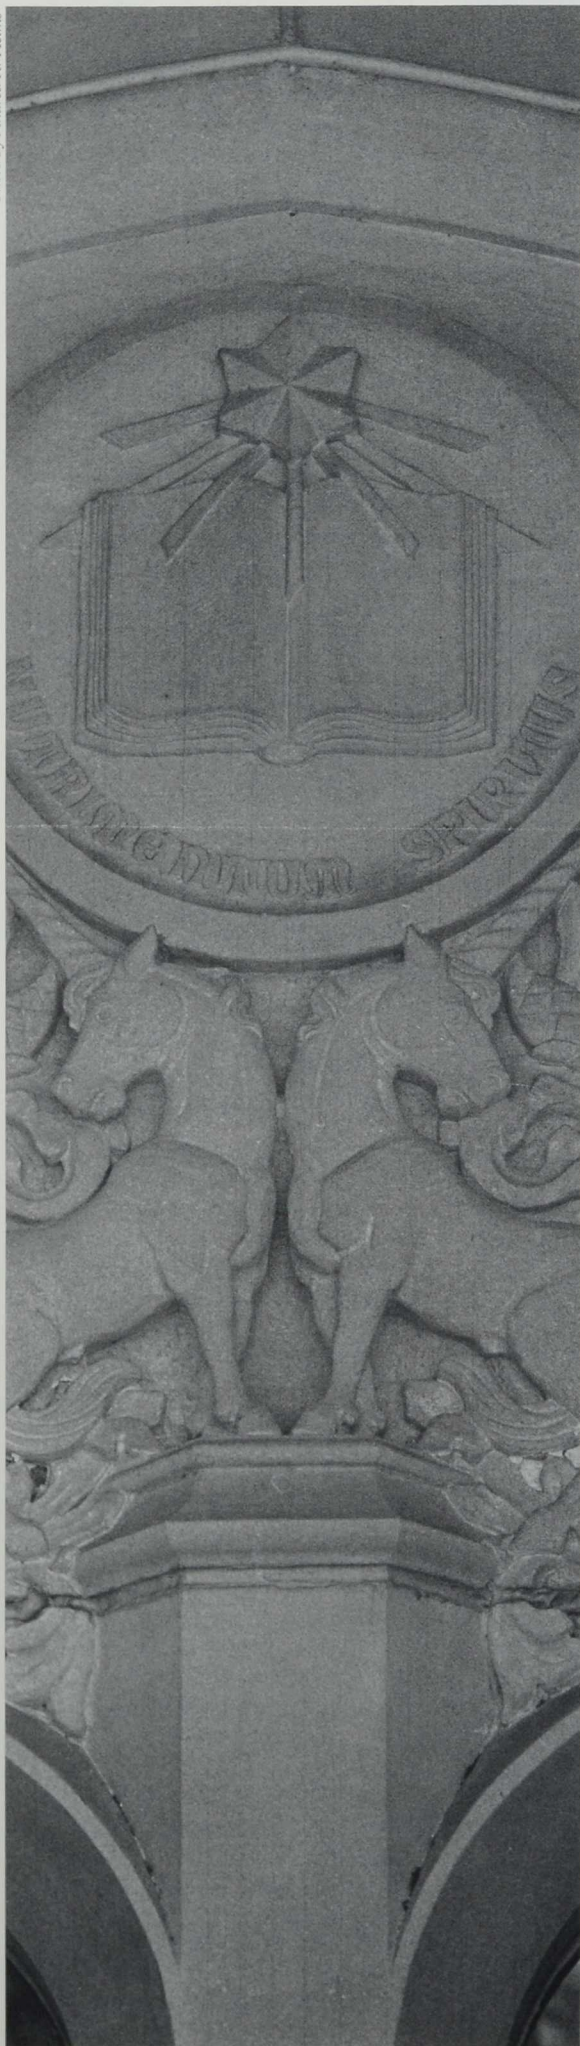

Agnes Scott is one of twenty colleges and universities in the United States selected to participate in the 1983 Summer Workshop on the Liberal Arts sponsored by the Lilly Endowment, Inc.

Institutions are selected on the basis of ideas for liberal arts programs that they submit for discussion at the workshop. According to Julia T. Gary, Dean of the College, the Agnes Scott team will explore the possibilities for restructuring and diversifying the College's freshman and sophomore academic programs to meet the needs of gifted students. Should the workshop team determine that such a program would benefit Agnes Scott students, says Dean Gary, they will submit a proposal for a gifted student program to the entire Agnes Scott faculty for further study and action.

Attending the Lilly Workshop at Colorado College, Colorado Springs, will be Dean Gary and three members of the faculty—Gail Cabisius, Associate Professor of Classical Languages and Literatures; Ayse Ilgaz Carden, Associate Professor of Psychology; and Katharine Kennedy, Assistant Professor of History. □

Faculty Notes

Photo by Andrea K. Helms

B. W. BALL, Associate Professor of English, reports that his story, "Myrtie's Salvation," will be published by the South Carolina Review. He has recently served as a contributing editor for The Pushcart Prize, an anthology of the best stories, poems, and essays published in literary magazines.

GUNTHER BICKNESE, Professor of German, reports that his book, Hier und Heute, Lesen leicht gemacht, has been accepted for publication by Houghton-Mifflin and is scheduled to appear in April.

DIANE S. BONDS, Assistant Professor of English, recently had the article, "D. H. Lawrence and the Paradox of Language," published in Proceedings of the Conference of College Teachers of English. The essay was originally presented last April at a joint convention of the College English Association and the Conference of College Teachers of English.

AYSE ILGAZ CARDEN, Associate Professor of Psychology, and GUE PARDUE HUDSON, Assistant Dean of the College, attended a symposium titled "Women's Education: The Future" at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., in February.

M. ELOISE BROWN CARTER, Instructor in Biology, will be awarded her Ph.D. from Emory University in May. She successfully defended her doctoral dissertation titled, "Character Displacement in Talinum mengesii (Portulacaceae)" in March. She was also selected to participate in March in a National Science Foundation Chautauqua Course on the ecology of terrestrial microcommunities.

MARYLIN B. DARLING, Assistant Professor of Physical Education and Director of Studio Dance Theatre, directed the dance group in performance at the DeKalb Council for the Arts' Mardi Gras. She also choreographed the Easter cantata for Mount Paran Church of God in Atlanta. Her oil paintings were exhibited during March in an Atlanta gallery.

CAROLINE M. DILLMAN, Assistant Professor of Sociology and Anthropology, presented the paper, "Regionalism and Southernness," at the April 8 meeting of the Southern Sociological Society in Atlanta.

JULIA T. GARY, Dean of the College, served recently as a member of a regional review panel for the Harry S. Truman Scholarship Foundation. The panel interviewed scholarship candidates from Florida, Georgia, Puerto Rico, and South Carolina.

RAYMOND J. MARTIN, Professor of Music and College Organist, performed a recital this month at the invitation of the President of LaGrange College, LaGrange, Ga., on an organ recently given to that College.

ELIZABETH REYNOLDS MOYE, Assistant Dean of the College, presented the paper, "Juror Judgment in Rape Cases: The Effects of Situational Variables and Juror Demographic Characteristics," to the Southeastern Psychological Association in March. She will present another paper, "Early Readers: Special Children or Special Mothers?," to the Society of Research in Child Development in April.

LOIS MORE OVERBECK, Assistant Professor of English, presented the paper, "Writing Across the Curriculum: A Collegial Model of Inquiry," at the Georgia-South Carolina College English Association meeting in March.

MARGARET W. PEPPERDENE, Professor of English, has been appointed for the second year to serve as a member of the Artist Initiated Advisory Panel of the Georgia Council for the Arts and Humanities. The panel evaluates applications and recommends awards. Dr. Pepperdene will deliver the commencement address in May to the senior class of Brentwood School, Sandersville, Ga.

JOHN F. PILGER, Assistant Professor of Biology, has been elected secretary of the Division of Invertebrate Zoology of the American Society of Zoologists for 1983 to 1985. Spring quarter, he will attend the annual meeting of the Southeastern Electron Microscopy Society in Athens, Ga.

Photo by Andrea K. Helms

PATRICIA G. PINKA, Professor of English, is the author of the book, Songs and Sonnets of John Donne, which was reviewed in the December, 1982 issue of Choice, a publication of the Association of College and Research Libraries. The review states, "This delightful, clear, and gracefully written study of Donne's Songs and Sonnets deserves a place in any library.All in all, it is a first-rate addition to the literature on Donne."

DUDLEY W. SANDERS, Instructor in Theatre, is the author of the one-act play, "Maggie and the Bird Go Fishing," which was produced in February by the Theatre Department as part of the Department's annual "Evening of One-act Plays."

MARY BONEY SHEATS, Fuller E. Callaway Professor of Bible and Religion, is serving as Moderator of the Atlanta Presbytery and presided over the historic vote on the reunion of the Presbyterian Church in the United States with the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

Photo by Fred Zimmerman

She will preach the retiring Moderator's sermon June 25 in Douglasville, Ga. She will give the commencement address for Columbia Theological Seminary May 29 at Druid Hills Presbyterian Church in Atlanta.

JOYCE M. SMITH, Associate Professor of Education, had the article, "The Direction of Educational Programs in Georgia," published in the Fall, 1982 Journal of the Georgia Association of Middle School Principals. Dr. Smith also presented a paper titled, "Self-concept: A Study of Middle School vs. Junior High Students," at the annual meeting of the Georgia Educational Research Association in November.

LELAND STAVEN, Associate Professor of Art, has had his poem "Obelisk" included in the book Lyrical Treasures—Classic and Modern, recently published by Fine Arts Press of Kingsport, Tenn. The book is a collection of the best poems written by present-day writers as well as many classics by well-known authors of the past.

Tributes

IN HONOR

W. AUBREY ALSOBROOK
Jacqueline Hawks Alsobrook
ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION
STAFF
Mary Ben Wright Erwin
LISA M. BENSON
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Martin
JOSEPHINE BRIDGMAN
Julia Cole Bouhabib
ISABEL McCAIN BROWN
Evelyn Brown Christensen
Mary Brown Forsythe
DEAN MCKOIN BUSHONG
Alumnae Club of
Washington, D.C.
LOUISE WOODARD CLIFTON
Walter L. Clifton, Jr.
SARAH ELBERFELD
COUNTRYMAN
Earl H. Elberfeld
FLORENE J. DUNSTAN
Mrs. John Hearn
MARY OLSON EDWARDS
Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Olson
W. JOE FRIERSON
Mary Ann Courtenay Davidson
LOUISE SULLIVAN FRY
Thomas A. Fry, Jr.
SARAH FULTON
Eleanor Williams Knox
LESLIE J. GAYLORD
Mary Ann Courtenay Davidson
PHILIPPA GILCHRIST
Mary Ann Courtenay Davidson
NANCY GROSECLOSE
June Davis Haynie
Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Wiltsee
Dr. GEORGE P. HAYES
Patricia Guynup Corbus
Mary Olive Thomas
GEORGE WESLEY and
SUE McQUEEN HOOPER
Bob and Lygia Hooper Spears
EMMA JULIA JOHNSTON
Ernest B. Johnston, Jr.
Dr. and Mrs. PAUL M. McCAIN
Ursula von Tessin
GERALDINE MERONEY
Evelyn Brown Christensen
Joyce McKee
Dr. and Mrs. MARVIN B.
PERRY, Jr.
Mr. and Mrs. Kevin R. Burns
Mary Ben Wright Erwin
Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Dunbar
Mildred McCain Kinnaird
MILDRED LOVE PETTY
Elsie W. Love
RUTH SCHMIDT
Anne Patterson Hammes
Patricia A. Ward
MARY BONEY SHEATS
Leslie N. Boney
GLASSELL BEALE SMALLEY
Alumnae Club of
Washington, D.C.
BETSY HODGES STERMAN
Mr. and Mrs. Warren M. Sims, Jr.
LLEWELLYN WILBURN
Charity Crocker Cole
ROBERTA WINTER
Alumnae Club of
Washington, D.C.
Mary Curtis Tucker
Mr. and Mrs. W. Leroy Williams

IN MEMORIAM

MARTHA BROCK
HANNA ALEXANDER
Sally Bryan Minter
ANN WATKINS ANSLEY
Betty Sams Daniel
Lucy Goss Herbert
Dorothy Travis Joyner
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
Marian Travis
OTIS ALVIN BARGE
Mr. and Mrs. Smith L. Johnston
MARGARET RIDLEY BEGGS
Roberta Kilpatrick Stubblebine
SAUL BLATMAN
Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Addison, Jr.
JULIANNE WILLIAMS
BODNAR
Aline M. Brown
ELIZABETH BOWMAN
Mr. and Mrs. Warren M. Sims, Jr.
CLAUDE IRBY BRADLEY
Emily Higgins Bradley
KIMBERLY ANN BROWN
Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Brown
JUDITH BROADAWAY
Mr. and Mrs. Rufus K. Broadaway
RUBY WHITE BROWN
Mrs. D. W. Leary
SUE MORGAN BROWN
Susan Mead
EDNA HANLEY BYERS
May Day Folk Taylor
Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Woodbury
MARION T. CLARK
Virginia C. Clark
Janet Golden
Raymond L. Golden
Mary C. Gowing
Louise C. Risley
Roberts Brothers, Inc.
MARK CLEMENTS
Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Ryle
MARY FREEMAN CURTIS
Nancy Burkitt Foy
Mary Curtis Tucker
LILLIAN McPHERSON DAVIS
Jean Provost
CHRISTINE W. DIECKMANN
Betty Jane Hancock Moore
WILLIAM MONROE DIXON
Mary Dixon Hardy
S. LEONARD DOERPINGHAUS
Sally Wood Hennessy
MARY LEE HUNTER EISE
Dr. and Mrs. William J.
Pendergrast, Sr.
Dorothy Schrader
Evelyn Brown Christensen
Nancy E. Rhodes
Elizabeth Glenn Stow
MARCIA M. FOX
Helen Gouedy Mansfield
Mr. and Mrs. ALAN CANDLER
GLENN
Elizabeth Glenn Stow
M. KATHRYN GLICK
Martha Thomas Demaree
Mr. and Mrs. W. Leroy
Williams
LUCY DURHAM GOSS
Lucy Goss Herbert
WILLIAM GRIFFITHS II
Sue L. Mitchell
ROXIE HAGOPIAN
Carol Jones Hay
Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Woodbury
REBEKAH H. SCOTT
HARMAN
Ann Harman Mauldin
CAROL HANCOCK HOGE
Ben Hoge
ROBERT B. HOLT
Charity Crocker Cole
MARK JOHNSON
Ann Rivers Payne Hutcheson
ELIZABETH MERRITT
JOHNSTON
Sara Johnston Hill
MARGARET CARRINGTON
JONES
Elizabeth Molloy Horr

A gift to Agnes Scott is an appropriate way to honor or to memorialize a friend or member of your family. Upon receiving your donation, Agnes Scott College will send a card of notification to the individual or family.

Unless otherwise designated, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Between November 1, 1982 and February 28, 1983, Agnes Scott received gifts in honor or in memory of each of the names listed below. In addition, the Alumnae Association placed a memorial book in the McCain Library for each alumna who died during this period.

NOVEMBER 1, 1982 - FEBRUARY 28, 1983

VERA REINS KAMPER
Nancy Kamper Miller
MARTHA STEPHENSON
KELLEY
Mary Gay Bankston
Linda Parsons Stewart
LOIS COMBS KROPA
Mary Brown Armstrong
RUTH KRUEGER
David and Bonnie Johnson
ANN FLITCRAFT LATHRUP
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Agnew
Ash Management Corporation
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Beckwith, Jr.
Charles A. Burson
Clark and Terri Candler
Mr. and Mrs. Larry C. Hogan
Stephen W. Homa
Kelly Sue Johnson
Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Johnson
Mr. and Mrs. Philip D. Jory
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kabel
Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kaiser
D. E. Lathrup
Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Lathrup, Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. Larry W. Perryman
Katherine J. Schreiner
Mr. and Mrs. Hardaway Young, Jr.
Gary Zoellner and Family
ELLEN LEYBURN
Charity Crocker Cole

RAY LOUISE WILSON LILE
Sue Lile Inman
Dr. and Mrs. JAMES
ROSS McCAIN
Mary Ben Wright Erwin
SADIE McCAIN
Mary Barner Holmes
ALICE McINTOSH
Joyce Freeman Marting
MARY STUART
MacDOUGALL
Eleanor Stillwell Espy
Elizabeth Norfleet Miller
Christine Evans Murray
VIOLINA BUTLER and
B. FRANK MARKERT
Mr. and Mrs. James B. Markert
ELIZABETH COPPEDGE
MAYNARD
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
MILDRED RUTHERFORD
MELL
Eudice Tontak Glassberg
Louise Leonard McLeod
Rutherford Mell Poats
Llewellyn Wilburn
NATHAN T. NEELY, Sr.
Elizabeth D. Steele
ALAN S. O'NEAL, Jr.
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson, Jr.

ALAN S. O'NEAL, Sr.
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson, Jr.
JOHN H. PATTON
Patricia Cortelyou Winship
SALLIE WILLSON PEAKE
Mary Virginia Allen
Carolyn Nash Hathaway
Mr. and Mrs. GUS PETTIT
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Henderson
JANEF NEWMAN PRESTON
Mr. and Mrs. W. Leroy Williams
FRANCES CHARLOTTE
MARKLEY ROBERTS
Markley Roberts
HENRY A. ROBINSON
Mrs. Henry A. Robinson
BILL RUDDLELL
Mary Lee Kite
LOUISE SCOTT SAMS
Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace Daniel, Jr.
MARK SANFORD
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
Mr. and Mrs. William B. Owens
Dr. and Mrs. Marvin B. Perry, Jr.
CARRIE SCANDRETT
Mardia Hopper Brown
Nancy Bland Norton
Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Woodbury
EUGENIA WILLIAMS
SCHMIDT
C. Oscar Schmidt, Jr.
Mrs. F. B. SHEATS
Eugenie Sheats
FRANCOIS SHEATS
Mary Virginia Allen
Margaret McRae Edwards
Paul Leslie Garber
Rowena Sidbury Hall
Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Hanson
Eleanor Hutchens
Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Ryle, Jr.
Peggy Maier
Eugenie Sheats
Elizabeth Glenn Stow
SARAH SHIELDS-PFEIFFER
Margaret Pfeiffer Elder
ANNE JULIA SHINGLER
Elizabeth Glenn Stow
CAROLYN STROZIER
Estate of Ona M. Strozier
LILLIAN O. TREADWELL
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. Suratt
MARGRET TROTTER
Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Woodbury
MERLE G. WALKER
Virginia Norman Neb Price
WILLIAM GLASSELL and LILLY BRUPBACHER WEEKS
Margaret G. Weeks
ANN COOPER WHITESEL
Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Fowler
Chizuko Yoshimura Kojima
Frances Thomson Sheppard
Priscilla Sheppard Taylor
WENDY WILLIAMS
Susan Dorn Allen
Virginia Finney Bugg
Grace Winn Ellis
Louise Fortson Kinstrey
Mary Boney Sheats
Martha Thompson
Jane McCurdy Vardaman
Marybeth Little Weston
ELIZABETH GOULD ZENN
Florence Tomlyn Barns
Mary Christ Brown
Martha Thomas Demaree
Mary Dixon Hardy
Sue Ellen Fisher
Deborah Rosen
Georgia Syribey
Ann Cooper Whitesel

Donor's Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

I wish to make a contribution (in honor) (in memory) of _____

(Relationship to Donor)

I have enclosed my check in the amount of _____ made payable to Agnes Scott College. Please send the notification card to:

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Please return this form with your check to:
Paul M. McCain, Vice President for Development,
AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE, Decatur, GA 30030

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

Main Events

Nonprofit Organization
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
Decatur, GA 30030
Permit No. 469

Events

Donald Justice

Studio Dance Theatre

London Fog

SPRING HIGHLIGHTS

- APRIL 7-10 INAUGURAL FESTIVITIES honoring Agnes Scott President Ruth A. Schmidt on her inauguration as the College's fifth president.
- APRIL 12 KIRK CONCERT SERIES—Tashi/Clarinet and Strings, chamber ensemble.
- APRIL 13 PHI BETA KAPPA CONVOCATION—Announcement of seniors elected to Agnes Scott's Beta of Georgia Chapter of the nation's most prestigious honor society.
- APRIL 15-17 ALUMNAE WEEKEND
- APRIL 20 WRITERS' FESTIVAL, 1983. (See story.)
- APRIL 23 "SHOW AND SCHAU, 1983"—German Theater Festival for Colleges.
- APRIL 28 & 29 STUDIO DANCE THEATRE annual Spring Concert.
- MAY 1 DECKERS TRIO of Atlanta, chamber music ensemble.
- MAY 5 LONDON FOG, jazz vocal ensemble of Agnes Scott, annual concert.
- MAY 5 & 6 PHI BETA KAPPA VISITING SCHOLAR Nancie L. Gonzalez, Professor of Anthropology, University of Maryland, College Park, Md., presents lecture, "Basic and Applied Social Science: Reflections on a Visit to China."
- MAY 6 BRADLEY OBSERVATORY & PLANETARIUM open house.
- MAY 13 & 14, 20 & 21 THE CONGRESSWOMEN by Aristophanes produced as a lampoon with music by Agnes Scott Blackfriars.
- MAY 15 - JUNE 5 STUDENT ART SHOW by Agnes Scott senior art majors.
- JUNE 5 NINETY-FOURTH COMMENCEMENT.

Main Events

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

Series 80, Number 2, Summer 1983

Photos by Chuck Rogers

~ NINETY-FOURTH COMMENCEMENT 1983 (See story inside.) ~

SCIENCE HALL CAMPAIGN MEETS $3,000,000 GOAL; COLLEGE NEEDS $300,000 TO PAY CAMPAIGN COSTS

"Congratulations!" That's the word from President Ruth Schmidt to all Agnes Scott alumnae, friends, and members of the campus community who have given so generously to the College's Science Hall Campaign.

"The campaign goal of $3,000,000 was met well before June 15," she reports, "so the College was able to claim the Kresge Challenge Grant of $250,000. In addition, an anonymous donor has provided $250,000 in endowment funds for the upkeep of the newly renovated Campbell Science Hall."

President Schmidt points out, however, that the College must still raise $300,000 to cover the costs of the campaign, including the interest on construction bonds that financed the renovation of the four-story building. The renovation benefits the Departments of Biology, Chemistry, Physics-Astronomy, and Psychology.

Donors still have time to become "Sponsors of the Sciences" by making a total gift of $3,000 or more. "Sponsors of the Sciences" will be honored with a listing of their names or names in memoriam of their choosing on a plaque to be mounted in the foyer of Campbell Science Hall. Donors who make gifts of $10,000 or more may have their names or names in memoriam given to a laboratory, classroom, or office in the science hall.

Pledges and gifts to the Science Hall Campaign can still be made and sent to:

Office of Development
Agnes Scott College
Decatur, GA 30030

From The President

Photo by Andrea K. Helms

My first Commencement at Agnes Scott probably was for me similar to the experience of many alumnae who gathered in April for their class reunions. It seems that very little time has passed since we first came to this College, and yet, in our curious perception of time, we also know that we have experienced so much that it feels as if we have lived an entire life since then.

My first year as President of Agnes Scott has confirmed my appreciation for the long heritage of excellence and caring which this College represents. As our graduates are honored for their achievements at the end of four years (or for longer periods in the case of some Return-to-College graduates whose efforts bring applause from their classmates at Commencement), the long-range achievements of Agnes Scott's graduates through the years also fill our vision. There are those whose success draws national attention, such as Marsha Norman and Susan Phillips (see Page 4), and there are the accomplishments of others known only to their communities, churches, families, friends, and, in some cases, perhaps to God alone.

It is, of course, always gratifying to have outsiders recognize the quality of Agnes Scott College and its people, but the internal satisfaction of knowing that lives of women through the decades have been enhanced by their experience here is the true reward for the hard work of students, faculty, and staff alike. Our 9,000 alumnae, with other supporters, families, and friends of this College, ensure its well-being in the future. We have witnessed your ability to contribute financially, and the need for funds will not diminish, but we also count on you particularly to help identify and recruit able women of all ages as potential Agnes Scott students.

New generations of students will continue to benefit from the uncommon opportunity of learning at Agnes Scott and later will join the ranks of loving critics who give of themselves for the College and who write me with their ideas and concerns.

— Ruth Schmidt

On Campus

ENGINEERS AND AIR FORCE OFFICER RECEIVE AGNES SCOTT DEGREES

The 94th Commencement at Agnes Scott June 5 was one of firsts. The College's first woman president, Dr. Ruth Schmidt, presided over her first Agnes Scott graduation, and the College awarded a degree to the first Agnes Scott student to complete a military ROTC program and receive a military commission. In addition, degrees were awarded to the greatest number of dual degree "engineering" students to graduate in any one class.

The "engineers" — Margaret Miller Brettin of Jacksonville, Fla.; Amy Susan Craddock of Spring, Texas; Gay DeWitt Warren of Norcross, Ga.; and Charlotte Frances Wright of Springfield, Va. — were participants in the dual degree program between Agnes Scott and the Georgia Institute of Technology in Atlanta. They attended Agnes Scott for three years and Georgia Tech for two and were awarded bachelor's degrees from both institutions. The ROTC graduate, Ms. Craddock, participated in Air Force ROTC through the cross-town arrangement between Agnes Scott and Georgia Tech and was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant June 10.

Agnes Scott degrees were also awarded to six Return-to-College students, women beyond the usual college age whose education was interrupted earlier in life. Forty-seven Return-to-College students have now earned degrees since the program was instituted in 1974.

Among the honor graduates, four received diplomas with High Honor and 15 with Honor. Twelve had been elected this spring to Agnes Scott's chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's most prestigious honor society for undergraduates studying the liberal arts.

Geographically, the 116 members of the class of 1983 represented 18 states from California to Pennsylvania, the U.S. Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and two foreign countries — Colombia, South America, and the Republic of Panama. Academically, the graduates had chosen majors ranging from art to physics-astronomy, with the most popular majors being English, economics, and mathematics.

Twenty-one percent of the class had studied two majors that most often combined a foreign language, economics, or mathematics with another field.

During commencement exercises, President Schmidt announced that the graduating class had presented the College with funds for a flowering tree and a bench to be placed near Letitia Pate Evans Dining Hall. ■

Dual degree graduates Charlotte Frances Wright (L) and Gay DeWitt Warren hold their diplomas from Agnes Scott and Georgia Tech. (Dual degree graduates not pictured are Margaret Miller Brettin and Amy Susan Craddock.)

CAMPUS CHANNELS ITS CREATIVITY

Creative ideas for enhancing the academic and work life of the Agnes Scott campus came forward this spring from faculty, staff, and students through a creativity program initiated by President Ruth Schmidt. She and the College's administrative officers set aside a portion of the 1983-84 budget for launching new initiatives proposed by the campus community.

Through this "Channels for Creativity Program," 21 proposals were made and six were selected by a campus-wide committee either for direct funding or further study.

Among the programs being implemented are a proposal by Professor Linda L. Woods for scholarships for joint high school enrollment and a proposal by rising senior Catherine Fleming and her campus committee for a Multicultural Awareness Symposium. Through the Joint Enrollment Scholarship Program, qualified high school seniors enrolled in Agnes Scott's Joint Enrollment Program are awarded merit-based scholarships covering the cost of tuition for one Agnes Scott course.

The Multicultural Awareness Symposium, a year-long program to be held in 1983-84, will focus on the cultures of the Middle East, Asia and India, of Africa and Afro-America, and of U.S. Hispanic America.

Other creative projects accepted for funding or for further study ranged from a conference of deans of students from women's colleges, to a student non-credit summer internship program to be developed by the Career Planning Office and Agnes Scott faculty. ■

McNAIR RECEIVES ALUMNI AWARD

Agnes Scott College Professor Emeritus Dr. W. Edward McNair of Atlanta was presented an Alumni Service Medal by the Davidson College alumni association this spring.

The award honors living alumni who have given exceptional service to Davidson. The service medal was presented by Davidson College President Samuel R. Spencer, Jr., who serves on the Agnes Scott Board of Trustees.

Dr. McNair is a past president and secretary of the Atlanta chapter of Davidson's alumni association and has served as class president, reunion chairman, and class agent for annual giving. ■

NEW YORK FOUNDATION GIVES $100,000 TO ASC

Calling the small college "an individual and essential resource," the Booth Ferris Foundation of New York City has awarded Agnes Scott College an unrestricted grant of $100,000. The grant will be paid in December of 1984.

The Booth Ferris Foundation awards grants to selected colleges and universities throughout the nation. The foundation's criteria for selection of grant recipients include "a reputation as a school devoted to scholarship and intellectual discipline; recognized effective leadership both among the college's academic leaders and its board; evidence of demonstrated efforts to control its expenses and make effective use of its alumni and friends; and a clear picture of its future goals and aspirations."

Upon accepting the grant, President Ruth Schmidt stated, "We were particularly happy to read the reasons for selection and the list of your criteria, for it is an honor to be affirmed in our mission and dedication to excellence in the small college."

The Booth Ferris Foundation maintains a national giving program covering education, religion, health, welfare, civic and public affairs, and the arts. ■

Photo by Andrea K. Helms

ATLANTA AGNES SCOTT ALUMNAE CLUB GIVES $1800 TO SCIENCE HALL FUND

President Ruth Schmidt (second from left) receives from the Atlanta Agnes Scott Alumnae Club a check for $1800 for the College's Campbell Science Hall renovation. Presenting the check are the alumnae club officers (l. to r.) Anita Moses Shippen '60, Clair McLeod Muller '67, and Becky Evans Callahan '60. The alumnae club's gift helped the College qualify for the Kresge Grant of $250,000, which is being used toward the $3,000,000 renovation of Campbell Hall.

Photo by Andrea K. Helms

PRE-COLUMBIAN MEXICAN ART NEW GIFT TO COLLEGE'S ART COLLECTION

Mexican art created before Columbus discovered America is now part of Agnes Scott's permanent art collection. The Pre-Columbian art was presented as a gift by art collector Clifford M. Clarke of Atlanta. Included in the new Agnes Scott collection are ceramic figures and ceremonial objects made by Indian artisans from about 1500 B.C. to 1200 A.D. Pictured here from the College's Clifford M. Clarke Collection are some of the objects on exhibit in the Dalton Galleries of the Dana Fine Arts Building. They are (from top, clockwise) a 24-inch-high clay, standing female figure from the Vera Cruz area, c. 150-250 A.D.; a clay head from eastern Mexico, c. 900-1100 A.D.; a clay Mayan incense burner in the form of a human foot, c. 900-1200 A.D.; and a clay seated female figure from western Mexico, c. 300-600 A.D.

STARS, HOSPITALS, LABS BECKON STUDENTS

Practicing space law as a legal counsel to NASA — that's Marcia Whetsel's career goal. A 1983 graduate of Agnes Scott with a major in history, she has worked as a legal intern and plans to enter law school this fall. She studied astronomy at Agnes Scott, and this summer she is working as an intern at the Maria Mitchell Observatory in Nantucket, Mass. If all goes according to her plan, she will eventually be an expert in space law and the legal ramifications of contracts between private enterprise and governmental space programs such as the Columbia space shuttle.

Ms. Whetsel is not the only Agnes Scott student taking advantage of summer internship programs coordinated by the College's Career Planning Office. Gabby Drake, a junior who plans to practice medicine, is participating in a summer program for undergraduates at the Harvard University Medical School, while sophomore Shaun Dock, who is interested in cardiology, is attending a similar program at the Medical College of Georgia. Senior Sue Feese, who is majoring in both physics-astronomy and economics, is working as a research intern at the world's largest radio observatory, Arecibo Observatory in Puerto Rico. Other physics and astronomy students are participating in internship programs in laboratories at the University of California and at Oak Ridge Associated Universities.

Two chemistry majors are research assistants to Agnes Scott professors Alice J. Cunningham and Nai-Chuang Yang, and a third chemistry student is working with a professor at the Georgia Institute of Technology. Still other students are interns at banks, law firms, social service and counseling agencies, and state government offices. ■

Newsmakers

Agnes Scott alumnae have always made names for themselves, but this year they have been especially prominent in regional and national news.

● Marsha Williams Norman '69 won the Pulitzer Prize for Drama this spring for her current Broadway play " 'night, Mother," and has since been featured on the front cover of The New York Times Magazine and in USA Today and Women's Wear Daily, among other news publications.

● Susan Phillips '67, presented the first Outstanding Young Alumna Award in 1982, was featured in May in The New York Times as the acting chair and leading candidate to chair the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, a major federal financial regulatory agency.

● Jean Hoefer Toal '65, a leading member of the South Carolina House of Representatives, was featured in a front cover story in The State Magazine, the Sunday magazine of one of Columbia's major newspapers.

● The death of author Catherine Marshall LeSourd '36 was national news in March, and excerpts from one of her books, Meeting God at Every Turn, were published in The Atlanta Journal-Constitution.

Alumnae are invited to send the College any news stories or feature articles about themselves or their classmates. These clippings are preserved in the College's News Scrapbooks for the Library Archives and are copied for the Alumnae Office files. Send your clippings to:

Office of Public Relations
Agnes Scott College
Decatur, GA 30030

Margaretta L. Shaw

Photo by Andrea K. Helms

Dr. Rickard B. Scott

TRUSTEES ELECT NEW M HONOR RETIREES FIFIELD

The College's Board of Trustees, during its spring meeting, elected the twelfth woman to its current membership and honored two retiring members who each served 29 years on the Board. Elected to membership was Margaretta Lumpkin Shaw '52 of Cartersville, Ga. Elected trustees emeriti were The Reverend Harry A. Fifield of Atlanta and Diana D. Wilson '32 of Winston-Salem, N.C.

As a student at Agnes Scott,

Mrs. Shaw majored in sociology and psychology and served as president of the Cotillion Club. She is an active member of the First Presbyterian Church in Cartersville. Her husband, J. C. Shaw, who graduated from Georgia Institute of Technology, is chair of the board of Shaw Industries and a member of the board of directors of the First National Bank of Cobb County. The Shaws are parents of four grown children.

SCOTT NAMED VICE-PRESIDENT FOR DEVELOPMENT & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Dr. Rickard B. Scott of St. Charles, Mo., assumed the position of Vice President for Development and Public Affairs at Agnes Scott July 1. His predecessor, Dr. Paul M. McCain, assumed the position of Assistant to the President for Planned Giving. As Vice President for Development and Public Affairs, Dr. Scott will be responsible for the College's fund-raising campaigns, alumnae relations, and public relations and news services.

Commenting on Dr. Scott's appointment, President Ruth Schmidt stated: "We are fortunate to have found as the new Vice President for Development and Public Affairs a person who, like his predecessor Dr. McCain, brings to the position a background in the liberal arts, fine experience in fund-raising, and an appreciation of the unique role of women's colleges. We welcome Rickard Scott and his family to our community."

Prior to coming to Agnes Scott he served as Director of Financial Resources at The Lindenwood Colleges in St. Charles.

Appointed to that position in 1978, he took charge of revitalizing that college's fund-raising operations. The Junior Chamber of Commerce recognized his success in 1982 by naming him an Outstanding Young Man in America.

A native of Florida, Dr. Scott earned his B.A. degree in German at Eckerd College and his M.A. in German, and his Ph.D. in interdisciplinary humanities at Florida State University. In addition to teaching at Bethany College in Kansas and at The Lindenwood Colleges, he has served as Director of Financial Aid and Special Services at Bethany.

He is married to Virginia Mitchell Scott, a college teacher of French and German. They and their two sons are living on South Candler Street in Decatur. ■

MORTAR BOARD TAPS LEADER

The Agnes Scott Chapter of Mortar Board tapped 15 rising seniors for membership this spring. Mortar Board is a national honorary and service society whose members are chosen for their scholarship, leadership, and service to the community.

Elected as the officers of the 1983-84 Mortar Board are President Tracy Leigh Baker, Lincolnton, N.C.; Vice-President Katherine K. Edwards, Atlanta, Ga.; Secretary Diane Kay Rickett, Cornelia, Ga.; Treasurer Helen Lee Stacey, Atlanta, Ga.; Historian LeThuy Thi Hoang, Decatur, Ga.; and Chapter Editor Betsy Lou Benning, Decatur, Ga.

Also selected as members were Cheryl Ann Carlson, Bay St. Louis, Miss.; Suzanne C. Feese, Danville, Ky.; Louise Beavon Gravely, Rocky Mount, N.C.; Frances Witherspoon Harrell, Tucker, Ga.; Mary Ellen Huckabee, Charlotte, N.C.; Fran Elise Ivey, Wrightsville, Ga.; Mar Susanna Michelson, Mobile, Ala.; Marta Alicia Paredes, Jacksonville, Fla.; and Charlotte Justine Roberts, Clemson, S.C. ■

BER, LSON

Both Dr. Fifield and Mrs. Wil-n were elected to the Board of ustees in 1954 and both were ving on the Board's Develop-ent Committee and Personnel ommittee when they retired. Dr.
ield also served on the Board's 32 Presidential Search Commit-e that brought Dr. Ruth hmidt to the College. Mrs.
ilson served as chair of the 000,000 Annual Fund in 76-77. ■

MOVING TOWARD A BALANCED CURRICULUM

ow can the study of women be tegrated into college curricula?
team of Agnes Scott College
ulty and administrators dressed this question at a recent nference titled "Moving Toward Balanced Curriculum." The nference was held at Wheaton ollege, Norton, Mass., under e auspices of that college's Bal-ced Curriculum Project.

On the Agnes Scott team were ary K. Bumgarner, Instructor in onomics; Gué P. Hudson, sistant Dean of the College and cturer in Education; and Joyce
. Smith, Associate Professor of ucation. They and the other nference participants acquainted emselves with available ources on women's studies and th the various models for tegrating the study of women
o course and curricula.

At Wheaton the faculty have en integrating the study of omen into the core of the curricum through a systematic amination and revision of intro-ctory courses in all disciplines ere faculty express a conviction at research on women is relent. The final goal is to achieve a lanced curriculum reflecting the periences and accomplishments women as well as men.

Agnes Scott President Ruth hmidt, who served as Provost of heaton before coming to Agnes cott, was instrumental in initiat-g that college's Balanced urriculum Project. The project is nded by a three-year grant from e Fund for the Improvement of ostsecondary Education from the
.S. Department of Education. ■

Photo by Andrea K. Helms

"RUTH ROASTED ROYALLY"

The Agnes Scott student newspaper, The Profile, said it best: "Ruth Roasted Royally." This spring the student body roasted and toasted the College's President with outspoken good humor. High-spirited skits performed in front of the evening dining hall crowd spoofed everything from "Aunt Ruth's" administrative decisions to her roller skating and Yankee accent. During the festivities, Nancy D. Childers '83 swore Dr. Schmidt in as President of Agnes Scott and urged her to incorporate "y'all" into her vocabulary. With equally good humor Dr. Schmidt thanked the students for their warm welcome and promised to learn "Southern."

Photo by Andrea K. Helms

LEST WE FORGET — HISTORY OF AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE PUBLISHED

Agnes Scott President Ruth Schmidt recently accepted from the College's historian, Professor Emeritus W. Edward McNair, the first copy of his history of the College, Lest We Forget. The 400-page volume gives an account of the College from its founding in 1889 to the appointment of Dr. Schmidt as president in 1982.

Over the past five years, Dr. McNair interviewed alumnae, past presidents, administrators, and faculty members and researched official college records, student publications, and college memorabilia to write his descriptive account of Decatur's oldest educational institution. He also relied on his own personal experience with the College, which he served for 25 years as an administrator and member of the English faculty until his retirement in 1977. Copies of Lest We Forget are available in the Agnes Scott College Bookstore, $15.00 hardback and $10.00 paperback.

AWARDS DAY HONORS STUDENTS

Scholarships, certificates, and plaques representing 24 awards were presented to 28 students on Awards Day in May. President Ruth Schmidt announced seven fine arts awards, six science awards, four literary prizes, and seven assorted academic scholarships and service awards.

Awarded for the first time this year were two Meroney Prizes in the Humanities, which honor Dr. Geraldine M. Meroney, Emerita Professor of History. The prizes are to be awarded each year to the junior and the senior who each have earned the highest grade-point average in the greatest number of courses in the humanities. This year's prizes went to Carol Rose Goodman, a senior from Black Mountain, N.C., and to Renée Thomas, a junior from Fayetteville, Ga.

Multiple prizes were awarded junior Robyn R. Perry of Bartlesville, Okla., and to Jane A. Zanca, a Return-to-College student from Stone Mountain, Ga. Ms. Perry garnered the Student Choreographer's Award for her dance piece for Studio Dance Theatre and the $100 poetry prize sponsored by Agnes Scott and the Academy of American Poets. She and Mrs. Zanca shared the Janef Newman Preston Prize for Fiction, and Mrs. Zanca also received First Prize in the Informal Essay Category in the Southern Literary Festival.

The scholarships awarded included the Frierson-Clark Summer Research Fellowship in chemistry, the Presser Scholarship in music, the Emily S. Dexter Scholarship in psychology, the S. Leonard Doerpinghaus Scholarship for Summer Study in biology, the Kathleen Hagood Gambrell Scholarship, and the Jennie Sentele Houghton Scholarship. ■

Faculty Notes

DAVID P. BEHAN, Associate Professor of Philosophy, presented the paper, "Locke und Hume: Simple and Complex," in June at the Colloquium on the Historical Study of Locke's Philosophy held at Rutgers University.

Photos by Chuck Rogers

GUNTHER BICKNESE, Professor of German, reports that his German reader, Hier und Heute, Lesen Leicht gemacht, has been published by Houghton Mifflin Company. He is directing an Agnes Scott Summer Study Abroad Program at the University of Marburg, Germany, during July and August.

DIANE S. BONDS, Assistant Professor of English, reports the recent publication of her article "Miriam, the Narrator, and the Reader of Sons and Lovers" in Volume 14 of The D. H. Lawrence Review.

MARY E. BUTLER, Assistant Professor of English, reports the publication of her article, "The Effect of the Narrator's Rhetorical Uncertainty on the Fiction of Robinson Crusoe," in Studies in the Novel, Vol. 15, No. 2, Summer, 1983. Dr. Butler has been awarded an Agnes Scott Summer Research Fellowship to write on two other 18th-century novels, Moll Flanders by Daniel Defoe and Caleb Williams by William Godwin. This spring she read her paper, "Onomaphobia and Personal Identity in Moll Flanders," to the 18th-century group at Emory University.

M. ELOISE BROWN CARTER, formerly Instructor in Biology, has been promoted to Assistant Professor of Biology. In June she traveled in the Galápagos Islands, which were once studied by evolution theorist Charles Darwin on his famous voyage on the Beagle. Dr. Carter is continuing her research this summer on the ecology of Talinum with the support of a Research Fellowship and Grant from the Agnes Scott Faculty Committee on Professional Development. These fellowships and grants are funded in part through a National Endowment for the Humanities grant awarded the College in 1981.

MARYLIN B. DARLING, Assistant Professor of Physical Education, has been awarded a Summer Research Fellowship from the Faculty Committee on Professional Development for her ongoing research on folk dance forms indigenous to the State of Georgia.

CAROLINE M. DILLMAN, Assistant Professor of Sociology and Anthropology, addressed a session of the Child and Family Development Conference on the Southern Rural Family in May at the University of Georgia. She presented her paper, "Southern Rural Parents' Orientation Toward Education and Upward Mobility for Their Children."

MARY WALKER FOX '36, who retired from the faculty in 1979 as Emerita Instructor in Chemistry, has retired from Agnes Scott for the second time. From 1977 through this spring, she served as editor of the College catalog. Her years of service to Agnes Scott total 46, the longest any current employee has served the College. Mrs. Fox and Professor Mary Boney Sheats, who also retired this spring, were honored by the College with a reception at which President Ruth Schmidt presented them each with a captain's chair inscribed with the College seal.

THOMAS W. HOGAN, Associate Professor of Psychology, has been appointed by the President as Coordinator of Academic Computing for the summer and the 1983-84 academic session. The College is expanding its computer capabilities, which includes the addition this fall of microcomputers for all faculty and students to use throughout the academic year.

NANCY H. MANSON, Assistant Professor of Biology, is a Summer Research Fellow in the laboratory of Dr. Michael L. Hess of the Department of Medicine, Cardiology Division, at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond. She is continuing her postdoctoral studies of the role of oxygen free radicals in a number of cardiomyopathies.

THEODORE K. MATHEWS, Associate Professor of Music, is one of three clinicians presenting a Choral/Orchestral Conducting Workshop in July at Georgia State University. As a member of the

Gunther Bicknese

Mary Boney Sheats

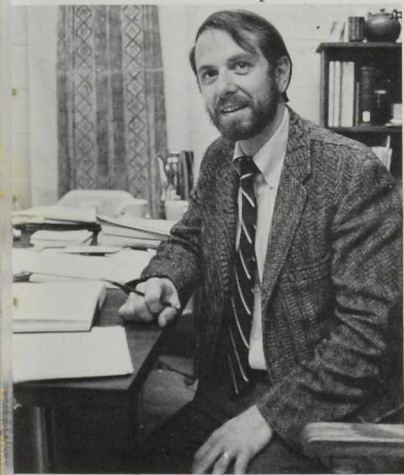

Photos by Chuck Rogers

Tributes

Atlanta Symphony Orchestra chorus, he participated in recordings by the TelArc Recording Company of the Symphony of Moods by Igor Stravinsky and any Moods of Christmas arranged by Robert Shaw and Robert Russell.

DIS M. OVERBECK, Assistant Professor of English, presented the paper, "Writing as Knowing, Teaching, and Learning: The Eminent Domain of the Humanities," at the National Endowment for the Humanities Conference, "Writing in the Humanities," held in June in Philadelphia.

RICHARD D. PARRY, Professor of Philosophy, has been awarded a grant by the Faculty Committee for Professional Development to study computers and the ways that they can be incorporated into logic courses. He presented the papers, "Plato's Third Man and Bird Bed Arguments," at the ring meeting of the Georgia Philosophical Society at the University of Georgia. He taught the graduate seminar on Aristotle at Emory University during the ring semester.

UDLEY W. SANDERS, formerly Instructor in Theatre, has been promoted to Assistant Professor of Theatre.

MARY BONEY SHEATS, Fuller Callaway Professor of Bible and Religion, was named Professor Emerita by the Board of Trustees upon her retirement in June. In bestowing the honor, the Board noted her significant contributions to the College during her 34 years as a member of the faculty.

JOYCE M. SMITH, Associate Professor of Education, is coordinating a one-day, statewide workshop July 9 for music educators on computers in the music classroom.

IN HONOR

VIVIAN MARTIN BUCHANAN
Julia Finley McCutchen
FLORENE DUNSTAN
Margaret Marion Ryals
MARY LANG OLSON EDWARDS
Mary Lang Gill Olson
W. JOE FRIERSON
Carolyn Alford Beaty
Mr. and Mrs. J. Dennis Delafield
Dr. PAUL M. McCAIN
Dr. and Mrs. Marvin B. Perry, Jr.
GERALDINE MERONEY
David P. Behan
ELIZA KING PASCHALL
Georgianne Wheaton Bower
RUTH SCHMIDT
Anita Tinlin and Philip Jones
CONSTANCE SHAW
Laramie Larsen
MARY BONEY SHEATS
Leanne Ade
Christia Riley Ashmore
Diane Hale Baggett
Claire Flintom Barnhardt
Marion McCall Bass
Martha Doom Bentley
Frances Holtzclaw Berry
Candy Colando Brown
Martha Riggins Brown
Cornelia Hale Bryans
Anne McWhorter Butler
Peggy Bynum
Betty Regen Cathey
Barbara Harrison Clinebell
Clair Moor Crissey
Charlotte Allsmiller Crosland
Eve Anderson Earnest
Margaret McRae Edwards
Sherry Ellington
Daphne Faulkner
Stella Biddle Fitzgerald
Pat Gannon
Dr. and Mrs. Paul Leslie Garber, Sr.
Carolyn May Goodman
Anne Welborn Greene
Margie DeFord Hauck
Caroline Pruitt Hayes
Ann Debele Herbertson
Cathy Harris Hester
Mary Mac Witherspoon Harrell
Nancy Hudson Irvine
Mary Jane Largen Jordan
Hazel Thomas King
Ellen Redd McKenzie
Betty Armstrong McMahon
Mr. and Mrs. Dan McRight
Beth Mackie
Mollie Merrick
Pat Bell Miller
Betty Jean Combs Moore
Sis Burns Newsome
Ellen Hunter Osteen
Charlotte Holzworth Patterson
Laurie Oates Propst
Suanne Bowers SauerBrun
Anita Plunkett Sayles
Michelle Shumard
Clyde Maddox Simons
Betty Brown Sloop
Vicki Burgess Stephen
Pam Burney Sundling
Anna Case Winters

WILLIE WHITE SMITH
Carolyn Smith Whipple

A gift to Agnes Scott is an appropriate way to honor or to memorialize a friend or member of your family. Upon receiving your donation, Agnes Scott College will send a card of notification to the individual or family.

Unless otherwise designated, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Between March 1 and May 31, 1983, Agnes Scott received gifts in honor or in memory of each of the names listed below. In addition, the Alumnae Association placed a memorial book in the McCain Library for each alumna who died during this period.

MARCH 1, 1983 — MAY 31, 1983

IN MEMORIAM

J. D. M. ARMISTEAD
Mary Champe Raftery
MARGARET RIDLEY BEGGS
Josephine Clark Fleming
Caroline Howard
Eulalia Napier Sutton
SARA STRICKLAND BEGGS
Cornelia Keeton Barnes
Josephine Clark Fleming
Eulalia Napier Sutton
JULE BETHEA
Josephine Clark Fleming
LOUISE MACKEY BOWERS
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
CLAUDIA HUDSON BRADLEY
Gertrude B. Powell
RUBY WHITE BROWN
Lillian Clement Adams
MARION T. CLARK
Susan Henson Frost
NELL BROWN DAVENPORT
Katharine Woltz Farinholt
DECEASED MEMBERS OF CLASS OF 1953
Bertie Bond
Betty Green Rush
S. LEONARD
DOERPINGHAUS
Ann McBride Chilcutt

MARY TORRANCE FLEMING
Josephine Clark Fleming
DOROTHY ALMOND FOWLER
Martha Mack Simons
M. KATHRYN GLICK
Sarah Hamilton Leathers
MARY RUSSELL GREEN
BGN Agnes Scott Alumnae Club
LILLIAN LeCONTE HADDOCK
Ruth Thomas Stemmons
CHARLES CHRISTIAN HERTWIG
Nancy Jackson Pitts
MARGARET MITCHELL HODGES
Elizabeth Long Wech
WADDY H. HUDSON
Maude Armstrong Hudson
ANN WORTHY JOHNSON
Porter Cowles Pickell
MARTHA JOHNSON
Eulalia Napier Sutton
OLLIE CRAIG JOHNSON
Mr. and Mrs. Jack B. Kite
Mrs. Robert W. Putnam
NELL HEMPHILL JONES
Elizabeth Hemphill Elder
MARTHA STEPHENSON KELLEY
Mary Maxwell Hutcheson

Donor's Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

I wish to make a contribution (in honor) (in memory) of _____

(Relationship to Donor)

I have enclosed my check in the amount of _____ made payable to Agnes Scott College. Please send the notification card to:

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Please return this form with your check to:
Bonnie Brown Johnson, Director of Development
AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE, Decatur, GA 30030

JAMES T. and ELLA RATHER KIRK
Dr. Paul M. McCain
EMMA MAY LANEY
Sarah Quinn Slaughter
ANN FLITCRAFT LATHRUP
Mr. and Mrs. William C. Handlan
Susan Kidd
Ingrid Reilly
CATHERINE WOOD
MARSHALL LeSOURD
Katharine Woltz Farinholt
Virginia Turner Graham
Sallie Lambert Jackson
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
RAY LOUISE WILSON LILE
Sue Lile Inman
Mr. and Mrs. CARLTON REID McQUOWN
Bob and Rosamond Hudgins
MARY STUART MacDOUGALL
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Faulkner, Jr.
Marilyn Schroeder Timmerman
MILDRED RUTHERFORD MELL
Mary Virginia Watkins Francis
MARGARET FALKINBURG MYERS
Dorothy Travis Joyner
VIRGINIA LOUISE NEWTON
Charlotte Newton
GERTRUDE PADEN
Betty Akerman Shackelford
ELMA WIMBERLY PARTRICK
Mary Lind M. Saussy
Mrs. MANICE M. RISER
Nancy Thomas Tippins
HENRY ROBINSON
Sarah Hamilton Leathers
MARY SAYWARD ROGERS
Ruth Thomas Stemmons
BILL V. RUDDLE
Mr. and Mrs. Jack B. Kite
STANLEY V. RUSH
Harry and Penny Rush Wistrand
CARRIE SCANDRETT
Bertie Bond
Margaret Downie Brown
Ernestine Cass Dickerson
Frances E. Kaiser
Sarah Hamilton Leathers
Flora Campbell McLain
Lucy Rhyn Walker
CATHARINE HAPPOLDT SIMPSON
Josephine Clark Fleming
RUTH SLACK SMITH
Mary Champe Raftery
SUSAN DALEY SMITH
Gayle Daley Nix
CAROLYN STROZIER
Estate of Ona M. Strozier
FERDINAND WARREN
Sarah Hamilton Leathers
ANN COOPER WHITESEL
Betsy Hodges Sterman
Mary Beth Robinson Stuart
WENDY WILLIAMS
Mary Brown Hestock
Susan Henson Frost
Eleanor Hutchens
Margaret W. Pepperdene
J. B. WILSON
Julia Finley McCutchen
MARGARET ELIZABETH WILSON
Carl and Bryant Moore
IRENE LOWRANCE WRIGHT
Ruth Thomas Stemmons
FRANCES P. and HARRY C. WYATT
Mary Ann Wyatt Chastain
Betty Wyatt Wharton

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

ADDRESS CORRECTION REQUESTED

Main Events

Nonprofit Organization
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
Decatur, GA 30030
Permit No. 469

U. OF WISCONSIN HONORS RUTH SCHMIDT

President Ruth Schmidt was presented the 1983 Faculty Award by the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay in May when she delivered the commencement address at that institution.

The University's Faculty Senate makes the award annually "to a person from the academic community who is or has been involved in some significant way with the State of Wisconsin." When notifying Dr. Schmidt that she would be presented the award, Chancellor Edward W. Weidner of the Green Bay campus wrote, "Clearly your activities in integrating the concerns of women into the basic curriculum, particularly in the cooperative project between Wheaton and UWGB, well qualify you for this recognition."

Dr. Schmidt, when Provost of Wheaton College, coordinated that college's project to integrate scholarship on women into the liberal arts curriculum. ■

Events

KIRK CONCERT SERIES TO SHOWCASE INTERNATIONAL MUSICIANS

One of today's premiere pianists, Garrick Ohlsson, will open the third season of Agnes Scott's Kirk

Concert Series October 4, 1983. He will be followed by classical guitarist Christopher Parkening

January 31, 1984, and then, on April 24, 1984, the Guarneri String Quartet, which will be making its ninth appearance on the campus.

The Kirk Concert Series honors an outstanding Agnes Scott alumna and trustee, Mary Wallace Kirk (1889-1978). In her will, Miss Kirk provided for the "James T. and Ella Rather Kirk" endowment fund named in honor of her parents and established for the benefit of Agnes Scott's academic programs in literature, history, music, art, and philosophy.

The first two seasons of the Kirk Series brought to the campus pianists Rudolf Firkusny, Abbey Simon and Tamás Vásáry, violinist Henryk Szeryng, Tashi Clarinet and Strings, and pianist Lydia Artymiw with the Guarneri String Quartet.

Interested subscribers to the series may purchase tickets by writing Professor Ronald Byrnside, Kirk Concert Series, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, GA 30030; or by calling 404/373-2571. ■

THANK YOU!
FOR $3,000,000!

To raise $3,000,000 for the renovation of Campbell Science Hall by June 15, 1983, it has taken the dedicated efforts and generosity of:

- The Board of Trustees
- Some 3,000 Alumnae who have provided half of the $3,000,000
- More than 100 Alumnae who have provided who contacted individuals and businesses
- 60 Alumnae serving as Class Chairs
- The Science Hall Campaign Committee of Trustees, Alumnae, and College Administrators, Parents, Faculty, and Staff

*To see if you, a woman, thank you for your loyal support.
Ruth Schmidt*

Main Events

ALUMNAE EDITION

80:3

OUTSTANDING ALUMNAE AWARDS HONOR FARINHOLT, ROACH, STUKES

by Laurie K. McBrayer '83

In recognition of alumnae's achievements, the Agnes Scott Alumnae Association annually recognizes three outstanding alumnae who have achieved in the areas of career, community service, and College service. During the 1983 Alumnae Weekend, April 15-17, Katharine "Kitty" Woltz Farinholt '33 was presented the Distinguished Career Award; Ruth Slack Roach '40 received the Service to the Community Award; and Frances Gilliland Stukes '24, was honored with the Service to the College Award.

Kitty, an educational consultant and retired school principal, began her distinguished academic career while a student at Agnes Scott. A history major, she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and to Mortar Board and participated in Pi Alpha Phi, the honorary debating society. She was active in the Athletic Association, Cotillion Club, Blackfriars, and International Relations Club.

After graduation, she taught English for one year in Belmont, N.C. Later she taught English at Westminster Schools in Atlanta for 12 years. While teaching, she earned her master's degree in education at Emory University before being named principal of Girls' Junior High Schools at Westminster in 1964. Upon her retirement in 1974, the administrator wrote to her: "Your grasp of the academic program of the total school, and particularly of the Junior High, made it possible always for you to make an outstanding contribution to the intellectual development of each student under you, and, ultimately to each student in the entire High School. I shall always consider you as one of the chief motivating forces in bringing Westminster to its academic pre-eminence." The following year she was named Leading Lady of Atlanta for her volunteer service and leadership in education.

Kitty is now self-employed as an educational consultant specializing in the placement of students in elementary and secondary schools and colleges and universities. Her goal is "to help individuals of all ages develop their unique possibilities to the fullest through educational counseling."

Kitty's contributions to education as a consultant and former teacher and administrator were recognized in 1982 in a special citation presented her by the National Association for Women Deans, Administrators, and Counselors. She has also been honored by Who's Who of American Women, Dictionary of International Biography, and World's Who of Women.

In addition to her educational career, Kitty has pursued volunteer service which led to her serving as president of All Saints Episcopal Churchwomen, trustee of Appleton Church Home for Girls in Macon, national treasurer of Mortar Board, and as a member of the board of directors of the Child Service Association. She served as President of Agnes Scott Alumnae Association in 1944 and later was instrumental in changing the Alumnae Association's emphasis from a membership drive to a College fund drive.

Ruth Slack Roach, recipient of
(Cont'd. p. 2)

ALUMNAE WEEKEND. Professor Margaret W. Pepperdene addresses the alumnae during Alumnae Weekend. Her talk was entitled "Asking New Questions." Also pictured are the recipients of the 1983 Outstanding Alumnae Awards—Katharine Woltz Farinholt '33 (lower left), Frances Gilliland Stukes '24 (center), and Ruth Slack Roach '40 (right).

From Jean's Corner

Jean Salter Reeves '59
President, Alumnae Association

This has been an unusually full and interesting year for staff and officers of the Alumnae Association. Due special appreciation are the members of Executive Board, whose ongoing contributions are innumerable. Those whose pictures are shown are your representatives for 1983-84, elected to serve both the College and you, the alumna.

Certainly a most meaningful event in the life of Agnes Scott was the Inauguration of President Ruth Schmidt on April 9, 1983. The President of the Alumnae Association, along with representatives from administration, faculty, students, and trustees, served on the Inaugural Committee. As could be seen through the Quarterly coverage, months of preparation were amply rewarded by a day rich in significance.

President Schmidt's first year has seen many highlights, one of the most noteworthy being the successful completion of the Science Building Campaign. Alumnae gifts and pledges totalled more than half of the $2,750,000 needed to claim the Kresge Challenge Grant of $250,000. This is a testimony to the loyalty, commitment, and dedicated hard work by Agnes Scott alumnae. Those involved in all phases of the organization of this campaign share that bond of enthusiasm which achievement of a common goal can generate!

Two main events on the College calendar, Alumnae Leadership Conference and Alumnae Weekend, both drew record attendance in 1982-83. On October 28 and 29, 125 volunteers spent many hours in information sessions and workshops designed to better equip alumnae to take back to their communities the message of Agnes Scott. Volunteers were introduced to President Schmidt, met with faculty, administration, and students, attended classes,

(Cont'd. p. 3)

Mary Barnett Tennaro '67
Vice President, Region I

Claire Purcell Smith '42
Vice President, Region II

Virginia Hays Klettner '53
Vice President, Region III

Betsy Jefferson Boyd '62
Vice President, Region IV

Kemper Hatfield '80
Secretary/Treasurer

Cissie Spiro Aidinoff '51
Alumna Trustee

Jackie Simmons Gow '52
Alumna Trustee

Betty Fountain Gray '35
Awards Chair

Frances Steele Garrett '37
Career Advisory Chair

Diane Hampton Flannagan '69
Class Council Chair

Jane Stillwell Espy '42
Club Chair

Katharine Woltz Farinolt '33
Education Chair

ALUMNAE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE MEETS OCTOBER 20-22, 1983

Dorothy Travis Joyner '41
House Chair

Julia Slack Hunter '45
Nominations Chair

Cindy Hodges Burns '77
Projects Chair

Jane Sutton Hicks '76
Publications Chair

Lucia Howard Sizemore '65
Special Events Chair

Katharine Akin Brewer '76
AAR Chair

Helen Carson '40
Alumnae Fund Chair

Nelle Chamlee Howard '34
Alumnae Garden Chair

News RoundUp

ALUMNAE AWARDS

(cont'd.)

the Outstanding Service to the Community Award, has been involved in countless community and church activities ever since she and her physician husband, Ben, settled in Midway, Ky., in the late 1940's. Earlier, at Agnes Scott, she took on leadership roles as president of Mortar Board, and as a member of the Student Government Association, YWCA Board, and the Athletic Association. She received the Hopkins Jewel and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. After graduation, she earned a degree in medical social work at Simmons College in Boston. In Midway, relying on their combined talents and knowledge of the medical profession, Ruth and Ben helped establish a nursing school at Midway College.

The College recognizes the outstanding abilities, leadership, and commitment of these alumnae.

Ruth's individual contributions to her community are many. For 10 years in the 1960's she sponsored the community's first Headstart program for underprivileged children in the basement of her home. As chair of a community action committee, she helped establish a five-county Office of Economic Opportunity Program with Headstart classes, job counseling, and nutrition programs. As chair of the Woodford County Recreation Board, she spearheaded the drive to secure federal funds to build a $500,000 multipurpose community center which included a day-care center for low-income working mothers, the first public swimming pool in Midway, and psychiatric day care community rooms.

She has also served on the regional Health Planning Council, the Board of the Lexington Deaf-Oral School, and the Regional Mental Health Board. She has been a member of the Kentucky State Board of Christian Churches; the Board of Higher Education of Christian Churches, USA; and served as president of Women of the Church. At Midway Christian Church she was director of Christian Youth Work for 15 years and a Sunday school teacher for 28 years. While her four children were growing up, she served as a Cub Scout leader and a Girl Scout leader.

Ruth's community has recognized her valuable contributions with several awards, including the Outstanding Citizen Award of Midway in 1960 and 1967 and the Outstanding Citizen Award of Woodford County in 1977. She received the Kentucky Colonel Award in 1977 from the Governor, and in 1982 both she and her husband were presented the Brotherhood Award of the Lexington National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Frances Gilliland Stukes, who received the Outstanding Service to the College Award, first began serving Agnes Scott when she was a student. During her four years, she was a reporter for the Agonistic, right wing on the hockey team, senior representative of SGA, member of Blackfriars, the KUB journalism club, French Club, YWCA cabinet, Lecture Association, secretary of the Propylean Debating Society, and first alto of the Glee Club for all four years. She was elected to HOASC, an honorary organization which was the predecessor of Mortar Board. She was later elected an alumna member of Mortar Board.

Those alumnae who do not know Frances may recognize her married name. In 1925 she married Samuel Guerry Stukes, the former Agnes Scott registrar and chair of the psychology department, who was later named dean of the faculty. As a faculty wife just one year after graduation, Frances began holding an open house for students every Sunday afternoon.

An active member of the Decatur Alumnae Club, Frances has done everything from planting in the Alumnae Garden to participating in fund-raising phonathons. She is fund chair of the Class of 1924. A charter member of the Garden Committee, she has served several times as chair of the committee. She gardens 10 months of the year in the area behind the Alumnae House and frequently provides flowers from her own garden for centerpieces at alumnae events. She has also served as chair of the Anna Young Alumnae House Committee supervising interior decorating and purchasing.

ALUMNAE AND DAUGHTERS AT COMMENCEMENT

Seventeen daughters of alumnae were graduated June 5. First row, l-r: Cheryl Andrews, Emily Sharp, Laura Head, Scottie Echols, Jenny Rowell, Kitisie Bassett, Uisi Insemi, Lane Langford, Summer Smisson. Second row: Jackie Rountree Andrews '57, Carolyn Herman Sharp '57, Lavinia Whatley Head '57, Billie Rainey Echols '57, Janice Matheson Rowell '58, Melba Cronenberg Bassett '59, Molly Milam Insemi '45, Cecily Rudisill Langford '58, LaWahna Rigdon Smisson '52. Third row: Kim Schellack, Elizabeth Walden, Bonnie Armstrong, Lynn Garrison, Amy Little, Carol Goodman, Susan Roberts. Fourth row: Mary Elizabeth Walker Schellack '44, Grace Woods Walden '60, Rae Carole Hosack Armstrong '60, Jane Zuber Garrison '54, Caroline Miller Little '58, Carolyn May Goodman '56, Shirley Heath Roberts '52, Genny Luchese Kelly '55. Not pictured: Margaret Kelly.

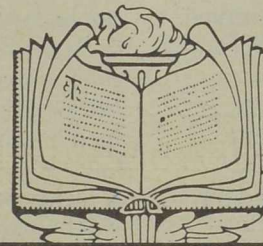

JOHN O. FLINT CELEBRATES 100th

The much admired former employee, John O. Flint, will celebrate his 100th birthday October 1 with his family at a reception in Rebekah Scott Hall. Mr. Flint is the only person who worked under all of the College's first four presidents. His tenure at Agnes Scott was nearly sixty years.

Most alumnae will remember John Flint as the headwaiter in White House dining room who rang the bell for meals. His last appearance on campus was at the Fifty Year Club dinner during Alumnae Weekend last spring.

Birthday greetings may be sent to John O. Flint at his home: 211 Winter Avenue, N.E., Atlanta, GA 30317.

CONTINUING EDUCATION DAY

The Agnes Scott Alumnae Association offers a day of continuing education October 19, which will include a lecture and a tour of Atlanta's new Woodruff Arts Center. The day will include a morning lecture at Agnes Scott, lunch on the campus, trip by MARTA to the Arts Center, a tour of the museum, and return trip to Agnes Scott. The museum, which will open to the public October 15, is a 135,000 square foot facility designed by internationally known architect Richard Meier. It incorporates a circular ramp system revolving around a sky-lit atrium. The six-level building includes three floors of exhibition space.

On exhibit at the museum October 19 will be: Rococo Age; French Masterpieces of the Eighteenth Century and Mark Rothko: Subjects; Virginia Carroll Crawford Collection: American Decorative Arts, 1825-1917; Lucinda Bunnen Photography Collection; and the museum's permanent collection.

The cost of the lecture, lunch, MARTA travel, tour is $10.00 per person. If you wish to participate, please send in the registration form below by October 18.

ITINERARY

10:30 a.m. Lecture by an authority, Dana Fine Arts Building, Agnes Scott campus	12:30 p.m. Vans go to MARTA
	1:30 p.m. Tour museum
	3:00 p.m. Leave museum via MARTA
11:30 a.m. Lunch, College Dining Hall	4:00 p.m. Leave Agnes Scott

Name _____

Address _____

Enclosed is a check for _____ ($10.00 per person)

Name(s) of guest(s) _____

Lest We Forget: An Account of Agnes Scott College by Dr. Edward McNair may be purchased from the Agnes Scott bookstore. Costs are $15 for the hard cover and $10, paper cover. Please add $1 to cover postage and handling. Georgia residents must add four percent of cost of book for sales tax.

From the President (cont'd.)

and Executive Board members had the opportunity for an informal meeting with the Board of Trustees.

Alumnae Weekend was attended by more than 800 participants. In this issue are special articles on the April reunions, Fifty Year Club activities, and outstanding alumnae awards. The presentation by the Scott family of a fine new portrait of Agnes Scott provided a significant moment in the day's activities.

Perhaps no work in the Alumnae Association is more rewarding than that which involves contact with students, the alumnae of the future! A welcome party for freshmen and after-graduation rehearsal farewell for seniors are traditional; and this year's brunch for daughters of alumnae was held in the home of an Atlanta alumna, providing just the needed tonic for the winter doldrums! The Student-Alumnae Liaison Committee solicited alumnae participation in a series of Hub Talks, sponsored by Mortar Board on "Life After Agnes Scott?" The numerous options for women graduates today were discussed, with conversation being informal and lively. Agnes Scott students make a very strong, positive statement for the quality of their education.

As alumnae you will be interested to know that the present president of the Alumnae Association now sits, in an ex officio capacity, on the Board of Trustees. Heretofore the president assumed a place on the Board only at the completion of her two-year term. While this change provides an opportunity for a period of training, it also can be seen as yet another sign from the Board of Trustees and the administration of their high regard for the value and contributions of alumnae.

Jean Salter Reeves

FIFTY YEAR CLUB

by Laurie K. McBrayer '83

It was truly fitting that the Fifty Year Club should meet this year in the Winter Theatre of the Dana Fine Arts Building. The theatre is named for the club's 1982-83 president, Roberta Winter '27, professor of theatre at Agnes Scott from 1939-1974.

Roberta joined other alumnae and friends for the annual Fifty Year Club program and candlelight dinner during Alumnae Weekend. As president of the club she welcomed everyone "not from the diaphragm" as her ASC speech professor, Miss Frances Gooch, had recommended, but "from the heart."

Pat Collins Dwinell '28 narrated the program in Dana and announced the names of six "stars from the wide galaxy of the Fifty Year Club."

Fifty Year star, Dr. Jean McAlister '21, who was unable to come to Alumnae Weekend, was announced as a trailblazer for women in the medical field. She first considered being a nurse, but her family doctor encouraged her to become a doctor. She attended the University of North Carolina Medical School and graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Medical School. A pediatrician from 1936 to 1971, she gave 32 years of service to the Percy Street Child Care Center in North Carolina. Jean said in an earlier interview that she particularly remembered her work during the 1948 polio epidemic.

Another star, Willie White Smith '27, earned a master's degree in zoology and a Ph.D. in physiology from Columbia University. She spent one year working in the laboratory of Nobel Prize winner August Krogh and taught zoology at Smith College in 1941. From 1943 to 1977 she worked at the National Institute of Health. During that time she investigated radiation effects and witnessed the atomic bomb test in Nevada. In 1959 Willie was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She is credited with 70 publications.

Caroline McKinney Clarke '27 lives in the house in which she was born on Candler Street in Decatur. An employee of the Federal Emergency Relief Agency in 1933, she later worked for the National Youth Administration. She helped establish the DeKalb County Department of Public Welfare and served as director for 28 years. Her lifelong interest in local history led her to write two books which have been published, The History of Decatur and The History of Decatur Presbyterian Church, and a magazine article entitled "Days of Old Decatur," published in the spring 1980 edition of Georgia Life magazine. Caroline is the niece of former Agnes Scott English professor Louise McKinney.

Virginia Wing Power '26 was introduced as the "A to Z woman," not just because she received the A to Z Woman's Service Award in Chattanooga in 1975, but because she has been involved in countless activities. The recipient of a Certificate for Service from the Governor of Tennessee and National Council on Aging Award for Community Service in 1962, she has served on boards of the YWCA, Family Service Agency, Senior Neighbors of Chattanooga, National Association State Units on Aging, Council of Community Forces, and many others. Virginia, who enjoys gardening and traveling, studied garden design on a horticultural tour of the Orient in 1975. A pianist and poet, she also plays tennis and won the 1971 Women's Chattanooga Open in doubles.

Annie Wiley Preston '99, Agnes Scott and UNC-Chapel Hill's oldest known living alumna at 104, served as a missionary in Korea with her husband, J. Fairman Preston, for 37 years. They left Korea when World War II began. During her years at Agnes Scott Institute, Annie Wiley concentrated on math, French, and Latin. In 1897 she and several friends decided to create the Institute's first annual to be called the Aurora and to be bound in purple and white. In 1902 she traveled in Europe and was in London when Queen Victoria's son, Edward, was coronated. While she had young children, she taught Bible in the Korean Girls School. In addition to her six children, she has 30 grandchildren, and 18 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Preston has said, "If you want to be distinguished and well-known, just live a long time."

Mrs. Preston's daughter, Shannon Preston Cumming '30, was also recognized. She taught missionary children in Korea and taught Bible for one year at Agnes Scott. After receiving an M.A. in special education for the retarded in 1962 from George Peabody College for Teachers, she worked in a private child development center. She said, "I am lucky to be the daughter and companion of Agnes Scott's most senior alumna, Annie Wiley Preston."

The Fifty Year Club was called to dinner in Rebekah Reception Room by a dinner bell rung by Mr. John Flint, who was headwaiter in the College's White House dining room for many years. (He will celebrate his 100th birthday in October.) During dinner, a strolling violinist played tunes from the twenties such as "Bye Bye Birdie," "Five Foot Two," and "Sheik of Araby."

Before inducting the fiftieth reunion Class of 1933, President Ruth Schmidt thanked the alumnae who had been associated with the College for more than fifty years for allowing her to participate even though she had spent only nine months at Agnes Scott. Each member of the Class of 1933 received a certificate acknowledging her membership in the Fifty Year Club and recognizing her "as a loyal and supportive alumna who will help the College maintain her rich traditions and her high standards of excellence."

The new officers of the Fifty Year Club were elected unanimously from the slate presented by nominations chair Betty Chapman Pirkle '26. They are: Sarah Quinn Slaughter '26, president; LaMyra Kane Swanson '32, vice president; Lamar Lowe Connell '27, secretary-treasurer; and Frances Gilliland Stukes '24, chair of the nominating committee.

CORRECTION/CORRECTION/CORRECTION/CORRECTION/CORRECTION/CORRECTION/CORRECTION/CORRECTION/CORRECTION/CORRECTION

In the listing of presidents of the Agnes Scott Alumnae Association as shown on page 363 of Lest We Forget: An Account of Agnes Scott College, the name of one president was inadvertently omitted. This alumna is Katharine Woltz Farinholt '33, who served a one-year term as president in 1944-1945. It is deeply regretted that this omission occurred.

Club Reports

Alumnae Club meetings since January 1, 1983, have numbered more than 50 and have included 10 at which Dr. Ruth Schmidt was honor guest and speaker. The new president visited Washington, D.C., Jan. 13; Young Atlanta, Jan. 22; Jacksonville, Jan. 25; Suncoast (Tampa-St. Petersburg), Jan. 26; Miami, Jan. 27; Greenville, S.C., Feb. 7; Charlotte, Feb. 8; Evening (Atlanta), Feb. 28; Knoxville, Mar. 1; New York City, Mar. 10.

Agnes Scott faculty and staff members or Alumnae Association leaders have spoken to the following clubs:

EVENING

Associate Professor of Sociology Constance Jones, book discussion, "The Gnostic Gospels," Jan. 15

DECATUR

Professor of Bible Mary Boney Sheats, "Paul the Apostle: Paul the Feminist," Jan. 27

ATLANTA

Professor of English Margaret Pepperdene, Flannery O'Connor seminar, Feb. 2 and Feb. 9

ATHENS, GA

Assistant Professor in Biology Eloise B. Carter, "The Ecology of Granite Outcrops" Feb. 19

BARROW-GWINNETT-NEWTON

Associate Professor of French Huguette Kaiser, "Woman in 19th Century French Society and Literature," Feb. 19

DECATUR AND

METROPOLITAN ATLANTA
Founder's Day Celebration, Feb. 23

AMERICUS, GA

Founder's Day Tea, Feb. 23

NEW ORLEANS

Agnes Scott Alumnae Association President Jean Salter Reeves '59 and Director of Alumnae Affairs Virginia Brown McKenzie '47, "Campus Update," Feb. 26

TALLAHASSEE-THOMASVILLE

Assistant Dean of Students Mollie Merrick '57, "Agnes Scott Then and Now," Feb. 26

ATLANTA

President Emeritus Wallace Alston, "Memories of Agnes Scott," Mar. 3

COLUMBIA, S.C.

Dean of Students Martha C. Kirkland, "Campus Update," Mar. 5

TRI-CITIES

(Kingsport, Johnson City, Bristol)
Alumnae Association President Jean Salter Reeves, '59, "The Year at Agnes Scott," Mar. 5

SHREVEPORT

Annual luncheon, Mar. 5

MACON

Associate Professor of History John Gignilliat, "History As Detective Hunt: The Case of Robert E. Lee and the Canadian Lighthouse," Mar. 5

CHARLESTON

Associate Professor of Economics William H. Weber, "Liberal Arts in a Business Career," Mar. 12

GAINESVILLE, GA

Director of Admissions Judith Maguire Tindel, "Teach Us To Market Well," Mar. 12

COBB COUNTY

Assistant Professor of Sociology Caroline Dillman, "Southern Women in Transition," Mar. 12

ST. LOUIS

Author Eudora Welty on tape (from Agnes Scott campus visit), Mar. 20

MONTGOMERY

Director of Alumnae Affairs Virginia Brown McKenzie '47, "The Case for Women's Colleges," Mar. 24

DELAWARE VALLEY

Covered dish supper (President Ruth Schmidt, scheduled to speak, had to cancel her appearance because of Atlanta snow), Mar. 24

CENTRAL FLORIDA

Associate Professor of Economics William H. Weber, "Liberal Arts in a Business Career," Mar. 26

EVENING AND YOUNG ATLANTA

Associate Professor of Art Lee Staven, printmaking demonstration, Mar. 28

BIRMINGHAM

Professor of Theatre Jack Brooking, "Theatre at Agnes Scott," Apr. 23

LYNCHBURG

President Emeritus Marvin B. Perry, Jr., "Visit to Agnes Scott for President Schmidt's Inauguration," Apr. 23

1983 CLUB CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

- 11 YOUNG ATLANTA CLUB; Lawn Party for Faculty; Alumnae Garden; 3-5 p.m.
- 12 TRIANGLE CLUB (Chapel Hill, Durham, Raleigh); President Schmidt; Governor's Inn, Research Triangle Park; 7 p.m.
- 17 BGN CLUB (Barrow, Gwinnett, Newton); John Gignilliat, "History as a Detective Hunt: The Case of Robert E. Lee and the Canadian Lighthouse"; Lawrenceville Female Seminary; 10:30 a.m.
- 17 MICHIGAN-OHIO CLUB: 12 noon.
- 22 ATLANTA CLUB; Catherine Strateman Sims, "A Case of Serendipity"; Piedmont Driving Club; 12 noon.
- 27 EVENING CLUB (Metro Atlanta); W. Edward McNair, "Lest We Forget"; Alumnae House; 8 p.m.
- 29 DECATUR CLUB; President Schmidt; Petite Auberge Restaurant; 12 noon.

OCTOBER

- 8 COBB COUNTY CLUB: Margaret Pepperdene speaking on the English novelist, Barbara Pym; home of Ellie Compton Underwood '49 and Laura Underwood '76, 425 St. Mary's Ln., Marietta; 10 a.m.
- 24 EVENING CLUB; Penelope Campbell, "Comparison of Experiences in Modern Asian Nations"; Alumnae House; 8 p.m.
- 27 DECATUR CLUB; Gene Slack Morse '41 presenting slides of trip to Tibet; Winship Reception Room; 10:30 a.m.

NOVEMBER

- 1 BIRMINGHAM CLUB; President Schmidt.
- 3 ATLANTA CLUB; Student panel, "Campus Life Today"; home of Jean Fraser Duke '49, 3833 Randall Ridge Rd., Atlanta; 10:30 a.m.
- 3 CHATTANOOGA CLUB; President Schmidt; Read House; 7 p.m.
- 5 MIDDLE TENNESSEE CLUB; President Schmidt; 7 p.m.
- 6 MEMPHIS CLUB; President Schmidt; 4 p.m.
- 12 BGN CLUB; Business meeting; Lawrenceville Female Seminary; 10:30 a.m.
- 14 DALLAS CLUB; President Schmidt.
- 15 SAN ANTONIO CLUB; President Schmidt.
- 17 HOUSTON CLUB; President Schmidt.
- 30 COLUMBIA, S.C. CLUB; President Schmidt; Town House; 7 p.m.

DECEMBER

- 1 DECATUR CLUB; Deidre Good, "The Christmas Story"; Decatur Presbyterian Church parlor; 10:30 a.m.

If you need additional information about a club meeting, please call the Alumnae Office at (404) 373-2571, ext.207.

KENTUCKIANA

Associate Professor of Economics William H. Weber, "Liberal Arts in a Business Career," Apr. 23

WINSTON-SALEM

Dean of the College Julia Gary, "Agnes Scott, Alive and Well," Apr. 23

MEMPHIS

Assistant to Director of Admissions Katherine Akin Brewer '76, "Agnes Scott in the Eighties: Challenge and Change," Apr. 30

TRIANGLE

(Raleigh, Durham, Chapel Hill)
Professor of English Margaret Pepperdene, "Agnes Scott: Its Place in the Present and the Future," Apr. 30

AUGUSTA

Professor of History Penelope Campbell, "Some Thoughts on American Foreign Aid," Apr. 30

COLUMBUS

Associate Professor of Mathematics Robert A. Leslie, "The Future of Educational Computing at Agnes Scott," Apr. 30

NEW ENGLAND

Management Program Director for Smith College Susan Coltrane Lowance '55, "Opportunities for Women in Business in the '80's," May 3.

DECATUR

Professor of English Patricia G. Pinka, "John Donne's Ironic Pastorals," May 5

TIDEWATER

Luncheon, prospective students, May 7

RICHMOND

Director of Alumnae Affairs Virginia Brown McKenzie '47, "Why A Woman's College," May 14

BARROW-GWINNETT-NEWTON
Business meeting, May 14

DALLAS

Professor of Psychology Miriam K. Drucker, May 21

ROANOKE

Assistant Professor of Physical Education Marilyn B. Darling, "Dance Remembered, Times Past," May 21

SAN ANTONIO-AUSTIN

Professor of Psychology Miriam K. Drucker, "A Quality of Life," May 22

EVENING

Dr. Patricia Stringer '68, "Building a Business in and with Computers," May 23.

Virginia's Turn

Virginia Broun McKenzie '47

Greetings to the alumnae through our special edition of Main Events. In the future, this tabloid, produced by the Office of Public Affairs, will carry a special insert called Alumnae News with news about classes, clubs, Alumnae Weekend, Alumnae Leadership Conferences, continuing education, trips and all alumnae activities.

In addition, Agnes Scott College will publish, through the Public Affairs Office, a literary magazine four times yearly for the alumnae, trustees, parents, and friends. Our staffs are working together to effect efficiency and to allow specialization. New and better services will be provided for all, including alumnae.

The message from the College is that we have achieved our goal of $3,000,000 in gifts and pledges for the renovation of the Science Building and that the work has been completed. Most important of all to alumnae is that President Schmidt has acknowledged many times the outstanding work done by the alumnae on this campaign. For the alumnae gave and pledged more than half of the total amount.

Another important development is that our alumnae percentage of participation this past year has increased more than 6% from the low 26% of 1981-82 to 32% for 1982-83. Alumnae are the greatest!

Our goal for the next two years is to reach out to more alumnae to increase even more our percentage of participation. We are getting closer to that goal of 50% that I encouraged more than six months ago. Many alumnae are discovering that they can give more to the College. More of us need to contribute, and all of us need to contribute more.

For our college needs more money. Operating expenses are greater; equipment costs more, and faculty salaries are higher; more students need financial assistance. And most important of all, the College will preserve its excellence and increase its greatness for future generations if the alumnae provide strong support.

We can certainly do that!

Virginia Broun McKenzie

ClassNews

'20 Rosalind Wurm Council spent the last two weeks of June visiting daughter Polly in Silver Spring, Md. ... Louise Slack Hooker had the misfortune to fall and break her wrist and hip while supervising the planting of flowers in her yard early in May. She is making a noble effort with therapy to get back on her feet. ... Margery Moore Tappan went to Huntersville, N.C., in May to get acquainted with new great-granddaughter, Margery. While in the Charlotte area, she had a telephone visit with Julia Hagood Cuthbertson, who is active as ever with family and garden. ... Elizabeth Lovett and sister are at the Americana Health Center in Marietta.

21 SECRETARY:
Sarah Fulton (Miss), 205 S. Columbia Dr., Decatur, GA 30030.

We grieve over the death on July 4 of Eleanor Carpenter. She has shared her account of many years' teaching at Buena Vista, Va., and her happy years later at the Episcopal Church Home in Louisville. She accomplished much. She left us an example to emulate. Downtown Atlanta Senior Services (DASS) is the program presented weekly by five downtown churches. Betty Floding Morgan was one of the leaders in instigating this. The material covers health, Bible study, lunch, travels. In August Betty will spend two weeks in Vienna. She is also embarking on a course about computers. ... An article in the Augusta Chronicle/Herald in June featured Louise Flucker, who has just retired from a teaching career that began 61 years ago. She has taught French, Latin, social studies, math, English, science, history, and geography in several different schools. In 1949 she was elected McDuffie County school superintendent, the only woman ever to hold that position. Louise tried to retire from teaching last year but her headmaster at Wilkes Academy wouldn't hear of it; she was the first teacher at school each day. Until recent years Louise, once a championship girls' basketball coach, played in student-faculty basketball games. ... To Genie Johnston Griffin and George, best wishes in the marriage on April 16 of their granddaughter. ... The first news written since Helen Hall Hopkins became president demands happy appreciation of her willingness to take our leaderless group plus thanks for the excellent class letter so promptly sent, accompanied by Betty Floding's beautiful prayer. Helen mailed a copy intact of the rotogravure picture from Atlanta Sunday paper of the 1921 graduates in caps and gowns on the steps of Main. Very pretty! Very young! Clearly labeled, the 62-year-old picture is at 205 S. Columbia, where each of you is cordially invited to come, inspect, and marvel!

Dot Havis McCullough and Charlie had three weeks in California in early spring to see their five great-grands of the West Coast. ... In quantity and quality of letters Charlotte Newton ranks high. "Catherine and I are still in the big old house—too big, but we haven't made other plans yet." ... Eddith Patterson Blair has been attending to such activities as having the house painted and carpets relaid, though she has serious eye trouble, and she and Hoke are no longer able to drive. ... Ellen Wilson Chambliss delighted us with a letter about her friend and neighbor, Margaret Wade: "Last October Margaret was especially invited to attend the Montreat College alumni reunion, transportation provided by former students. Margaret had served the college for twenty years as teacher and assistant dean, and finally as dean. At this reunion Margaret was seated on the stage, presented with red roses, and tendered an appreciative tribute. It was announced that the alumni had established a scholarship fund in her honor." Ellen ends with the news that she and Margaret had been elected elders in their respective churches. Congratulations from us all, Margaret! ... For 1921, present at Alumnae Day were Thelma Brown and Seals Aiken at the Saturday luncheon, Elizabeth Enloe MacCarthy at the Fifty Year Club dinner Friday; Betty Floding and Sarah Fulton at dinner, luncheon, and alumnae meeting. Dr. Schmidt had graciously invited the Fifty Year Club classes to the President's home, where she served on the back terrace near the May Day Dell. Betty and Sarah also went to the bookstore to get our copies of Lest We Forget, the most complete history of ASC, autographed by Dr. Ed McNair (former student of Sarah's). Every word is written with success and read with pleasure. Get your copy! Also present in absentia was our Jean McAlister, one of the six members of the Fifty Year Club classes honored at the meeting in Dana Fine Arts Building before the Friday dinner. A fitting tribute was read to Jean's work as an M.D. in Greensboro. Did you know her specialty was children? We regretted that Jean's brother's illness prevented her presence.

'22 Anne Ruth Moore Crawford has recovered nicely from a broken hip and went to New York for the high school graduation of a granddaughter who will enter William and Mary in the fall. Her three grandsons are all in college. ... Otto Gilbert Williams is recovering from a fractured ankle.

24 SECRETARY:
Polly Stone Buck (Mrs. N.S.), 2 Walden St., Hamden, CT 06517.

Helen Wright Smith and her husband had signed up for a tour of England and Scotland during the summer but cancelled it since Devere was ill in the spring. He is driving again and leading his usual active life, but Columbia, S.C., seems more appealing right now than the bleak highlands of Scotland! ... When I read about the floods in New Orleans, I wrote Helen Lane Comfort to know if the water had touched her. There was two to three feet of water on the street where her apartment is located, water in the basement, and also the elevator, which refused to budge for a while! Since her husband's death on October 15, of last year, Helen Lane has lived alone. ...

Our very sad news is that Lillian McAlpine Butner died suddenly on April 1 in Winston-Salem. One of her two daughters had come to spend Easter with her and was with her at the time. She is survived by another daughter and nine grandchildren.

25 SECRETARY:
Eugenia Thompson Akin (Mrs. John M.), 5 Glen Iris Pk., Birmingham, AL 35205.

Louise Buchanan Proctor had a cruise on the inland waterways along the Atlantic in May. Her cabinmate was Elizabeth Henry Shands '24. ... Eugenia Thompson Akin is still working the Internationals, gardening, telling stories to children, and writing when the spirit moves.

26 SECRETARY:
Rosalie Wootten Deck (Mrs. L. Linton), 1242 Spencer Ave., East Point, GA 30344.

Anne Hubbard Lee is recovering from a broken hip. ... Helen Bates Law continues to be active in the Military Affiliate Radio System for N.Y. State and also in the Amateur Radio System. She has found the joy of quilting. The goings and comings of grandchildren keep life lively. ... Olivia Swann has found time and pleasure in handwork again. Cake decorating and ceramics claim some of her time, too. She enjoyed a trip to EPCOT in the spring, and early in June she was one of the 14,000 Presbyterians present at the historic merger of the northern and southern Presbyterian churches. ... Tom and Juanita Greer White have had visits from members of both sides of the family, which Juanita says "change the pace pleasantly." Juanita and Tom were headed for Alaska as this news went to press. ... Catherine Mock Hodgin and Doc have again enjoyed their annual trip on the Mississippi Queen, this time accompanied by their granddaughter, 15. They are proud, too, of their grandson who won a scholarship in the geology department of Mississippi State. ... Florence Perkins Ferry is happy about her new home in the retirement complex called Lenbrook Square on Peachtree Road in Atlanta. It has just been completed and she finds such attractive provisions for comfort and safety of older residents. She has found that several long time acquaintances also live there. ... Dr. Beaumont Davison III, son of Mary Ella Zellars Davison is president of Tri-State U in Angola, Ind.

27 ACTING SECRETARY:
Josephine Bridgman (Dr.) 715 Kirk Rd., Decatur, GA 30030.

Our class was well represented at the Fifty Year Club dinner in April. Robert Winter and Pat Collins Dwinell '28 did the planning and presiding. Two of the four "Stars of the Show" were our classmates: Callie McKinney Clarke, recognized for her research and writing about the early history of this area, and Willie White Smith for her radiation research at the National Institute of Health. We are proud of them. The rest of us, including Lillian Clement Adams, Willie Mae Coleman Duncan, Mildred Cowan Wright, Martha Crowe Eddins, Frances Freeborn Pauley, Martha Johnson Wilson, Louise Lovejoy Jackson, Miriam Preston St. Clair, Emily Stead, and Jo Bridgman sat back and enjoyed the delightful occasion. ... In January Frances Freeborn Pauley made an ASC convocation report on her work as an Advocate for the Poor in the Georgia Legislature. She has devoted her considerable abilities and energies to this cause for years with no thought of retiring...Miriam Preston St. Clair, retired from college English teaching, is having time to work on a long-planned novel...The 13 of us exhibited a list of ailments which, if alphabetized, would make a good index for a textbook in gerontology, but we were all "feeling fine and fighting back!"

Your secretary is well aware that the news items which appear here are very largely from those of us who live in the Atlanta area. We would so love to hear from our other classmates. Where are you? What are you doing? PLEASE send us some news.

'28 SECRETARY:
Elizabeth McEntire (Miss), 233 Mt. Vernon Dr., Decatur, GA 30030.

Alice Hunter Rasnake in June returned from a trip to San Diego where she saw her niece and had a good time...Ruth Thomas Stemmons sent in a generous check for the memorial library fund for deceased members of our class...Mary Ray Dobyns Houston was unable to attend our reunion due to an operation on her hand. Now she has plastic joints in her hand...Hattie Gerschow Hirsch attended her youngest granddaughter's wedding in Boston...Louise Girardeau Cook has been teaching Sunday School for 64 years.

'30 SECRETARY:
Ruth Bradford Crayton (Mrs. W.F.), 348 Manor Ridge Dr., N.W., Atlanta, GA 30305.

Ruth McClean Wright is delighted with her granddaughter's (Charlotte Wright '83) election to Phi Beta Kappa and is enjoying taking an "energize for life" course...Zou Woolford Raine is a very active volunteer with the American Cancer Society's Reach to Recovery and CanSurmount programs.

'32 SECRETARY:
Marjorie F. Gamble (Miss), 1044 17th St., Columbus, GA 31901.

Pat Kimble Matthews lost her brother Dr. Andrew Kimble, June 17, 1982...Catherine Baker Evans, Jura Taffar Cole, Grace Fincher Trimble, and Flora Riley Bynum attended the Fifty Year Club dinner in April. They missed those of us who were not there...Peggy Link Gatlin's husband has been ill but is recovering nicely from cataract and hernia surgery. She enjoyed a Christmas stay in New York...Olive Weeks Collins is enjoying "flying trips" to visit her children. Making hand knitted gifts for her grandchildren keep her busy...Diana Dyer Wilson was elected trustee emeritus of ASC in May. She has enjoyed an "acquitting" class, and the exercising in the water has greatly improved her arm. She and her husband enjoy long stays in their condominium on Sea Island...These are more responses to our second request for news. Thank you, and make it more and more.

'33 SECRETARY:
Margaret Glass Womeldorf (Mrs. John A.), 963 Wren Way, Harrisburg, VA 22801.

Our long-anticipated fiftieth reunion was all we could have hoped for and more. There were 47 present, with a number of husbands. Activities began with a lunch at Houston Mill House. Special guests were Dr. Ruth Schmidt,

Dr. and Mrs. George Hayes, Dr. and Mrs. Paul McCain, Miss Llewellyn Wilburn '19, Mrs. Virginia McKenzie '47, Mrs. Adele D. McKee '48, Mrs. Mary McDonald Sledd '34, Mrs. Frances Statham, and Mr. Robert Lowrance. Tish Rockmore Nash kept us in stitches with her reminiscences, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," based on items we sent her. Friday afternoon we all had opportunity to meet our new president, Dr. Schmidt, at the reception in Dana Fine Arts Building. Dinner was served in Rebekah. We were honored by having our own Kitty Woltz Farinholt selected as a distinguished alumna. Mary Sturtevant Cunningham reported that our class gift to the Library has reached $7,311.50. We paraded to May Day Dell for lunch, behind our class banner made by Willa Beckham Lowrance and John McKenzie. This was followed by a reception at the president's home. Dinner at Piedmont Driving Club was a fitting climax for our reunion. We appreciate the great job done by the committee: Betty Cobb Boyd and Marlyn Tate Lester, co-chairs; Kitty Woltz Farinholt, president, Willa Beckham Lowrance, Jo Clark Fleming, Roberta Kilpatrick Stubblebine, and Tish Rockmore Nash. Those attending and not already mentioned were: Mary Charles Alexander Parker, Maude Armstrong Hudson, Margaret Bell Burt, Margaret Belote Morse, Elizabeth Bolton, Alice Bullard Nagle, Evelyn Campbell Beale, Sarah Cooper Freyer, Porter Cowles Pickell, Jewell Coxwell, Ora Craig Stuckey, Margaret Ellis Pierce, Helen Etheredge Griffin, Jeannette Etheridge Park, May Belle Evans, Winona Ewbank Covington, Bessie-Meade Friend Drake, Thelma Firestone Hogg, Betty Fleming Virgin, Margaret Glass Womeldorf, Virginia Heard Feder, Lucile Heath McDonald, Sarah Hewlett Johnson, Anne Hudmon Reed, Mary Hudmon Simmons, Polly Jones Jackson, Rosemary May Kent, Mildred Miller Davis, Eulalia Napier Sutton, Gail Nelson Blain, La Trelle Robertson Duncan, Mary Louise Robinson Black, Laura Spivey Massie, Douschka Sweets Ackerman, Margaret Telford St. Amant, Elizabeth Thompson Cooper, Rosalind Ware Blackard, Lucile Woodbury Ranck, and Madge York Wesley.

Marlyn Lester sent a check to the college for $463.85, the sum left over after all reunion bills were paid. And Tish Nash has two dozen copies of the class programs, which she will send to anyone who wants one...The class extends deep sympathy to Anne Hudmon Reed and Mary Hudmon Simmons in the death of their mother in May...Julia Finley McCutchen was sick at reunion time but said she joined us in spirit. She continues to tend her sister-in-law in a nursing home near the McCutchen home in Bishopville, S.C....Lib Lynch wrote that, in spite of cutting back on responsibilities, she was still too involved to get to the reunion. She is active in church, Common Cause, Interfaith Coalition on Aging, peacemaking and nuclear arms control, and working toward more economic justice, especially for the poor. She felt honored when two credit union state leagues she pioneered and was managing director 36 years ago invited her to a special celebration as speaker...Virginia Heard Feder and John find retirement in Sun City Center ideal. She paints, rings handbells, works in a library, and has taught in a community college there, making use of her PhD...Bessie-Meade Friend Drake has been living in her old family home for several years. She visited her daughter, Betty '65, husband, and three children in England in May. She stays busy with church and community affairs...Mary Hudmon Simmons and Anne Hudmon Reed left June 14 with the group Dr. Bicknese, ASC German professor, escorted to tour central Europe and commemorate Martin Luther's 500th anniversary...Lib Moore Ambrose sent her daughter, Lisa '60, back to Scott, and she is an avid fan. One son is an ophthalmologist, another an architect, and they have eight grandchildren.

'34 SECRETARY:
Marguerite Jones Love (Mrs. J. Erskine, Sr.), 4052 Peachtree Dunwoody Rd., NE, Atlanta, GA 30342.

Plans for our fiftieth reunion have begun. Mary McDonald Sledd asked the following to join her for lunch recently at the College to discuss plans: Bella Wilson Lewis, Aloe Risse Barron Leitch, Louise McCain Boyce, Mary Sloan Laird, Nelle Chamlee Howard, Rudene Taffar Young, Marguerite Jones Love. Please start saving pictures, clippings, etc., for a scrapbook. Contact your special friends and plan to join us for the "important date" in April...We learned that Elaine Heckle Carmichael, a reading specialist at Emory, retired in June...Frances Adair and Mary Sloan Laird had a wonderful trip to Italy. Mary's husband, Sam, and George Papageorge planned the trip for Emory's Senior University. Susan L. Puckett (Mary and Sam's daughter) is Dean of Students at Emory's Candler School of Theology and is an ordained Methodist minister...Rudene Taffar Young is president of the Decatur ASC Club for 1983-84...Aloe Risse Barron Leitch attended the Continental Congress, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution. She is serving as recording secretary of the Georgia State Society...We were all sorry to hear of Melba Hollis Callaway's death.

'37 SECRETARY:
Isabel McCain Brown (Mrs. William C.), P.O. Box 236, Montreat, NC 28757.

HELP! How about some news from you class members?...Florence E. Little died March 31, 1983. She was the first woman treasurer of the World Division of Global Ministries of the Methodist Church. She was also an accomplished speaker, and a real leader in urging corporate responsibility on ethical issues. Her biography was published along with other Methodist leaders such as Charles and John Wesley in the book Endless Line of Splendor. She had returned to Atlanta after her retirement several years ago...Frances Steele Garrett attended the inauguration of Dr. Ruth Schmidt at ASC, also alumnae board meeting, and also the alumnae luncheon for the annual alumnae weekend...Sarah Johnson Linney wrote: "In April at First Presbyterian Church, Orlando, Fla., Joyce Roper McKey's '38 daughter, Joy was married to Rodney Beasley. The soloist for the wedding was Lloyd L. Hinkle, my daughter. George and I had a great Caribbean cruise in March."

'38 SECRETARY:
Jean Chalmers Smith (Mrs. Walter A.), 1170 Mt. Paran Rd., N.W., Atlanta, GA 30327.

The class presented an Agnes Scott mug to Dr. Max ((Margaret Morrison) Blumberg in appreciation of his photographic coverage of the reunions in 1978 and 1983, and he wrote to our '38ers that he proudly displays it in his office...The DeKalb News Sun of June 15 carried a picture of Nell Allison Sheldon as director of the tenth annual Presbyterian Women's Conference for the Synod of the Southeast, held later in the month on the Agnes Scott campus. Babbie Adams Weersing served on the planning committee...Elsie West Duval is the new secretary of the Tidewater ASC Alumnae Club...The DeKalb Extra of May 19 pictured Elizabeth Warden Marshall, president of the DeKalb Humane Society, presenting the 1983 "Humane Hero Award" to Mary Virginia Allen '35, retired ASC professor of French...Frances Castleberry could not make the class reunion but enjoyed a firsthand report from Julia Telford, who with her sister, Margaret Telford St. Amant '33, stopped in Lilburn to see Frances after the weekend. Frances loves the "small-town life" there...Myrl Chafin Hansard expressed regret at having to miss the reunion but was committed to a trip as advisor for a group of students from the Alpharetta high school where she serves as media director...Alice Reins Boyd looks forward to the next reunion but had to miss 1983's because of a date conflict with husband John's convention of retired airlines pilots...Class members were very sorry to learn of the death March 19 of Virginia Hightower Kennedy's husband, Alfred. He was an outstanding leader in Atlanta's civic, social, and cultural life and has been greatly missed.

'39 SECRETARY:
Hayden Sanford Sams (Mrs. Hansford, Jr.), 222 E. Parkwood Rd., Decatur, GA 30030.

Catherine Farrar Davis's son, John Richard, died quite suddenly in early June. He was a splendid athlete, coach, and teacher at Southwest DeKalb, having two earned degrees. His tragic death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage. He was to have been married in July, so our sympathy goes to his fiancée as well as his family. His grandmother, Alberta David Farrar '11, lives with Catherine and her husband and she and her grandson were very close...Susan Goodwyn Garner and Harry's son Clay has married, and he and his wife are stationed in Germany where he is a lieutenant in the army...Grateful thanks to Elinor Tyler Richardson for writing, telling of a visit from Mary Frances Guthrie Brooks who now lives in Cape Elizabeth, Maine. Mary Fa is on the Board of Cape Elizabeth Garden Clubs. Mary Wells McNeill retired in November 1982 from her job as a staff assistant at the S. C. Dept. of Health and Environmental Control, Florence Branch. She was honored at a retirement lunch, and Elinor had the pleasure of being asked to say a few words. Elinor's last news was the happiest, for she and George became grandparents November 26, 1982, when Emily Louise Richardson arrived in New Orleans, where her father, Hughes Richardson, was completing his last year of a fellowship in cardiology...Lelia Carson Watlington is adjunct professor of western civ at Tidewater Community College...Make plans to come to our forty-fifth reunion April 27-29, 1984!

'40 SECRETARY:
Edith Stover McFee (Mrs. William C.), 550 Ponce De Leon Manor, NE, Atlanta, GA 30307.

Eleanor Deas Chiles writes that she is getting settled in east Tennessee and becoming a native although she misses Shipe very much. Her three children and her three grandchildren live nearby. She is active in a number of organizations, including the East Tennessee Historical Society...Marian Franklin and Paul Anderson have moved into their new home in Atlanta...Bryant Holsenbeck and Carl Moore's son, Dr. Tom Moore, and wife Stephanie presented them with a new grandson named Nicholas Moore on March 6, 1983, in NYC...Edith Stover and Bill McFee's daughter, Edith Lycke, and her husband Bo had a baby girl on March 29 named Christina Lycke in NYC. Their other daughter, Zoe Hicks, got a degree in tax law from Emory in June, and she was awarded the Ernst and Whinney award for the outstanding student in income tax law at Emory...Grace Elizabeth Anderson and Frank Cooper's daughter, Martha Maddux '69 is a member of the City Council in St. Petersburg. She was elected in March...Sara Lee and Ed Mattingly's son, Tom, is the new assistant to the president of the Coca Cola Company in Atlanta.

'41 SECRETARY:
Ann Martin Elliott (Mrs. James B.), P.O. Box 340, Fort Mill, SC 29715.

Grace Walker Winn has written Simply Delicious, a cookbook using less meat, mainly for large groups and church suppers.

'43 SECRETARY:
Mary Anne Atkins Paschal (Mrs. D. D.), 2821 Orion Dr., Decatur, GA 30030.

Our fortieth reunion was a totally smashing success under the direction of Dot Holloran Addison, chairperson for reunion events. Emily Anderson Hightower, Mary Brock Williams, Alice Clements Shinall, Nancy Green Carmichael, Swanna Henderson Cameron, Ruby Rosser Davis, and Mary Anne Atkins Paschal assisted Dot with social plans and fund raising for our special reunion gift to ASC. Mary Brock designed and made our stunning banner for our class parade to the May Day Dell. Dot and Tom Addison entertained all class members and their guests with a buffet supper in their home on April 14. It was an elegant evening filled with joy and happiness as we greeted our dear classmates and their husbands, ate gorgeous food, and visited every minute. April 15 offered a day of fine activities ending with a reception for President Schmidt and retiring faculty member Mary Sheats. On Saturday Raddy called our class meeting to order in "our" room 205 in the Science Hall. Raddy was reelected president (for life this time), Mary Anne was reelected secretary, Anne Paisley Boyd was elected fund chairperson. The Reunion Gift Committee reported total gifts to date (April 16, 1983) in the amount of $94,509.98, only $5,490.02 will still be needed to fund completely our gift of a refurbished laboratory classroom in the memory of Miss Carrie Scandrett. A standing tribute of thanks to Swanna and Dan Cameron for their generous gift actually making our dream a reality. So far 54 class members have contributed or made pledges. December 1984 is the final date for reunion gift participation. In the meantime our class received recognition for our outstanding gift and a proper dedication time will be selected and announced... News from some absent members told of Nancy Hirsh Rosengarten's serious illness, also of Mary Jane Auld Linker's serious health problems. We send both our love and prayers. Helen Sommerour Zimmerman's health is much better; Clara Rountree Couch sent her love but was unable to attend after Harold's recent death. Our deepest love and sympathy to Clara. Pat Patterson Graybeal is working in New York after her divorce. Please, everyone, send any news you have of yourself or any other class member. We need to keep in touch more than ever as we look to our 45 year reunion.

After a delightful picnic lunch we parted until the climax event—the Big Reunion Dinner at Petite Auberge where we enjoyed a sumptuous dinner and were honored by having President Schmidt at our head table for the evening. After dinner Raddy led in a fine time of remembering and sharing. Then President Schmidt shared her thoughts about Agnes Scott and the future awaiting alumnae and students alike. To meet President Schmidt makes clear the absolute rightness of having a president with her talents and charisma as our new leader. Our group was large, 65 in all, including husbands. Those attending and not already mentioned were Anna Branch Black Hansell, Flora Campbell McLain, Mary Ann Cochran Abbott, Laura Cumming Northey, Martha Dale Moses, Jane Dinsmore Lowe, Marge Downie Brown, Jeanne Eakin Salyer, Anne Friarson Smoak, Helen Hale Lawton, Dorothy Hopkins McClure, Mardia Hopper Brown, Frances Kiser, Leona Leavitt Walker, Dorothy Nash Daniel, Betty Pegram Sessoms, Anne Scott Wilkinson, Helen Smith Woodward, Aileen Still Hendley, Pat Stokes Barnes, Kay Wright Phillips, Mamie Sue Barker Wolf, Sally Sue Howe Bell, Lillian Roberts Deakins, Martha Ann Smith Roberts, Page Lancaster Codington, Bizzell Roberts Shanks, Joella Craig Good, newly married! Joella will continue as Mrs. Good until her retirement as principal of an inner city school in Miami. Afterwards she will assume her new name, Mrs. Jack Dendy. Congratulations, Joella! Start making plans now to attend our next reunion; it's a glorious time together!

44 SECRETARY:
Marjorie Smith Stephens (Mrs. A.T.), 6521 Helena Rd., Columbia, SC 29206.

Clare Bedinger Baldwin is back in Georgia after 33 years as missionaries in Japan with her husband who is now an interim pastor at Summerville, Ga., Presbyterian Church. Clare enjoys walking with Betty Pope Scott Noble.

46 SECRETARY:
Anne Register Jones (Mrs. B.), 2031 Golf View Dr., NW, Atlanta, GA 30309.

Lella Powell Jones and Harry's son, Harry, Jr. married in June. Promptly afterwards, Harry and Lella went to Europe; what a way to "recupe" from a wedding! Vicky Alexander Sharp's husband, Henry, has been named Radford Professor of Mathematics at Washington and Lee U. He has been a member of the faculty at Emory since 1956. The Sharps have bought a house outside of Lexington on a mountain with a beautiful view and have room for guests! Daughter Peggy graduated from U of Colorado in June and son, Hal, from UVA... Maud Van Dyke Jennings and Lee came to Atlanta in June for the historic reunification of the Presbyterian Church... You must have noticed in the spring Quarterly that, while we did have a few items, our class news wasn't exactly overwhelming! I've begged you to write and even threatened to fill up the whole section with an account of the doings of my grandchildren (which I could do and they are darling!). However, you don't respond. What's the excuse? We all really want to hear. Let us know about new grandbabies, trips, recent honors, new marriages in the family, contacts with other class members. WRITE!

48 SECRETARY:
Tissy Rutland Sanders (Mrs. Floyd R., Jr.), 206 Upland Rd., Decatur, GA 30030.

Marybeth Little Weston stays busy performing a one-character play she has written, The Squaw with Blue Eyes, based on 19th-century Comanche and Texas frontier life. She is also working as publications chairman and a trustee for Lady Bird Johnson's National Wildflower Research Center... Maxine Kickliter Robert's son David was married May 29 to Carolyn Martha Knitter in Milwaukee. They live in Alexandria, Va... Thanks to an alert alumna from another class, Virginia Tucker Hill got the word she was "missing," and for nineteen years she has been in Virginia Beach, Va. Her latest news is getting her master's in social work degree at Norfolk State U. She has six grown daughters and five grandchildren and two on the way... June Gattis Williams is a grandmother twice over; her daughter lives in Texas, son Jacques Jr. lives in Louisiana, and her other son is at Georgia State... Ruth C. Richardson is living in her newly purchased "tiny little home with a million dollar view" in Asheville, N.C. She spent more than a month in Denver this spring nursing daughter Mary back to health after a severe drug reaction... Irene Sanders, Tissy and Floyd's only daughter, was married to John Christian Yoder on April 23. Irene is on Senator Sam Nunn's Washington staff. Tissy and Floyd had a delightful trip to Kansas in June for a second wedding reception in the groom's hometown of Hesston and spent a week in the Ozarks on the way home.

52 SECRETARY:
Shirley Ford Baskin (Mrs. J.H.), 2283 Sagamore Hills Dr., Decatur, GA 30033.

This news was collected by Shirley Heath Roberts, class president. Jackie Simmons Gow and Billy's son Bruce and Wendy Bryant were married October 23, 1982. They are both '80 graduates of UNC. They will be moving to Atlanta in August from NYC... Sylvia Williams Ingram and Conley's daughter Nancy and Bill Jordan were married April 16, 1983... Mary Jane Largen Jordan and Bill's daughter Sue '78 and Jack Spalding IV of Atlanta were married July 24, 1982, in New York City. Their daughter Nancy and John Keesie were married July 2, 1983, in Memphis. They live in Memphis where she is a counselor in the Memphis School System... Ann Herman Dunwody and Kenneth had an exciting trip to Rio de Janeiro in March. Their son Ken is a sophomore at Georgia Tech. Daughter Emily is with Delta and living in Atlanta... Shirley Heath Roberts is enjoying a try at the antique business in Vinings while continuing to teach mathematics at Lovett School. Shirley and Lamar's son Matson is a rising sophomore at Washington and Lee. Daughter Susan was graduated from ASC in June and is employed by C&S Bank... Lorna Wiggins is pleased to have recently moved her mother into a lovely retirement apartment in Auburn. They had a trip to western Canada this year... Susan Hancock Findley's son James was married to Cora Lee Jacobs May 28, 1982, in Tucson. They live in Pasadena. Susan and Marshall plan to be in Puerto Rico next year when he will be a visiting professor in chemical engineering at U. of P.R. We are proud of Margaretta Lumpkin Shaw, who has been named to the ASC Board of Trustees.

53 SECRETARY:
Louise Ross Bell (Mrs. Harry H., Jr.), 4103 Franklin Ave., Gulfport, MS 39501.

Bouquets to Keller Henderson Bumgardner, our new class president, and Frances Summerville Guess, reunion co-chairmen, for our great ASC reunion weekend. Thirty-nine class members attended; sixteen husbands came along! Anne Jones Sims had made a new class banner for us, a work of art. Evening social activities included a wine and cheese party Friday and a dinner at Anthony's on Saturday... Margaret Cousar Beach lives in Stone Mountain, Ga., and has four sons. One son is in the Navy, one in the Army, one raising cattle on a Texas ranch, and one is in college. Margaret is head nurse in ophthalmology at Emory Hospital... Lilla Kate Parramore Hart lives in Valdosta, Ga., and has five sons. Oldest son, George, serves on the nuclear submarine Simone Bolivar. Two sons attend college, one is an accountant, and one is still in the nest... Deche Armstrong Hamill lives in Fort Pierce, Fla. She is reference librarian for St. Lucie County. Her job is the result of a "job related" advanced degree. Her children are grown and scattered to Denver, Miami, and Tampa. Her second grandchild, a little girl, was born on our reunion day—much excitement for us all... Mary Evans is Thomasville's vagabond. She is retired and travels. In the past five years she has made two trips to England. She has also travelled to Scandinavia, Russia, Kenya, and has driven alone from Georgia to the Canadian Rockies and back... Frances Ginn Stark has three children. Her oldest daughter graduated from Tulane in May with a biomedical engineering degree. Her second daughter attends Vanderbilt. Son Steve, is fourteen... Rosalynn Kennedy Cothran lives in Knoxville. She has two sons working in California and a daughter, 16. She works as a speech/language pathologist in a county school for multi-handicapped children.

Gayle Harbour Rivera has recently moved to Raleigh, N.C. She has two daughters. Carol, 19, attends Guilford College. Jenny is sixteen. Gayle attended the reunion and was most happy to be back on campus for the first time in 30 years... Frances Blakeney Coker lives in Tucker, Ga. She and Byron have three children. She works as a communications aide in special education in a DeKalb County school... Betty Lam Mann and Wesley live in Palos Verdes, Calif., and are the parents of four sons. Michael is a doctoral candidate in mathematics at UCLA. Richard is a chemical engineer, Phillip is a physicist, and Kenneth is an engineering student at UCLA. Betty enjoys painting, freelance art (needlework) design, and teaching Bible study... Lindy Taylor Barnett is recently divorced, doing well, and happily on her own. Career-wise, she is a psychiatric social worker, working with very troubled teenagers. She has three self-supporting children and one grandchild... Nancy Ruffner Anderson has three daughters. Beth is an environmental engineer, Kathy is a secretarial graduate, and Carolyn is an economics major at U of Chicago. Nancy is a respiratory therapist at Beth Israel in Newark. She attends New Jersey Institute of Computer Science. She is vice president of Summit Jewish Community Centre and was the first woman financial secretary of the Centre!... Natalie Stratton Howard lives in northeast Georgia. She has a milk cow and designs country house plans. She and Johnny have three children. Cindy is married, Brad is a civil engineer, and Scott is studying electrical engineering... Taff Merrill Daniel lives in Perry, Fla. She has three daughters. She teaches British lit to high school seniors. She says that Dr. Hayes could not believe it! MORE REUNION NEWS NEXT TIME.

54 SECRETARY:
Jackie Josey Hall (Mrs. Harry P., Jr.), 3276 Glen Arden Dr., NW, Atlanta, GA 30305.

Ulla Beckman writes from Gaborone, Botswana, "I am enjoying my work here very much. Unfortunately they are in the midst of a severe drought with crop failures and dying cattle and wild animals in its wake." Ulla is with the Swedish embassy in Botswana.

57 SECRETARY:
Helen Hendry Lowrey (Mrs. Edwin J.), 2170 Greensward Dr., NE, Atlanta, GA 30345.

Friends of Charlotte Holzworth Patterson and Chris surprised them with a wheelchair equipped van at Easter... Jean Price Knapp's home in the Olde Towne section of Portsmouth was featured in a Garden Week Tour.

59 SECRETARY:
Wynn Hughes Tabor (Mrs. Charles Dwight, Jr.), 2716 Shetland Dr., Decatur, GA 30033.

Anne Selph MacKay writes from Ocala, Fla.: "My life has been in the political arena. Buddy served 12 years in the Florida House and Senate and is now a freshman member of Congress. He commutes to Ocala each weekend, and I go up to D.C. about every six weeks. We have four sons: Ken, who graduated from Furman in December; John, a senior at Rice; Ben, a junior in high school; and Andy, a second grader (Surprise!)" Anne is hoping to come to our twenty-fifth reunion in April '84... Helen Culpepper Stacey and Mary Mac Witherspoon Harrell were in attendance when daughters, Helen and Frances were inducted into Mortar Board in May... Ann Rivers Payne Hutcheson has been much involved in church activities and is doing volunteer work at the high school in Vienna, Va. She is president of St. Margaret's alumnae.

60 SECRETARY:
Edith Towers Davis (Mrs. J. Harper), 1600 Goshen Ln., Prospect, KY 40059.

Carolyn Coffman is learning about computers for her career preparation department in the Suffolk (Va.) School System.

61 SECRETARY:
Jo Jarrell Wood (Mrs. Robert E.), 3635 Winbrook Ln., Tucker, GA 30084.

Nancy Stone Hough's son, Martin, 16, has won the state AAA wrestling championship!... Alice Frazer Evans sent a blurb on her latest book, Human Rights: A Dialogue Between the First and Third Worlds. Alice and her husband traveled two years on six continents to gather data... Ann Ashford Lehfeldt appeared with her whole family in Our Town at Central Presbyterian Church. Nancy Hughes Peabody came up from Americus to help change 41 yards of material into curtains. Ann's husband was an exchange student in Germany in his junior year in high school, and they went to Germany in June for a reunion. Daughter is going to Governors Honors this summer. Ann's second book is sitting with an agent in New York, waiting for publication... Anne Pollard Withers writes that she is back to work as a self-employed computer programmer on a contract basis. She is serving as secretary of the Episcopal Church Women of St. Michael's Church in Raleigh and teaching fourth graders about computers and programming as a volunteer. Anne's mother, Annette V. Pollard, died in March. Our thoughts are with you, Anne... Teresa Kindred Brown writes that after 2 1/2 years in Bonn, Germany, "living among the diplomats," they are back in Sparta, N.J. While in Bonn, she wrote orientation material for new members to the American community there—a total of seven booklets. She was able to renew contact with a German family with whom she had lived in 1956 as an

A.F.S. student. "The opportunities for travel and international living were really the answer to a childhood wish—going a long way away and staying a long time!" Their two daughters, 16 and 13, were with them.

Rosemary Kittrell worked as a full time volunteer issues coordinator with the Bo Ginn for Governor Campaign. Since our reunion she spent two weeks in Alaska seeing that great countryside and wildlife. She also ripped out the old kitchen in her home and installed a whole new one which she designed herself. She writes that Harriett Smith Bates and family have moved to Americus, Ga. Thank you, Rosemary. I hope our reunion party is at your house next time! Margaret Anne Lipham Blakely added a computer to her accounting practice, giving her extra time to travel. Son No. 1, Grant, is in the Navy, stationed in San Francisco. Son No. 2, Ken, is in West Point. Anne is treasurer of Trinity Episcopal Church in Fort Worth and active in several professional organizations. Skiing in Banff Springs, Canada, in January with their younger son and two friends of his was a blast! Ana Maria Aviles McCaa stays busy with her husband, five children, and continues to enjoy her part-time career in interior design. Grace Lynn Ouzts Curry and family live in Greenville, S.C. She is experiencing the "empty nest syndrome." John is at Wake Forest, and daughter Twilley is at Georgia Tech. Emily Pancake is now divisional sales manager of Miller and Rhoads in Charlottesville, Va. The store sells everything for a home, from measuring cups to china to sofas! In April of '82 she spent two weeks in Heidelberg, Germany, visiting in the neighborhood where she lived and worked one winter. She also enjoyed exploring some new parts of Germany. Nancy Hughes Peabody has written a novel, an adventure-love story, with the background of the Colonels' regime in Greece (1967-74). This meant research into recent Greek politics. She is now in the process of finding an agent. Nancy lives in Americus, Ga., too. Bunny Henry Coates is studying anthropology at Bryn Mawr, has bought a horse, and rides a great deal. She, George, sons George, Jr., 19, and Alex, 15, travelled through Ireland, Wales, and England.

'62 SECRETARY:
Peggy Frederick Smith (Mrs. Glen C.), 951 Lookout Dr., Kingsport, TN 37665.

Seven of you wrote in response to my April letter. Many thanks from all of us! I hope more of you will do the same. Sue Amidon Mount continues to work as a master's level psychologist at the Spartanburg, S.C., mental health center in addition to working in a small private practice. She recently bought an old house. She thoroughly enjoys her busy, typical 13- and 15-year-old boys. Betty Gillespie Proctor and Julian are in the process of building a home, which temporarily interrupted her course work in data processing. But she's close, with just one more course to take. She and family saw Dr. and Mrs. Alston last Thanksgiving at Callaway Gardens. Betty was encouraged "by the fact that they recognized me after 20 years!" Margaret Holley Milam's garden club is helping the Garden Club of Virginia with a project to bring bluebirds back to the state. Sue Mustoe Lloyd's eldest son graduated from high school with a flourish in June. Ranked eighth in a class of 235, David was chosen as one of the four graduation speakers, named Outstanding Rutherfordton Teenager by the Jaycees, won the school's DAR Good Citizenship Award, and was a player on a winning baseball team. He is off to Davidson in the fall, to play baseball and study. His brothers, Stephen, 15, and Kevin, 12, are also baseball players and active in scouting.

Bebe Walker Reicher is thoroughly enjoying not having a job this year. Says things at home run so much more smoothly... Anyone visiting the L.A.-Orange County area should get in touch with Peggy Mathis Lipsey, if you can find her at home between trips. In the spring she visited Egypt and in June went to Rome. Husband, Frantz, is vice president of Air California; they have two teenaged sons; Peggy is senior vice president of the Eldorado Bank in charge of personnel, training and marketing. They live in Irvine...

Birmingham is the home of Julia Duncan Sather. Remember her first book? A second one, Alabama, a photographic book on the state for which Julia wrote the text for Ed Malle's photographs, was published in June. In addition, she is now vice president of Group IV, the advertising agency where she has been working for the past six years as writer and account executive... And Lynne Lambert Bower is, as of May 26, Mrs. Alexander (Sandy) Andrews. Lynne is continuing her real estate work in Ridgefield, Conn., where she specializes in the marketing of antique houses. Small world report: Sandy's college roommate and wife are good friends of Louise Kimsey Sheftall, whom they have seen in NYC. Lynne's daughter, Laurie, is a high school senior; son, David, is a student at U of Colorado.

'64 SECRETARIES:
Mary Womack Cox (Mrs.

John T., III), 1500 N.E. 139 St., North Miami, FL 33161 and Mary Mac Mitchell Saunders (Mrs. F. F., Jr.), 1911 Collard Dr., Atlanta, GA 30318.

Barbara White Guarienti has been named chamber manager of the Livermore, Calif., Chamber of Commerce. Prior to assuming this position, Barbara led a community-wide assessment to school needs and worked to get community participation necessary to qualify for Early Childhood Education funds. She also wrote a grant proposal that earned $50,000 for Portola School students. She has worked on the city's beautification, redevelopment and design review committees.

'66 SECRETARY:
Betsy Anderson (Ms.), 34 West 85th St., Apt. A, New York, NY 10024.

Katherine Bell Hunter is associate professor of botany at U of Nevada in Las Vegas. She was married in 1981 and has a son, Elijah Daniel.

'67 SECRETARY:
Cynthia Carter Bright (Mrs. Colen E., Jr.), 1013 Conjurers Dr., Colonial Heights, VA 23834.

The New York Times featured Susan Phillips in an article in May. She is senior member and acting chairman of the federal Commodity Futures Trading Commission... Becca Herbert Schenk has had her second child, Mark. She was visited by Dudley Lester Tye and family while Dudley was on a skiing vacation in Glenwood Springs, Colo., where Becca lives.

'68 SECRETARY:
Betty Derrick (Ms.), 15 Mt. Paran Rd., NE, Atlanta, GA 30342.

The class of 1968 had a great fifteenth reunion, highlighted by a lovely party at Nancy Thompson Beane's home. New officers were elected: Ethel Ware Gilbert Carter, president; Nancy Thompson Beane, vice president; Betty Derrick, secretary (send news!); and Christie Theriot Woodfin and Jean Binkley Thrower, fund chairmen. Our thanks to Mary Lamar Adams and Alsie Bell Churchman for their past service... We missed everyone who couldn't come to the reunion and enjoyed hearing from several classmates who wrote to share their news. Kate Covington is teaching music theory at U of Kentucky. Kate received her PhD from Indiana U... Zolly Zollicoffer is also at U.K. pursuing studies for a doctorate in psychology. Zolly had previously earned an MA in speech... Susan McCann Butler and Scott are teaching at Thomas Nelson Community College and are enjoying Anne Elizabeth, 1... Anne Heinemann was recently ordained an Episcopal minister... Lucy Barron married Bob Eggleston April 23, 1983, and moved to Columbia, S.C. Her consulting business, Letter-Perfect, Inc., which specializes in communications skills training, now has two branches, Columbia and Atlanta... In getting reacquainted at the reunion, we found our interest and activities were as far ranging as the locations we now call home. Olivia Hicks is an administrator of a diagnostic residential treatment center for disturbed adolescents in NYC... Becky Griffin Ramsey is organist at the First Methodist Church, Covington, Ga., where she and Sam are building a new home... Alice Griffin Long and Dr. Nat Long, pastor of St. James United Methodist Church, Atlanta, have two teen-aged sons... Susan Aikman Miles has continued the family newspaper tradition. She is managing editor of the Marietta Daily Journal... Sylvia Harby Hutton traveled all the way from Pullman, Wash. Sylvia works part-time as a Gallup pollster in rural Whitman County and serves as a Brownie leader, La Leche League leader, and is active in Episcopal Church Women. She and Dave have five children: Jay, 12; Leah, 8; Cecily, 5; Collin, 2; and Tommy, 1... Laura Warlick Jackson is an economic statistician with the Bureau of Labor Statistics in Atlanta. She and Larry have two sons, aged 10 and 8. Ann Teat Gallant is the director of marketing at The Baltimore Sun. Husband, Phillip, is an antique dealer. Their children are Shannon, 17, and Jason, 15... Betty Miller Layng and Bill are the parents of Blythe, 3, and Will, 5, and live in Atlanta. Betty is librarian at Trinity School... Cindy

THE AGNES SCOTT ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION
INVITES YOU TO JOIN THEM ON THEIR TOUR TO

THE GALAPAGOS ISLANDS, ECUADOR, AND PERU

JANUARY 27 - FEBRUARY 12, 1984

$2,799.00 per person, based on double occupancy*

This tour includes:

- *Round-trip airfare from Miami via scheduled airlines
- *Round-trip transfers between airports/piers and hotels
- *8-day/7-night cruise aboard the M/V Buccaneer visiting the Galapagos Islands
- *9 nights' first-class hotel accommodations
- *Breakfast and Dinner daily on land; 3 lunches
- *All meals aboard Galapagos Islands tour ship
- *Sightseeing in Ecuador and Peru
- *Baggage handling
- *Service charges
- *Tips and Taxes
- *U.S. departure tax
- *Accent Tours escort

*The above price is based on use of cabins with an upper and a lower berth aboard the M/V Buccaneer. The cost of this tour using cabins with two lower berths is $2,999.00 per person, based on double occupancy.

For additional information, please contact Virginia McKenzie, Director of Alumnae Affairs, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, GA 30030; (404) 373-2571.

Carroll Pillsbury and Harold are in Bradenton, Fla., and have two boys: David, 13, and Stuart, 9... Alice Roberts Burkett and Hugh are both teaching at U of Kentucky and enjoying their children, John, 6, and Mollie, 9. Alice wasn't planning to come to the reunion but Betty and Cindy shamed her with a midnight call the night before, and on she came complete with rhinestone cowboy hat!... Judy King Fleming came from Houston, where she has a top level job with IBM managing data programmers whose task is to improve the economic feasibility of the Space Shuttle... Libba Goud Patterson teaches law at U of South Carolina. She and Glen hike, canoe, and chase after daughter, Lark, 4... Ellen Richter Link is still the class tennis champ and is in the marketing department of Blue Cross/Blue Shield in Atlanta... Carol Culver is preparing future generations, teaching fourth grade... Several class members have returned to ASC. Gué Pardue Hudson is assistant dean of the college. Bill, an attorney, and Gué have three boys... Mary Kay Owen Jarboe is the registrar, and Susan Stringer Connell is teaching chemistry... After six years with Davison's personnel training department Susan Clarke is thoroughly enjoying a sabbatical from the working world. She is perfecting her pottery, traveling, and humoring a lush victory garden... Mary Thomas Bush is an account executive with IBM in Greenville, S.C... Kathy Harlan is group marketing manager with Mrs. Smith's Frozen Foods, a subsidiary of Kellogg in the Philadelphia area. Kathy has an MBA from Boston U in marketing... Peggy Moore Hall and Conrad are in Norfolk. They are parents of twin boys, Cosby and Mercer, and Peggy has been transferred from a retired field hockey center to a soccer mother... Jo Calloway is teaching sociology at Tift College in Forsyth, Ga... More news from the reunion next time.

'69 SECRETARY:

Mary Anne Murphy Hombuckle (Mrs. Jon E.), 1116 Deerpath Rd., Dothan, AL 36303.
Sally Walker Guthrie's family beach home was featured in the June issue of Southern Living... Nancy Hamilton Holcombe, chemist responsible for Quality Services in the Kodak Fiber Division of the Carolina Eastman Company, has been honored by the YWCA in a Tribute to Women and Industry. The award recognizes women who have made a significant contribution to industry in managerial, executive, or professional roles. Nancy is a member of the American Chemical Society.

'70 SECRETARY:

Cheryl Granade Sullivan (Mrs. Joe), 3175 Sprucewood Dr., Decatur, GA 30033.
After selling her restaurant in Nova Scotia, Melissa Groseclose was married to Tom Gallant in October '82 on their wooden schooner. They spend the summer doing a music show which tours Nova Scotia by boat. Tom is from New Brunswick, a playwright, and musician. Their play, Halifax, which opened in Ontario to rave reviews, has allowed them to spend this past winter in the Caribbean. They sailed to Bermuda and the West Indies and enjoyed every minute of it... Susan Cathcart Ketchin Edgerton and Clyde are enjoying daughter Susan Catherine, 1... Jane Robinson McGoldrick has recently become a member of the permanent staff of National Geographic World/Books for World Explorers.

'71 SECRETARY:

Carol Durrance Dunbar (Mrs. R. E.), 1609 Walnut St., Conyers, GA 30208.
Susan Sayre Verner, husband Andrew, and Christopher, 1, live in Swarthmore, Penn.

'72 SECRETARY:

Becky Hendrix (Ms.), 2144 California St., NW, #704, Washington, DC 20008.
Deborah Jordan Bates and Gerald W. Woods were married April 30, 1983. She is medical director of the Westside Emergency Clinic in Augusta... Virginia Uhl Tinsley was one of four new mothers featured in an article in the July issue of McCall's. The article was entitled, "How to Have a Baby, Work Full Time and Hold Back the Tears"... Linda Clark received a Master of Business and Public Management/Master of Accounting degree from Rice U in May.

'73 SECRETARY:

Judy Hill Calhoun (Mrs. Larry M.), 224 Bishop Gate Rd., Columbia, SC 29210.
Martha Bell and Graeme Aston were married in 1977. Recently she received her PhD in mathematics from Colorado State U. Both she and Graeme work at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena... Shelley Stall Kane, Mitch, and baby Benjamin live in Greensboro, N.C. Shelley is currently on leave from her accountant's job to be with Benjamin... Judy Hill Calhoun is our new class secretary. Please send news. Those of you who weren't at our reunion were missed. Let the class know what you're up to, and congratulations to those listed in the Births column!

'74 SECRETARY:

Mercedes Vasilos Paxton (Mrs. Jerry), 1130 Moorestown Cir., Decatur, GA 30033.
Diane Beeler Corman, who last year ran and completed a marathon in Houston, is now working toward an MS in business (a switch from music!) at U of Texas at Dallas. She is also starting as a graduate teaching assistant there. Diane and husband Jim have two daughters: Julie, 6, and Valerie, 4... Nelly Jitsuya wishes to announce joyfully the birth of her son, Sebastian Yoshihiro, who was born to her friend, Blanca, January 3 in Lima. Her largest other concern is her involvement in a cooperative women's bar, which continues striving to survive... Karen Dick was married to James Silverstros December 19, 1981, and has finished her ninth year as a reading specialist in a DeKalb elementary school... Mamie Grisham was married to Pete Kneller in March 1983 and is the proud step-mother of a bouncing 3-year-old and a 7-year-old. She also just received a promotion to senior relocation manager for Equitable Relocation Management Corporation... Betsy Bean Burrell teaches math at a middle school in Spartanburg... Louise Huff Armitage was selected Virginia's Outstanding Young Woman of America.

'76 SECRETARY:

Nancy Leasendale Purcell (Mrs. Roger), 1474 Sugar Maple St., Lilburn, GA 30247.
Sherry Huebsch Druary and Dick travelled from Orange, Tex., to Atlanta in June for the meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly. While in Atlanta Sherry visited with Martha Watson Payne, Melissa Mills Jacobs, Karen White Holland, and Nancy Leasendale Purcell. In Orange Sherry is a counselor at the Crisis Pregnancy Center... Frazer Kinnett Loomis, Cory, and children have moved to Eatontown, N.J., where he teaches at the U.S. Military Academy Prep School... Susan Grier Phillips has had an article published on the Battle Creek Cypress Swamp Sanctuary in the spring issue of Maryland magazine... Diana Lipscomb is an assistant professor at George Washington U. She teaches evolution, animal diversity, and electron microscopy. She and husband Patrick Riordan have a daughter, Jessica 5... Congratulations to all those listed in the Births column!

'77 SECRETARY:

Kathy Oates Roos (Mrs. Stephen), 2062-D Pemoval Ct., Dunwoody, GA 30338.
After teaching at Fernbank Elementary for three years, Ellen Abernathy Dougherty resigned to take care of baby Megan and work on her master's at Mercer. Brian is a medical photographer at the VA Medical Center in Atlanta. Ellen works with him in their wedding photography business... Lynn Summer traveled to York and parts of southern England in March to visit friends she met there while she studied at York... Evelyn Babcock moved to Dallas in June where she is working at the Health Research Center at U of Texas doing post-doctoral research in nuclear magnetic resonance... Joy Cunningham is playing Maria in The Sound of Music this summer in Helen, Ga... Congratulations to the new mothers, fathers, and babies listed in Births column.

'78 SECRETARY:

Martie Lovvorn (Miss), 205 E. 3rd Ave., #3, Rome, GA 30161. Melissa Curtner married James H.

Welch III December 30, 1982. They live in Memphis... Jeanie Moores is an admissions rep for the Art Institute of Atlanta... Paige Patton Edwards is a support rep for the Burroughs Corp. She and Wayne live in Atlanta... Thelma Ruddell Welch, Chris, and baby Lindsay Katherine live in Newport, Ark... Lynn Oswald was visited by Sarah Arthur in Orlando in March. During their visit, they were joined by Mary Downey Lavinder and her husband Glenn. Mary and Glenn were married July 30, 1982. Lynn is spearheading our class's effort to have the ice cream freezer reinstalled in the dining hall... Lucy Hicks also visited Lynn this year. In January Lucy was in Florida for the horse sales... Beth Nease Hawkins and Lee are living in Gainesville, Ga. They have a son and a daughter. Beth reports that Bill and Betsy Davis Hudson are alive, well, and happy in West Point, Ga. Since no one else has heard from them, we'll have to take Beth's word for it... Carol Hedricks Howard and Jim have two children and live in Jacksonville... Betsy Fletcher Cox didn't make it for the class picture, but she wanted me to be sure to tell everyone that she was there!... Hope Lamade Prouse was also there with her husband Bill. It was a

ALUMNA DONATES PORTRAIT OF AGNES SCOTT

Unveiling a portrait of Agnes Irvine Scott during Alumnae Day are Ellen Scott of Avondale Estates and Hillary Irvine of Northern Ireland. The portrait was commissioned and given to the College by Betty Scott Noble '44 of Decatur, a great-great-granddaughter of Agnes Scott, and was painted by Mrs. Noble's artist friend Alicia Rhett of Charleston, S.C. pleasure meeting Bill; he's a very patient man. They live in West Columbia, S.C.... Congratulations to Susan Smith, who's completed her MD degree at Bowman Gray. She's doing her residency in Charleston, W. Va.

'79 SECRETARY:
Peggy Pfeiffer Elder (Mrs. Bill), 108 Christopher Ln., Stockbridge, GA 30281.

Elizabeth Wells is working for Chubb and Son, Inc., an insurance company in Atlanta... Mari Perez and Tucker Hobgood were married December 30, 1982. Mari has been a member of the Georgia Bar since November. The two of them are practicing law in Calhoun, Ga... Laurie Kramer Zwemer and Frank have moved to Cooperstown, N.Y., where he has an internship... Angela Carter is the night clerical supervisor at Grady Hospital on the labor and delivery floor. Angela saw Karen Rogers Burkett and her son Scott recently.

'80 SECRETARY:
Elizabeth Mosgrove (Ms.), 2209 Briarcliff Rd., Apt. 1, Atlanta, GA 30329.

Donna Adams lives in Tallahassee, where she's doing free-lance writing... Sharon Maitland and James B. Moon were married April 23, 1983, in Atlanta. Paxson Collins was a bridesmaid, and English Taylor Ball, Cynthia Dantzer Shearer, Kemper Hatfield, Susie Ham, Keller Murphy, Margaret Seiter, Pat Arnzen, Allison Taylor Turk, Jill Anderson, Lisa DeGrandi, and Meredith Manning '82 were there. Sharon and "J" live in Richmond.

'81 SECRETARY:
Maryanne Gannon (Miss), 3535 Roswell Rd., NE, #K2, Atlanta, GA 30305.

Laura Newsome is working for John Blair and Co., a broadcast representative firm. She is in the radio division. Leigh Armour also works there in the television division. Laura is living in Buckhead with Mary Beth Dubose, who just received her MBA from South Carolina... Laura Dickens Phillips married Rick in August of '79 and has been working full time and going to school while living in Birmingham... Carole Wille has been working for the Clayton Neighbor newspaper as a reporter for over a year... Sarah Leser is working for the advertising agency McCann-Erickson... Shannon Perrin is in graduate school at U of Tennessee at Chattanooga studying geology... Julie Oliver married Stephen Link March 26, 1983, on St. Simons Island, Ga. Ann Curnutt was the maid of honor. Mary Beth Hebert, Shannon Perrin, Karen Helender, and Melissa Kelley attended the wedding. Julie and Stephen are living in Indianapolis... Jan Smith has finished her second year of law school at U of Kentucky. She has been working as a summer associate for Brown, Todd & Heyburn in Lexington, Ky... Teresa Layden graduated from George Washington U with a degree in sociology and a minor in psychology. She is working as an assistant teacher in an elementary school, while working on her master's in English... Susan Kennedy received a master's in math from UVA. She came to Atlanta for a visit in May... Diane Shaw received her MA in Latin from Fordham U. During the summers she has worked at the library of the New York Botanical Gardens. She is preparing herself for a career in rare books and archives.

Lydia Reasor Dayton and Britt moved to Winston-Salem in March... Christine Suggars lives in London and is employed as the receipts secretary and secretary to the assistant executive director at the Parkinson's Disease Society... Mary Ebinger is working for Gilman Paper Co. as a sales rep. She has been working in this position with southeast area accounts for one year... Ann Harris married Rod Merrill April 9, 1983. Mary Ebinger was a bridesmaid. Marietta Townsend, Melanie Merrifield, and Liz Steele attended the wedding. Ann and Rod are living in Boston... Kate McCunniff is working for Bank of America in Atlanta in the investments division as an institutional stockbroker. She spent the month of May training in San Francisco... Gina Phillips and David Harold Averett were married April 9, 1983, in Charlotte. Claire Wannamaker McCunniff, Paige Hamilton, Susan Barnes, Nancy Brock Johnson, Terri Wong, and Kate McCunniff were all in the wedding. Gina and David live in Columbus, Ga... I am still working at Coca-Cola and love it. I spent June moving and running into Kate McCunniff just about everywhere. Y'all keep on writing!

'82 SECRETARY:
Sara Robinson Chambless (Mrs. R. Keith), 206 The Savannah Club, 4444 Westheimer Rd., Houston, TX 77027.

While at home for summer vacation, Lee Kite spent a fun-filled weekend at St. Simon's Beach with Ann Myre and Elizabeth Ruddell. Ann has just finished her first year of law school where she was selected for The Law Review. She is clerking at a firm in Kentucky this summer. Lee is working in Austin this summer as a columnist for The Daily Texan and teaching swimming while taking a class at U of Texas. On a trip through Houston in May, Lee visited Missy Carpenter Beain and Ander at their lovely new home in Friendswood... Peggy Davis is busy with wedding plans this summer at her parents' home in Durham, N.C. Many Scotties have told me that they plan to attend. I'll give you the scoop next time... Alice Harra has been elected president of the new South Florida ASC Alumnae Club. Alice says she will be making her motion picture debut as a background dancer for an MTV video filming a new Miami group "The Shake" and as an extra in Where The Boys Are filmed in Ft. Lauderdale... Sally Adams was married to Michael Voccio May 7, 1983, in Atlanta. Susan Roberts '83, Lucy Kimsey '84, and Teresa Cicanese '83 were among her bridesmaids. Sally and Michael are living in Alexandria Va... I have just started a new job in the Trust Oil & Gas division of Interfirst Bank Houston, N.A. Please write. I really want to hear from everyone, and I know your classmates do too.

'83 SECRETARY:
Laurie McBrayer (Ms.), 7935-F Roswell Rd., Dunwoody, GA 30338.

Weddings: Barbara Boersma married Bob Keller on June 25. Dana

Wright and Julie Babb served as bridesmaids. Laura Head and Jody Stone attended the wedding... Jenny Rowell married Harry Colley on June 18. Lynn Garrison, Claire Sever '84, and Kitsie Bassett were bridesmaids. Kitsie was also a bridesmaid for the wedding of Kathy Ryals and Steve Carroll, who married June 25, and caught the bouquet both times!... Anne Luke married Mark Boozer June 25... Susan Sowell married Michael Byram June 11, and Suzanne Wilson married John Diller on May 28. Beth Wilson served in both weddings... Susan Boyd married Mark Watson on June 11... Julie Ketchersid married Glenn Stephens on July 30... Valerie Hepburn continues to work as assistant to the secretary of state, Max Cleland. She is living with Cheryl Andrews who works as a media buyer for an ad agency in Atlanta... Nancy Childers is in sales training with Davisons... Emily Sharp is working as an admissions counselor at ASC and lives with Lynn Garrison in Clarkston... Kathryn Hart worked at the Federal Reserve during the summer along with Helen Stacy '84. Kathryn lives with Kitsie Bassett, who works for Cable News Network, and Scottie Echols, who works for the Mike Wilson Public Relations agency... Laura Head went to Vendome, France, with an American family and tutored their two-year-old in French... Beverly Bell moved to Washington, D.C., and is working for Representative Barnard from Augusta... Susan Roberts is working for C & S Bank... Caroline Bleke has moved to Boston to explore!... Miriam Campbell joined Dr. Michael on his tour of England.

Marcia Whetsel was a public relations intern for the Maria Mitchell Observatory in Nantucket... Amy Potts is an apprentice to a potter in Nashville. She and Carol Goodman took a bike trip through the mountains and along the Atlantic Coast... Lisa Pendergrast is a sales assistant with A.G. Edwards Stockbrokers and plans to begin working towards her MBA at Florida State this fall... Kim Kennedy served as a chaperone for the Callanwolde singers who went to Scandinavia... Marion Mayer played Guinevere in Camelot and the narrator in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat at the Summer Showcase at Ole Miss... Laura Louise Parker toured Europe... Nancy Caroline Collar is working for a physical therapist... Several classmates will be in graduate school this fall: Amy Mortensen: Emory Medical School; Denise Leary: Emory Graduate School in chemistry (Denise lives with Amy); Mary Jane Taylor: U of Florida in astronomy; Dana Wright: UGA in education; Lane Langford continues at UGA Business School. Pam DeRuiter attends Middlebury College and then will return to France where she spent her junior year; Maggie Taylor attends New York U where she is studying set design; Henri O'Brien is studying for a master's in art history from Vanderbilt; Elisabeth Smith is attending Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville; Lauri Flythe, Marla Haddon, and Lynda Brannen are attending graduate school at Georgia Tech. Lynda lives with Jeanie Morris... I am working as an editorial assistant at Communications Channels, Inc., and really like it. Please send me your news, or call!

ADDITIONAL DEGREES EARNED

1948
Virginia Tucker Hill, M.S.W., Norfolk State University, 1979.

1972
Linda Clark, M.B.P.M./M. acc., Rice University, 1983.

1977
Kate Kussrow McConnaughey, M.A., English, Indiana University, 1979.

1978
Susan Smith, M.D., Wake Forest University, 1983.

1979
Mari Perez Hobgood, J.D., University of Georgia, 1982.

1980
Margaret Evans, M.A., journalism and mass communication, University of Georgia, 1983.

Lee Harber, J.D., Mercer University, 1983.

Emily Moore, J.D., Florida State University, 1983.

1981
Susan Kennedy, M.A., mathematics, University of Virginia, 1983.

Diane Shaw, M.A., Latin, Fordham University, 1983.

BIRTHS

1967
A son, Mark Ray, February 16, 1983, to Becca Herbert Schenk and John.

1973
A son, Benjamin Russell, June 23, 1983, to Shelley Stall Kane and Mitch.

A son, William Jackson, April 7, 1983, to Charlotte Robinson Smith and Bob.

A son, Carlisle Walker, July 5, 1983, to Lee Walker Willard and Carlisle.

1974
A daughter, Frances Rebecca, March 19, 1983, to Becky King Stephens and John.

1976
A daughter, Elizabeth Dickson, August 10, 1982, to Sherry Huebsch Druary and Dick.

A son, Andrew Patton, May 3, 1983, to Ann Patton Henley and Mark.

A daughter, Jane Kennedy, June 22, 1983, to Janie Sutton Hicks and Jeff.

A daughter, Emma, June 17, 1983, to Lucta Allen-Gerald and William.

A daughter, Alice Anslea, May 24, 1983, to Lea Ann Grimes Hudson and Jim.

A son, Bryson McNair, March 30, 1983, to Cile Fowler Carter and husband.

A daughter, Lindsay McKay, January 12, 1983, to Debbie Huband Smith and Jeff.

1977
A daughter, Megan Abernathy, September 1982, to Ellen Abernathy Dougherty and Brian.

A daughter, Karen Beth, April 20, 1983, to Kay Williams Barnard and Bill.

A daughter, Rebecca Elizabeth, June 3, 1983, to Kathy Oates Roos and Steve.

DEATHS

ACADEMY
Mary Russell Green, May 16, 1983.

1912
Carol Stearns Wey, June 13, 1983.

1915
Louise Warren McMillan, March 17, 1983.
Edna Duke Elliott, June 16, 1983.

1918
Anna Leigh McCorkle, June 12, 1983.
Alan Smith O'Neal, husband of Ruth Anderson O'Neal, October 26, 1982.
Alan Smith O'Neal, Jr., son of Ruth Anderson O'Neal, October 27, 1982.

1919
Marguerite Watts Cooper, May 18, 1983.

1921
Eleanor Carpenter, July 4, 1983.

1923
Nell Duke, January 30, 1983.

1925
Lillian Middlebrooks Smears, July 1, 1983.

1928
Mary Elizabeth Lawrence, January 18, 1983.

1929
Helen Sisson Morrison, May 14, 1983.

1930
W. Fred Crayton, husband of Ruth Bradford Crayton, June 25, 1983.

George Brodmerkel, husband of June Gueth Brodmerkel, March 31, 1983.

1933
Katie Belle Hudmon, mother of Mary Hudmon Simmons and Anne Hudmon Reed, May 12, 1983.

1939
Jane Jones Head, December 6, 1982.

John R. Davis, son of Catherine Farrar Davis, May 22, 1983.

1943
Mary Russell Green, mother of Nancy Green Carmichael, May 16, 1983.

1947
E.K. Bennett, father of Dale Bennett Pedrick, June 15, 1983.

William B. Stubbs, father of Ann Stubbs Stambaugh, June 15, 1983.

1948
M.C. Colvin, husband of Mildred Claire Jones Colvin, March 27, 1983.

Mrs. H.G. Lengerich, mother of Shirlee Lengerich Pollman, June 1983.

Al Cook, brother of Martha Cook Sanders, July 8, 1983.

1949
William B. Stubbs, father of Rachel Stubbs Farris, June 15, 1983.

1951
E.K. Bennett, father of Charity Bennett Stelling, June 15, 1983.

1955
John Pfeiffer, father of Peggy Pfeiffer Bass, June 30, 1983.

1961
Annette V. Pollard, mother of Anne Pollard Withers, March 10, 1983.

1966
Paul W. Speicher, husband of Terri Singer Speicher, May 18, 1983.

1973
Ashton H. Cary, father of Edna Cary Coleman, May 21, 1983.

1981
Margaret Mitchell Hodges, May 16, 1983.

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

BIRTHS & DEATHS ... 11

CLASS NEWS 6

CLUB REPORTS 5
Club Calendar 5

NEWS ROUNDUP 2
Alumnae Awards 1
Continuing Education 3
John Flint 3
50 Year Club 4

A Special Edition for Alumnae

ADDRESS CORRECTION REQUESTED

Main Events

Nonprofit Organization
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
Decatur, GA 30030
Permit No. 469

INAUGURATION VIDEOTAPE AVAILABLE

A videotape of President Ruth Schmidt's Inauguration celebration is now available to alumnae clubs who wish to have it for alumnae programs. The 20-minute videotape, "Women, Work and Well-Being: Inauguration of Ruth A. Schmidt," is an overview of the issues discussed during the days of the Inauguration, including the Inauguration ceremony, the panel discussion on work and well-being, and the Glee Club concert dedicated to President Schmidt.

Included on the same tape is a five-minute news feature from WAGA-TV on our first woman president. Both are interesting and entertaining features for club meetings. If you are interested in obtaining a copy of the videotape for a club meeting, contact Virginia B. McKenzie, Director of Alumnae Affairs, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, GA 30030; 404/373-2571.

Professor Emeritus
W. Edward McNair

SEARCHING FOR ANECDOTES

Now that Lest We Forget, the history of Agnes Scott College is completed, Dr. Edward McNair is undertaking as his next project to compile and organize all the stories and anecdotes that he can gather about the College and the people who have been related to it. He already has a sizeable collection of such stories, but he would like to enlarge this collection as much as possible. Thus, he requests all alumnae to send to him any amusing anecdotes they remember from their days on campus. This material may be sent to him at the College. In advance, he thanks all who will participate in this effort.

FACES FROM THE PAST. This photo from our historical file is not identified with the names of these students. If you can identify anyone in the photo, please contact the Office of Alumnae Affairs. We also want to know the year it was taken. Write or call Elizabeth Wood Smith, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, GA 30030; 404/373-2571.

Main Events

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

Series 80, Number 4, Winter 1983

Photos by Julie Culwell

GREAT SCOTT! Studio Dance Theatre dancers entertain crowds of visitors at our community festival. (Photo inserts, bottom to clockwise) (1) President Ruth Schmidt greets Jim Philips with daughter Kate astride his shoulders (2) The Dixie Darlings performed rousing clogging numbers in the street. (3) President Schmidt talks about college life with Ann Epps and her daughter, Elaine. (4) With her balloon tied securely to her finger, Kate Philips, granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Davison Philips, watches the browsers at the library book sale. (5) Ginger Thompson '85 and Libba Moak '85 step high during a clogging routine.

GREAT SCOTT!

For years, Agnes Scott has stood as a quiet landmark overlooking the city of Decatur, only opening its campus to the public for special cultural events. But on Saturday, October 29, the campus sprang alive, bursting with color, music, children's laughter and festivity. More than 1,500 people came to the campus during the "Great Scott!" festival that day, where they got a glimpse of college life.

Cloggers and Studio Dance Theatre performers entertained crowds with an assortment of choreographed dances and costumes while the College's theatre troupe frightened many children during their haunted house. Faculty held slide shows, lab demonstrations and lectures in their classrooms. Visitors browsed through art exhibits and a library book sale and watched synchronized swimming performances.

Children were fascinated by computer demonstrations and getting rainbows, hearts and pumpkins painted on their faces by Agnes Scott students.

From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the breezy, sunny autumn day, visitors toured the campus, participated in mixed doubles tennis, ate cheese and fruit, and explored various booths displaying College activities—the numerous activities kept a continuous crowd on the campus until the festival closed.

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

From The President

Photo by Andrea K. Helms

This summer I heard a speaker make the statement that there are not many truth-speaking traditions. And she went on to elaborate, giving examples of ways in which tradition does not always speak the truth. Of course we can think of our own examples. One which comes to mind at the beginning of the academic year is that of the hazing of freshmen at many colleges and universities. Inflicting bodily harm and/or ridiculing one another is certainly not part of a truth-speaking tradition. Nor was the practice which for years relegated black people to the back of the bus. Neither is that which ascribes certain tasks to men and women by gender instead of by ability or body strength. None of these traditions when examined can be accepted as truth-speaking.

In addition to the fact that there are traditions which are not truth-speaking and which must be reexamined and discarded, there is also a tendency in society and its institutions to retain the outer forms of tradition without understanding the core of meaning which must be reinterpreted for each generation. Jaroslav Pelikan, eminent church historian at Yale, distinguishes between tradition and traditionalism which, as he says, "gives tradition a bad name" by "embalming" it. A tradition may have validity, may be truth-speaking at the time of its inception, but it ceases to speak the truth if attention is focused on its form, obscuring the underlying reasons for its existence. Perhaps this is what the Spanish writer who used the pen-name Azorin meant when he said that those who truly love the past do not want to make it present.

What really concerns us in the ongoing life of people and institutions is, as Pelikan says, "the mysterious relationship between continuity and change." All of us are in some way inheritors of the tradition of liberal learning for women and the basic principles of this institution.

What I wish for us is that, as we combine our own personal backgrounds with Agnes Scott's community heritage, we take as task the consideration of what is to be continued and what is to be changed. In the process we can undergird what Dr. W. Edward McNair in his book, Lest We Forget, says has been the determinative characteristic of the College—a dissatisfaction with the status quo, a desire always to be better than now. This desire always to be better than now is indeed a truth-speaking tradition, and worthy of our best efforts.

—Ruth Schmidt

On Campus

MARY JANE KERR CORNELL '74 NAMED AS COLLEGE'S FIRST CHAPLAIN

Her title is "Reverend Cornell," but she prefers to be called Mary Jane.

In her relaxed manner, leaning back in an office chair and holding a mug of coffee, she explains her entrance into the ministry.

A daughter of a Presbyterian minister, she followed suit and graduated, not only Phi Beta Kappa from Agnes Scott, but with honors from Columbia Theological Seminary. Among her honors are the Wild's Book Prize for achieving the highest academic average of her graduating class. She also received awards for her preaching and a theological paper she had written.

With so many honors and yet such a casual and warm approach, Mary Jane Cornell made the perfect choice as the first chaplain of Agnes Scott College since its founding.

Also the associate pastor at Columbia Presbyterian Church, Mary Jane's main focus at Agnes Scott is to help students understand how faith in God is not separate from everything else they do.

"Religion is not a separate segment of one's life," she explained. "It's integrated into every part of a person's life. Faith is connected to a student's social and academic life." She interrupted her ideas with laughter, explaining that prayer was vital for getting through some of her college courses.

Mary Jane said the Christian commitment is a strong part of Agnes Scott's purpose of developing a student physically, emotionally, intellectually, as well as spiritually.

According to Ruth Schmidt, the College president who decided to add the first chaplain, "The appointment of a chaplain at Agnes Scott should signify that the College takes seriously the portion of its mission statement relating to its roots in Presbyterianism and its commitment to the Christian faith.... The College has long provided for many types of counseling, whether it be health related, academic or psychological health, but we had no formal way to provide for spiritual counseling."

Mary Jane will be devoting two days weekly on campus to counsel, advise, and help students. She will also assist in worship services at the College and hold informal chats at College convocations.

Since she grew up with a minister father, she always "felt at home in the church. I've always been a part of the church and learned the value of it as a nurturing community," she said. When Mary Jane moved to Cambridge, Mass., with her husband,

Gary, she got involved in a church while he attended graduate school at Harvard. There she taught and led group discussions. During that time, her sense of call to the ministry was confirmed. She returned to Atlanta after her husband graduated and attended Columbia Seminary. After graduating, she moved to the church adjacent to the seminary where she assists in worship services, Christian education and caring for the congregation.

Her new responsibilities at the College in addition to her work at the church leaves her with little time of her own, but Mary Jane knows she's made the right choice. "I've got a job where I love to go to work each morning."

Photo by Julie Culwell

PRESIDENT SCHMIDT ELECTED TO WCC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

President Ruth Schmidt was elected to the executive committee of the Women's College Coalition to serve a three-year term. Comprised of 70 women's college across the nation, most of which are private liberal arts colleges, the Coalition seeks to promote women's colleges in the media, thereby increasing public awareness of women's educational needs. Only college presidents serve on the nine-member executive board which sets policy, oversees activities and decides priorities of the Coalition.

Photo by Julie Culwell

JUANITA KREPS TO SPEAK, TEACH IN JANUARY

Former President Jimmy Carter's Cabinet member, Juanita Kreps, who was Secretary of Commerce, will be teaching various classes at Agnes Scott College in January on "Business Problems in the Economy of the 80's."

The Duke University professor will be visiting the campus under the sponsorship of the Hal L. and Julia T. Smith Chair of Free Enterprise in the Economics Department. The professorial chair was made possible through a gift from Mr. Smith, a Trustee Emeritus at Agnes Scott, and his wife, an Agnes Scott 1931 alumna.

Dr. Kreps will teach several classes to students on the state of the nation's economy and its future problems. In addition, she will hold a public lecture on January 9 and a panel discussion for the public on January 30, along with Jerry Jasinowski, chief economist for the National Association of Manufacturers, and Dr. William Freund, chief economist for the New York Stock Exchange.

Dr. Kreps is a former member of the Board of Directors of the New York Stock Exchange, is a former president of the American Association of Higher Education, has served on the Board of Directors of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, and has spent most of her professional academic career at Duke University as a faculty member in economics and in administration.

She has authored several books, which include "Women and the American Economy," "Sex in the Marketplace: American Women at Work," and "Income and Retirement Problems of the Aged."

More than 120 seniors await their entrance into Presser Hall for the 1983 Investiture Ceremony on September 24. The capping ceremony, which has been held at Agnes Scott almost since its beginning, is taken from an English tradition. Agnes Scott is the only college in the United States known to practice investiture, which is a precursor of commencement exercises in June. Students are capped with an academic mortar board by Dean of the College Julia T. Gary who explained, "Putting on the mortar board is symbolic of coming into a new status with the responsibilities, obligations, as well as privileges, of being a senior."

Photos by Julie Culwell

Honors Day speaker Susan Phillips '67, left, chats with Agnes Scott librarian Judith Jensen after the day's ceremony was completed. Dr. Phillips is the first woman to be appointed to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission by President Reagan. She is also a University of Iowa professor who has written numerous articles on financial risk management and economic aspects of private pensions. About 125 students were honored for their academic achievement on Honors Day, which took place in September.

GLEE CLUB PERFORMS WINNING SONG

The Agnes Scott Glee Club performed the works of several Georgia composers whose work was chosen from a composition contest held last spring at the College. The fall concert was held in conjunction with the celebration of Georgia's 250th birthday.

John Corina, University of Georgia professor of music, won first place in the contest for his work, "As the Deer Longs for the Waterbrooks." Other winning works that were featured during the fall performance included Gail Pollock's "Georgia Land," and Michael Fauss and Paul Diamond's "Atlanta, You're My Home."

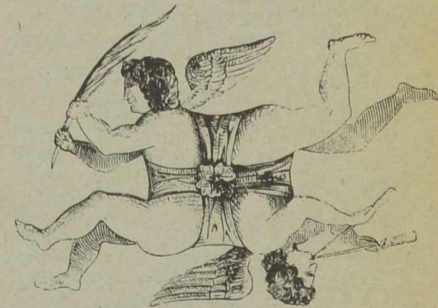

More than 40 composers submitted work in the contest, which stipulated that each contestant have an identifiable relationship to the state of Georgia.

"GOOD-BYE, GOD, I'M GOING TO COLLEGE!"

—Jean Sproat

Canon Chaplain for the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts and the first regularly-ordained woman in the Eastern Massachusetts diocese, Jeanne Sproat, spoke to Agnes Scott students during a three-day series on "Good-bye, God, I'm Going to College."

The informal talks focused on students entering college and examining old moral values while establishing new ones.

Ms. Sproat is responsible for assigning pastors to visit patients in the 12 major medical centers in Boston and providing housing for families of patients.

A field of education supervisor of seminarians for the Boston Theological Institute, Ms. Sproat is also a part-time lecturer at the Episcopal Divinity School in Cambridge, Mass., and a well-known speaker to Christian groups on women's issues in the church.

CLASS OF '87 FEATURES TOP STUDENTS

A diversity of students typifies the entering Class of '87 at Agnes Scott this fall, with minorities representing 11 percent of the class and students coming from five foreign countries. Five are daughters of alumnae.

Although most students are from the Southern region—namely Georgia—students come from New York, Michigan and Pennsylvania, and as far away as Turkey, Pakistan, Colombia, Malaysia and Denmark.

Although they came from different areas of the world, they had the same idea of choosing Agnes Scott because of its high academic reputation. The majority of these students ranked among the top 10 percent of their graduating high school class, with five being National Merit Scholars. The average Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) scores for the class was 1087, which is 194 points above the national average.

Out of these 160 students, an increased enrollment over last year, most chose biology, English, political science and math as their majors with aspirations of careers in engineering (made possible through Agnes Scott's Dual Degree Program with Georgia Institute of Technology), law, medicine, business and communications.

MOVING?/MOVING?/MOVING?

Help us save Agnes Scott money by letting us know ahead of time.

Please attach the mailing label from the outside of this publication here.

New Address:

Street Apt. #

City State Zip

Date new address is effective:

Please return to Office of Public Affairs,
Agnes Scott College, Decatur, GA 30030.

MOVING?/MOVING?/MOVING?

FOUNDER'S CLUB AND LIMITED EDITION PRINTS FOR LEADERSHIP GIVING GROUPS ANNOUNCED

Agnes Scott announces a new giving club, the Founder's Club, and original prints as gifts to members of the leadership giving clubs.

The Founder's Club has been established in order to recognize those donors who have given $5,000 or more during the year and is so named because $5,000 was the amount needed and received from the community to establish the institution in 1889.

Limited edition serigraphs have been announced for membership in the four leadership gifts groups. Leland Staven, Associate Professor of Art and Curator of the Dalton Galleries, created pen and ink drawings of campus scenes. The scenes are printed on a high quality paper with a neutral pH factor; therefore, these works of art should not yellow with time and may be enjoyed for many years. Each print will be signed by the artist.

Century Club members, those who have given $100-$499, will receive a print of Agnes Scott Hall (Main Dormitory). Colonnade Club members, those who have given $500-$999, will receive prints of Agnes Scott Hall and Buttrick. Tower Circle members, those giving $1,000-$4,999, and Founder's Club members, those giving $5,000 or more, will receive a full set of prints, including Agnes Scott Hall, Buttrick, and the McCain Library. In addition, the charter members of the Founder's Club will be honored at a dinner in February.

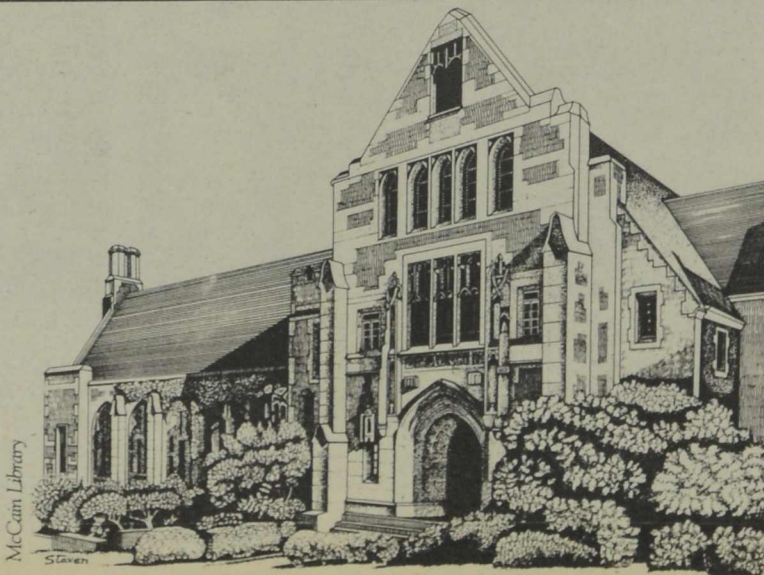

All prints will be mailed after June 30, 1984, to members who have joined the leadership giving clubs during the fiscal year.

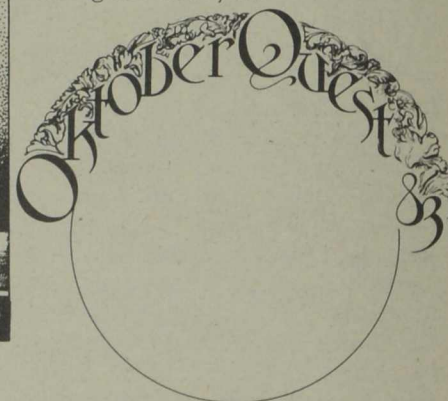

Agnes Scott Hall

Buttrick Hall

McCain Library

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

One hundred thirty-eight junior and senior high school students from across the country were Agnes Scott students for two days during the College's annual OktoberQuest, held October 13-14.

The prospective students attended classes, stayed in the dorm, ate meals in the dining hall, met with faculty and administrators, and got to know Agnes Scott students. The two-day exploration of the campus gave high school students a taste of what they could expect should they choose Agnes Scott as their college.

DANCE AT AGNES SCOTT. Assistant Professor of Physical Education Marilyn Darling demonstrates a dance routine to students. BELOW: The Dixie Darlings pose near the verandah outside Main Hall. INSERT: Members of Studio Dance Theatre form dramatic shapes during a rehearsal.

STUDIO DANCE THEATRE AND DIXIE DARLINGS CAPTIVATE ATLANTA AUDIENCES

What began with a performance heralding President Ruth Schmidt's inauguration last spring has become a popular item in the community this fall. The Agnes Scott clogging group, called the Dixie Darlings, who formed out of a College clogging class, has been such a hit with their dance routines that they were invited to perform in front of record-number crowds at the annual Yellow Daisy Festival at Stone Mountain in September and at the opening of the High Museum in Atlanta in October. Also in October, they performed at the Americana Health Center for Senior Citizens Week and for the "Great Scott!" festival.

Directed by Marilyn Darling, dance director at Agnes Scott, the cloggers practice 30 hours a week before each performance. An intense workout of a three-minute routine is the equivalent of jogging three miles, according to Darling.

Dressed in red gingham skirts over petticoats, they emit a down-to-earth image which has appealed to a large audience.

Another successful dance group, also under the direction of Marilyn Darling, is the Studio Dance Theatre. When she joined the faculty at Agnes Scott in 1971, Darling took the existing dance group and turned it into a well-known dance company with professional talent.

More than 25 students volunteer their time to work out in ballet and modern dance classes each week and to perform once or twice a quarter. This year, they were invited to perform at the High Museum's opening and will be dancing in the Metropolitan Atlanta Winter Dance Festival, sponsored by the Dance Coalition of Atlanta in February.

Darling said the group is most likely to be the only non-professional group out of more than 20 dance companies to perform at the festival. Many performances are choreographed by students.

During the summer, Cable DeKalb taped an interview with Darling about her research on the reviving folk dance forms in Georgia, which was accompanied by a dance sequence by Studio Dance Theatre. The program, called Southern Comfort, has been placed in the Cable DeKalb Archives and nominated for a cable program award.

Darling came to Agnes Scott with a master's degree in music with an emphasis in dance from Florida State University. She has studied with Martha Graham, Jose Limon, Alwin Nikolais, Alvin Ailey, Paul Taylor, and Marcel Marceau.

She has been nominated for the 1983-84 Governor's Awards in the arts for dance, which is an annual award presented to artists in Georgia who are outstanding in their fields.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM STARTS

It's a brisk autumn morning—the time of day when most people desire to be sleeping in a warm bed—and several Agnes Scott students are pounding the streets. These students are part of a newly-formed cross country team which was started by Assistant Dean of the College, Gué Hudson, and secretary to the registrar, Marcia Mitchell, who are also runners.

During freshman registration, Dean Hudson noticed the number of students who were award-winning runners, so she formed a team of eight students who meet weekly to work on mileage and speed.

Already, the team has competed in the Bonnie Bell 10K race and the Georgia Intercollegiate Cross Country Championship in October. In the latter race, one of the members, Amy Bailey '87, won a medal for placing within the first 25 runners to finish. The team will be competing throughout the year in various races and they hope to earn more awards.

Faculty Notes

DAVID BEHAN, Associate Professor of Philosophy, presented the paper, "Hume's Labyrinth," at the Twelfth Hume Conference at Concordia University in Montreal, Canada, in August.

GUNTHER BICKNESE, Professor of German, served as tour guide and trip manager for the 1983 summer alumnae trip to six central European cities, including Munich, Salzburg, Vienna, Prague, Berlin, and Nurnberg. He also directed the Agnes Scott Summer Study at the University of Marburg, Germany, a seven-week program of study and field trips.

SANDRA BOWDEN, Professor of Biology, has been appointed chair of the Meritorious Teaching Award

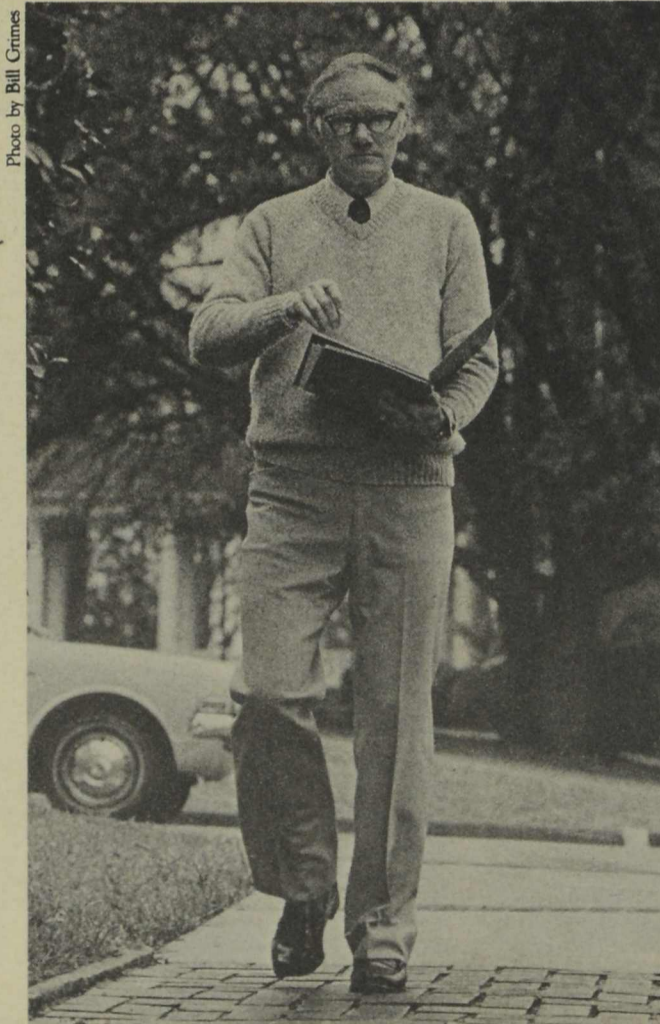

Committee and to the Executive Committee of the Association of Southeastern Biologists. The A.S.B. is the major regional professional organization of biologists from 16 Southeastern states.

JACK BROOKING, Annie Louise Harrison Waterman Professor of Theatre, performed the role of The Director in Jitters by David French at the Atlanta Unitarian Church in November. After spending four weeks this summer in Greece, Crete, and Tunisia, Dr. Brooking wrote a series of short stories and sketches based on the areas and the experiences.

MICHAEL BROWN, Charles A. Dana Professor of History, taught Elizabethan Social History in England this summer to 17 students. During five and a half weeks of study and travel, the group was based in Exeter, Oxford, York, Edinburgh, and London. Dr. Brown's review of Mary Dewar, editor, De Republica Anglorum by Sir Thomas Smith was published in the summer issue of Albion, a journal of the North American Conference on British Studies.

JAY BUCEK, Instructor in Art, exhibited his works at the Chastain Gallery Show, "Exploration of the

Jack Brooking

Michael Brown

Feminine Principle in Clay," in May, and he and LELAND STAVEN, Associate Professor of Art and Curator of the Dalton Galleries, had an exhibition of their work at the Etowah Creative Arts Council Gallery in Cartersville, Georgia, in October and November.

PENELOPE CAMPBELL, Professor of History, studied in China and Japan for eight weeks during the summer in conjunction with a New York University Asian Studies program.

M. ELOISE BROWN CARTER, Assistant Professor of Biology, presented a paper at the national meeting of the American Institute of Biological Sciences at the University of North Dakota in August. The paper, "Character Displacement in Talinum mengesii," was presented in a session sponsored by the Ecological Society of America and the Botanical Society of America. Prior to the meeting, Dr. Carter and SANDRA BOWDEN, Professor of Biology, attended a workshop on Computers in Biology Education.

CAROLINE DILLMAN, Assistant Professor of Sociology and Anthropology, received an Agnes Scott Summer Research Fellowship for work on a book on Southern women. She presented a paper, "Researching Feminism in the American South: A Matter of Media-Influenced Perspectives and Perceptions," at the XIth International Congress of Anthropological and Ethnological Sciences, in Vancouver, British Columbia, in August. Dr. Dillman gave a talk, "Genealogical Reminiscences of a Confederate Captain's Great-Granddaughter," for the Atlanta chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in September.

PAUL GARBER, Professor of Bible and Religion, Emeritus, was an official participant in the Sixth World Council of Churches Assembly in Vancouver, British Columbia, in July and August.

CONNIE JONES, Associate Professor of Sociology, received a Faculty Research Grant from Agnes Scott for this summer to continue her research in Hindu movements in America. She surveyed collections in Chicago, Berkeley, San Francisco, and Los Angeles and visited several ashrams and international centers of Hinduism in these places. She organized and chaired a session at the annual meeting of the Society for the Scientific Study of Religion in Knoxville entitled "Comparative Studies on Women and Religion: Texts and Realities" in November.

KATHARINE KENNEDY, Assistant Professor of History, read a paper entitled "Marching on the Playground: Military Preparation in German Primary Schools, 1871-1914" at the joint meeting of the History of Education Society (USA) and the Canadian History of Education Association, held in Vancouver, British Columbia, in October. The paper was based in part on research conducted this summer in West Germany with funding from a research grant awarded through Agnes Scott's Professional Development Committee.

NANCY MANSON, Assistant Professor of Biology, presented a paper, "Hydrogen Peroxide and Hydroxyl Radical Mediation of Activated Leukocyte Depression of Cardiac Sarcoplasmic Reticulum: Participation of the Cyclooxygenase Pathway." The paper was based on her postdoctoral research and research performed this summer at the Medical College of Virginia in collaboration with Dr. Michael Hess and was presented in September at the International Congress of Myocardial Research in Hilton Head, South Carolina.

RAYMOND MARTIN, Professor of Music and College Organist, was honored by the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in September for his twenty years of service as organist there. He was presented with gifts from the choir and congregation, and, as a surprise, the church announced the establishment of the Raymond J. Martin Organ Fund for any necessary repairs to insure the instrument is always in excellent condition. Dr. Martin is Agnes Scott's senior member of the teaching faculty with 34 years of service.

TERRY S. McGEHEE, Assistant

Terry McGehee (r.)

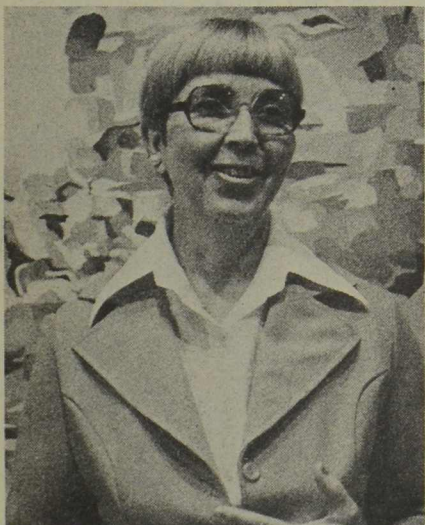

Professor of Art, was on Sabbatical last year. During that time she spent three weeks trekking in the Annapurna region of the Himalayas in Nepal and a week in Paris on the way back visiting galleries and museums. In April she showed at the Carol Loewenstern Gallery in Houston in a group exhibit and in March at the Fourth Biennial Paper and Clay Exhibition at Memphis State University. The rest of the year she spent working on her pastel drawings and paintings.

(Cont'd.)

LOIS OVERBECK, Assistant Professor of English, was chair of a special session, "Modern Drama: Text and Performance," at the South Atlantic Modern Language Association meeting in Atlanta in October. LUIS PENA, Assistant Professor of Spanish, has had "Escritura del espacio y espacio de la escritura: El perro de la escribana" published in Mexico in Plural, Vol. XII, No. 136 and "Escritura del paisaje y paisaje de la escritura; Rulfo y Fuentes" in Spain in El paisaje en la literatura hispánica (Madrid: Cuadernos Aldeu), Vol. I, Nos. 2-3, both this year. He presented his papers, "La metamorfosis del deseo: una aproximación al teatro mexicano de la última década," at the international meeting of the Latin American Studies Association in September in Mexico City; "El perfil de la mirada: el rol del lector en la conformación textual de El hipogeo secreto" and "The Image of Multinationals in Mexican Literature" at the 38th annual meeting of the Rocky Mountain Modern Language Association in Glendale, Arizona, in October; "La discreta memoria: la revolución mexicana y su inscripción en la historieta" at the Second Conference on Popular Culture in Latin America in Las Cruces, New Mexico, in November.

MARIE HUPER PEPE, Charles A. Dana Professor of Art, received an Agnes Scott Faculty Summer

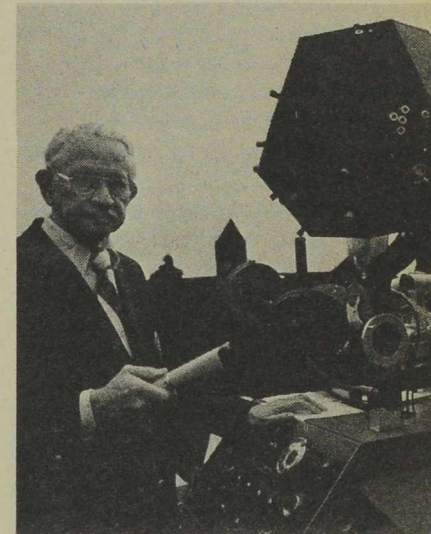

Research Grant to prepare two courses: The Woman as Artist from the Renaissance through the 19th Century and Greek and Roman Art

COLLEGE ORGANIST HONORED. In October, Professor of Music and College Organist Raymond Martin gave his annual concert on campus and performed works by Vieme, Franck, and Bach, among others. He was honored in September by his church, Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, for his 20 years of service there.

and Architecture. Dr. Pepe read a paper, "The Development of the Buddhist Temple in Siam and the Climax of the Siamese Style as Seen in the Temple of the Dawn at Tonburi and the Grand Palace in Bangkok," in October at the Southeastern College Art Conference in Chattanooga.

JULIUS STAAL, Director of the Planetarium, Bradley Observatory, has translated the two-volume book, Uranographie Chinoise, into English and extracted information from it to publish his Stars of Jade, to be released in December.

NAI-CHUANG YANG, Assistant Professor of Chemistry, originated the idea of and collaborated with F.H. Hsu on the paper, "Positron Annihilation Studies of Activation Effects of Substituents on Naphthalene Derivatives," which was presented at the annual meeting of Material Research Society in Boston in November. Also in November Dr. Yang presented the paper, "Synthesis of 4-Substituted N-(3-Dimethylaminopropyl)-1, 8-Naphthalimides" at the 35th American Chemical Society Southeast Regional Meeting in Charlotte. Two students, Julie Ketchersid '83 and Mary MacKinnon '85, were involved in the laboratory work for this paper.

Events

MARSHA NORMAN TO SPEAK

The 1983 Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright, Marsha Norman '69, who attended Agnes Scott College for three years, will be speaking about her career on April 10 at the College.

The petite, 35-year-old brunette wrote 'Night, Mother, which won her the award. The play is about a forlorn, overweight woman, despondent about her situation, who decides to commit suicide. She announces her decision to her shocked mother, and their dialogue unfolds what is behind the struggle of a person's decision to take her life.

Norman's sensitivity to emotionally hurt people derived from her experiences in working as a volunteer, while in college, in the burn unit at Grady Memorial Hospital, and later in the children's department at a mental facility near Louisville, Ky.

The latter experience influenced her to write the play, Getting Out.

She wrote numerous articles for a Louisville magazine and created The Jelly Bean Journal, a children's supplement to Louisville's newspaper. Some of her plays included: Third and Oak, The Laundromat, The Pool Room and The Holdup. She is now working on a book about a religious sect in Kentucky called The Shakers.

Self-described as a serious person, she majored in philosophy at Agnes Scott. In a recent Saturday Review magazine article, she attributes her philosophical influence to Merle Walker, former professor and chairman of the philosophy department at ASC.

Her plays reveal her belief that people have the right to make their own decision about their lives, even if, as in her play 'Night, Mother, they decide to end it.

Photo by Julie Culwell

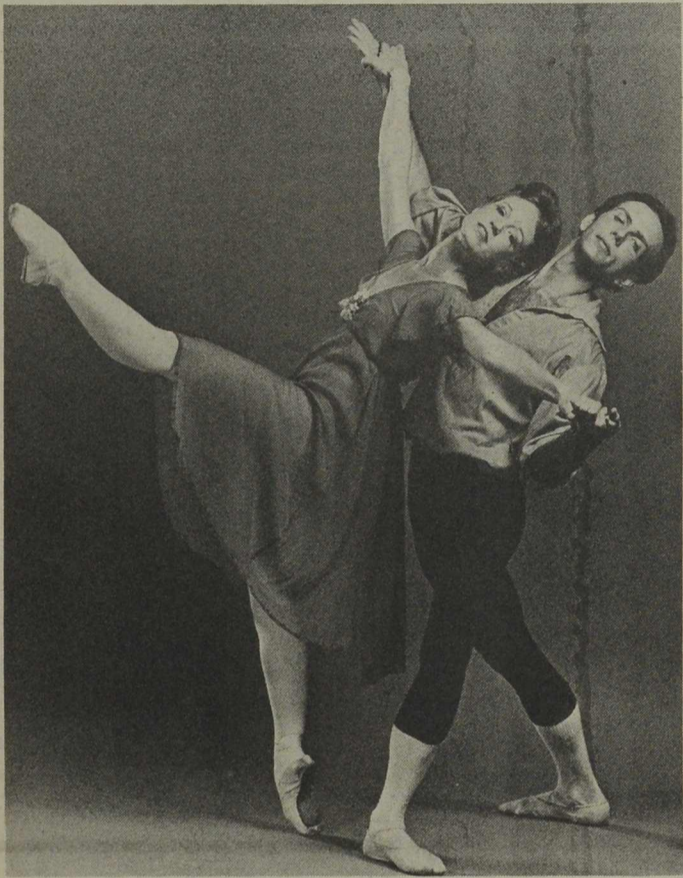

WINTER/SPRING 1984

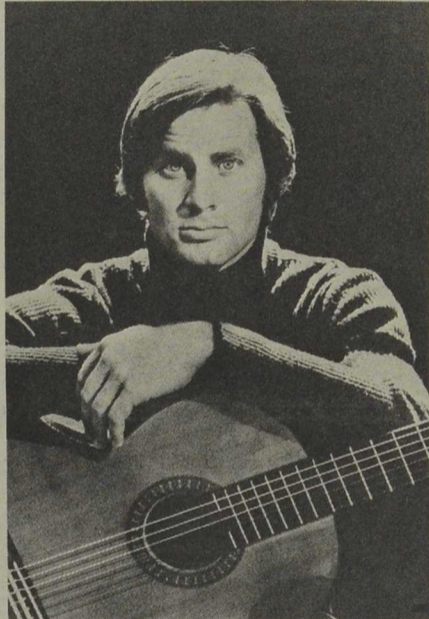

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| JANUARY 4 | THE DANCE TOURING THEATRE OF FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY. |
| JANUARY 20 | DANCE CONCERT FOR CHILDREN by Agnes Scott Studio Dance Theatre. |
| JANUARY 31 | KIRK CONCERT SERIES—Christopher Parkening, classical guitarist. |
| FEBRUARY 7
& 8 | ROBB FORMAN DEW, author of novel, Dale Loves Sophie to Death , and of stories published in Southern Review , Virginia Quarterly , The New Yorker . |
| MARCH 1 | THE NATIONAL THEATRE OF THE DEAF performs The Hero with a Thousand Faces . |
| APRIL 10 | MARSHA NORMAN, alumna and 1983 Pulitzer Prize winning playwright for 'Night, Mother . |
| APRIL 19 | SALLY FITZGERALD will talk on her work of editing Flannery O'Connor's letters. |
| APRIL 24 | KIRK CONCERT SERIES—Guarnieri String Quartet. |

Guarneri String Quartet

FSU Dance Touring Theatre

World-renowned concert pianist Garrick Ohlsson gave the first performance of the Kirk Concert Series for the 1983-84 season at Agnes Scott. Ohlsson performed during a rainy fall evening for an overwhelmed audience. He gave two encores and received a standing ovation. Also in the concert series will be Christopher Parkening, classical guitarist, performing at Agnes Scott on January 31 and the Guarneri String Quartet, returning for the ninth season at the College on April 24.

The Agnes Scott theatre group, Blackfriars, presented this fall the colorful, updated-for-the-eighties version of "Godspell," a lively musical portraying the life of Christ, according to the book of Matthew. The new version was placed in an athletic setting to emphasize the need for "spiritual fitness" in a society where physical fitness is often stressed.

On June 5, 1984, a group of Agnes Scott students, alumnae and friends will depart from Atlanta for a 16-day tour of Greece. The tour will be conducted by Dr. Richard D. Parry, Professor of Philosophy at Agnes Scott, who has toured most of the sites the group will visit. The cost is a modest $1,679, which includes air fare, ground transport and admission to all sites, two meals a day, and twin-bedded rooms with bath.

Arriving in Athens on June 6 after an intermediate stop in Amsterdam, the group will visit the Acropolis; the Agora; Plaka, oldest part of modern Athens; the National Archaeological Museum; and the Roman Agora, with free time to enjoy a play, the sound and light show at the Acropolis, or other events.

After lunch in Athens on June 9, the group departs for Delphi and the temple of Apollo. From Delphi the tour visits the extensive and relatively undisturbed ruins of ancient Cornith on June 12, and from Corinth the group goes to Mycenae to visit the ancient walled city and underground tombs.

From June 14 to June 18 the group tours Nauplia, first capital of modern Greece; Epidauros, known for its almost perfectly preserved theater and the ruins of the temple of Asklepios; and Aigina, whose major archaeological site is the temple of Aphaia, 2,500 years old. Next the group returns to Athens on June 18 for the final full day in Greece, which will include a trip to Cape Sounion to visit the temple of Poseidon.

On June 19 the group flies to Amsterdam to spend the remainder of the day and the night. The group returns to Atlanta June 20.

Dr. Parry will suggest selected readings before the trip to ensure each traveler's familiarity with Greece's history, and a Greek-speaking guide will accompany the group.

For a brochure containing complete information please write Dr. Richard Parry, Department of Philosophy, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia 30030 or call 404/373-2571, ext. 259 or 404/373-3401.

To enroll in the trip, a $100 refundable deposit should be sent to Dr. Parry by January 15. The balance of $1,579 is due by April 20, 1984.

JOIN THE ASC GREECE TOUR

Send to Dr. Richard Parry, Department of Philosophy, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia 30030.

Please send me a brochure.

Enclosed is my refundable $100 deposit, due by January 15.

Name _____ Class _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____ Phone _____

Tributes

ASC's OLDEST ALUMNA, ANNIE WILEY PRESTON, 104, DIES AT HOME IN DECATUR OCTOBER 31

Annie Shannon Wiley Preston, who was Agnes Scott's oldest known living alumna, died October 31, a little over two months before her birthday on January 15, which would have made her 105 years old.

During the long span of her life, she lived in Korea, visited Europe and China, witnessed the coronation of King Edward in England, and saw her family grow to the size of six children, 21 grandchildren, and 21 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Preston could boast that three generations of her family attended Agnes Scott. All three of her daughters were graduated from here, and three of four granddaughters who attended Agnes Scott were graduated.

She is remembered for her involvement in the College, as a member of the Decatur Alumnae Club and for her attendance at several Alumnae Leadership Conferences and Alumnae Weekends. Last April she was one of the honored guests as the oldest living alumna at the Fifty Year Club annual dinner. She attended Agnes Scott from 1895 to 1897 and along with a few other students created the College's first yearbook.

"Annie Wiley Preston was one of Agnes Scott's most loyal and supportive alumnae. She was proud that her daughters and granddaughters are alumnae also," said Dr. Paul McCain, Assistant to the President for Planned Giving, who not only knew her from Agnes Scott but was also in her Sunday school class at Decatur Presbyterian Church. "The members of the Covenant Class (at her church) will always remember her apt illustrations and incisive comments during the discussions of each session until 1982 when she had too much difficulty climbing the stairs."

Her insight into religious discussions was probably a result of having worked as a Presbyterian missionary with her husband, the Reverend John Fairman Preston, in Korea for 37 years. There he founded Soongil Boys School and she taught at a private girls school.

Director of Alumnae Affairs Virginia Brown McKenzie described Mrs. Preston's life as one "of service as a teacher and missionary. In her later years, her daughter, Shannon P. Cumming '30, lived the life of service, seeing that Mrs. Preston was taken to all her Agnes Scott alumnae activities. We are grateful to Mrs. Preston for her many years of devotion to Agnes Scott, which were reflected in her gifts to the College and in her interest in alumnae affairs."

Photo by Andrea Helms

HAPPY BIRTHDAY! Mrs. Annie Preston, left, reminisces with President Ruth Schmidt, who attended Mrs. Preston's 104th birthday party last January at her home in Decatur. Mrs. Preston had received extensive media coverage since her 100th birthday as being one of Georgia's oldest citizens.

IN HONOR

ISABEL McCAIN BROWN
Betty Brown Sloop
CAROLINE McKINNEY CLARKE
Louise Hill Reaves
CLASS of 1983
Kate McKemie
MARY WALKER FOX
Bertie Bond
W. JOE FRIERSON
Nancy Edwards
SARAH FULTON
Frances Strother
JANE ZUBER GARRISON
Mr. and Mrs. Osburn Zuber
GEORGE P. HAYES
Peggy Marion Ryals
PAUL M. McCAIN
Gary B. and Jill Adams
Mary C. Chastain
KATHERINE CRAWFORD MORRIS
Joseph L. Morris
MILDRED LOVE PETTY
Buzz and Betsy Roberts Morgan
RUTH SCHMIDT
Mary Jane Kerr Cornell
MARY BONEY SHEATS
Sue Hipp Adams
Bertie Bond
Mary Jane Kerr Cornell
Nancy Edwards
Dr. and Mrs. Marvin B. Perry, Jr.
Deborah Rosen
Eugenie Sheats
Jim and Doris Tippens

IN MEMORIAM

LOUISA JANE ALLEN
Mr. and Mrs. Bona Allen III
LOUISE MACKEY BOWERS
Dr. and Mrs. Edward Dunaway
Mark Goodson
ELIZABETH ANDERSON BROWN
Ruth Evans Larimore
Cornelia Brown Nichols
JOHN A. and SALLIE BURGESS
Cama Burgess Clarkson
DECEASED MEMBERS of
ALUMNAE CLUB-DECATUR
Alumnae Club-Decatur
DECEASED MEMBERS of the
CLASS of 1953
Mary Holland Archibald
Louise Ross Bell
Mary Evans
Allardyce Armstrong Hamill
Mary Anne Garrard Jernigan
Lois Ginn Stark
EVA WASSUM CUNNINGHAM
Mrs. J. R. McDavid
GEORGE ELLIS
Claudia G. Stucke
MARCIA MANSFIELD FOX
Nina Broughton Gaines

A gift to Agnes Scott is an appropriate way to honor or to memorialize a friend or member of your family. Upon receiving your donation, Agnes Scott College will send a card of notification to the individual or family.

Unless otherwise designated, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Between June 1 and November 1, 1983, Agnes Scott received gifts in honor or in memory of each of the names listed below. In addition, the Alumnae Association placed a memorial book in the McCain Library for each alumna who died during this period.

JUNE 1, 1983 - NOVEMBER 1, 1983

- | | |
|--|--|
| M. KATHRYN GLICK
Anne English Walker | Miriam Drucker
Mrs. W. S. Dunaway |
| ROXIE HAGOPIAN
Charlie and Marie Pepe | Jan Carpenter Eads
Mary Ebinger |
| MARY EVELYN HAMILTON
Betsey Davidson Smith | Mary Beth Hebert
Marie D. Hiddleston |
| JULIA INGRAM HAZZARD
L. B. Hazzard | Donald Hodges
Kathleen Hollywood |
| Mr. and Mrs. HORACE HENRY
Ann A. Henry | David C. and Bonnie Brown Johnson
Sandra Johnson |
| CAROL HANCOCK HOGE
Ben H. Hoge | Catherine Paul Krell
Mary F Ness |
| MARGARET MITCHELL HODGES
Patricia Amzen | Kim M. Parrish
Dr. and Mrs. Marvin B. Perry, Jr. |
| Minnie C. Bates | Beth A. Richards |
| Margaret Vanneman Bynum | Rosser White Hobbs Davidson
McClellan Kelly, Inc. |
| Ayse Ilgaz Carden | Victoria Haynes Schwartz |
| Kimberly Jeanne Clark | Denise Spears Severson |
| Mary Newell Cobb | Margaret Shirley |
| Mrs. J. E. Coffee, Jr. | Bonnie Etheridge Smith |
| Carol Colbe | Katherine Stearns |
| Jeanne Marie Cole | Claudia G. Stucke |
| Mr. and Mrs. Richard Conte | Cora E. Taylor |
| Lee B. Copple | Amy Cohrs Vassey |
| Judith M. Cunningham | Dr. and Mrs. Russell W. Wallace |
| Debby Daniel-Bryant | |

- ONA JONES
David C. and Bonnie Brown Johnson
- ANN FLITCRAFT LATHRUP
Judith B. Jensen
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Plankenhorn
- FRANK W. LEE
Jane Norman Scott
- RAY LOUISE WILSON LILE
Margaret Inman Simpson
- MARY STUART MacDOUGALL
Martha Rhodes Bennett
- JAMES ROSS McCAIN
Emily Spivey Simmons
- JUDSON McCALEB
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
- CARROLL McGAUGHEY
Mary Ammons Jones
- ALICE McINTOSH
Martha McIntosh Nall
- FANNY DARGAN McCAA
McLAUGHLIN
John C. B. McLaughlin
- JANE ELIZABETH NELSON
Vivian Hays Guthrie
- JOHN PFEIFFER
Peggy Pfeiffer Bass
Mrs. Robert E. Bass, Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey G. Booth
Barbara Bolen Florence
Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Kemmerling
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
Jimmy A. and Charlene Bass Riley
Mrs. Elbert H. Stiff
Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Watt, Jr.
- SARAH SHIELDS PFEIFFER
Peggy Pfeiffer Bass
- MARGARET McKAY POWELL
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
- ANNIE WILEY PRESTON
Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. McCain
- LILLIAN RHODES
Sally Skardon
- CARRIE SCANDRETT
Sarah Owenby Bowman
Nan Hammerstrom Cole
Nancy Edwards
Nancy Groseclose
Anne Ehrlich Solomon
- FRANCOIS SHEATS
Betty Armstrong McMahan
Charlie and Marie Pepe
- CHARLES A. SHELDON III
Nell Allison Sheldon
- JEANNETTE CARROLL SMITH
Isabella Robertson White
- CAROLYN STROZIER
Martha Moody Laseter
- LOUIS VALVELLE SUTTON, JR.
Kevin and Cindy Hodges Burns
- MARGRET TROTTER
Norris Wootton
- FERDINAND WARREN
Helen Fokes Farmer
- VIRGINIA OWENS MITCHELL WATKINS
Howard H. Callaway Foundation, Inc.
Margaret McManus Landham
Anne Eidson Owen
Marianne Jeffries Williams
- CAROL WEY
Laura Whitner Dorsey
- ELIZABETH ZENN
Juliette Harper
Charlie and Marie Pepe
Becky Wilson

MARGARET MITCHELL HODGES SCHOLARSHIP NAMED FOR RTC'S

Photo by Fred Zimmerman

Energetic...intense...a beautiful laugh... a love for life...vibrant...insightful...a whirlwind...a sparkler...a great concern for others...a tremendous faith in God...

Her name was Margaret Mitchell Hodges and her life made such an impact on others that her death last spring prompted an overwhelming response to establish a fund at Agnes Scott in her memory.

Margaret Shirley and Susan Little, Return to College classmates of Mrs. Hodges, and Ayse Carden, assistant professor of psychology, Mrs. Hodges' major, spearheaded the effort to raise money for the fund. Family, friends, relatives, classmates and the Agnes Scott psychology department contributed to the fund which will provide financial assistance for Return to College students.

"We cared for her so much. This was our way of showing it," said Dr. Carden.

The Margaret Mitchell Hodges Scholarship Fund will assist women, over the normal college age, who have returned to college to earn a degree. Mrs. Hodges was one such student.

She dropped out of college when she was a sophomore to marry. She raised three daughters and established her own business as a skilled seamstress and interior decorator out of her home. In addition to family life and her business, she took tap dancing lessons and participated in the bell choir at her church. But there was still something she had not done—earn a college degree. So for personal satisfaction more than anything else, she enrolled at Agnes Scott in 1978 to pursue a degree in psychology. She was on the Honor Roll in 1980, while she stayed involved in her business and other activities.

Soon after graduation in 1981, she discovered that she had cancer, and for almost two years she fought the illness until her death on May 16, 1983.

Margaret's husband Don, in addition to helping establish the fund, presented the psychology department with a plaque of a Return to College program advertisement which featured her.

Additional contributions may be made to the Margaret Mitchell Hodges Scholarship Fund to help Return to College students who have financial needs. Contributions should be sent to the Office of Development, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia 30030.

...Because her life showed such care and concern for others, the fund is an appropriate way of memorializing her.

Donor's Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

I wish to make a contribution (in honor) (in memory) of _____

(Relationship to Donor)

I have enclosed my check in the amount of _____ made payable to Agnes Scott College. Please send the notification card to:

Name _____

Address _____

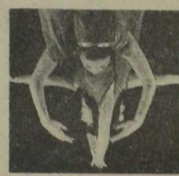

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Please return this form with your check to:
Bonnie Brown Johnson, Director of Development
AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE, Decatur, GA 30030

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

Miss Lillian Newman
380 South Candler Street
Decatur, GA 30030
FS17053

ON CAMPUS	2
First Chaplain	2
Juanita Kreps	3
Class of '87	4
Founder's Club	4
ASC Dances	5
FACULTY NOTES	6 & 7
EVENTS	8
Marsha Norman	8
Kirk Concert Series	9
TRIBUTES	10
Annie Preston	10
Margaret Hodges	11

ADDRESS CORRECTION REQUESTED

Main Events

Nonprofit Organization
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
Decatur, GA 30030
Permit No. 469

COLLEGE HONORS JOHN O. FLINT ON HIS 100th BIRTHDAY

The birthday of a 100-year-old man was a cause for celebration at Agnes Scott College October 1. About 300 guests, including family, friends, and many of those who knew him during the 60 years he worked at Agnes

Scott, gathered to pay tribute to John O. Flint.

Mr. Flint came to Agnes Scott in 1910, starting as janitor and working his way up to head waiter of the dining hall and head of cafeteria personnel. He was best known as the bell ringer, notifying students it was time for a meal.

His artisan talents were utilized in designing intricate moldings in Rebekah Hall. He painted interiors and dug foundations for several campus buildings. Students loved his involvement in student life; he collected logs from the woods for their fall bonfires and helped decorate for their parties.

He worked under the leadership of the first four presidents, but finally retired before the current president, Ruth Schmidt, took office. Marvin B. Perry, Jr., and Wallace M. Alston, two former presidents along with Ruth Schmidt were there at the party to give special greetings to Mr. Flint.

Banquet tables in the Rebekah Reception Room displayed a variety of hors d'oeuvres and a three-layer chocolate cake. The College presented him with a captain's chair, inscribed with the College seal, and he received proclamations from local officials, as well as from President Ronald Reagan.

JOHN O. FLINT CELEBRATES 100th BIRTHDAY. At his 100th birthday party on campus, Mr. Flint thanks President Ruth Schmidt for the captain's chair from the College. He is surrounded by his daughter Missouri, his brother Ernest, Director of Public Affairs Sara A. Fountain, and an unidentified friend. RIGHT: A younger John Flint strikes a familiar pose as he rings the College dinner bell in a photo taken during the sixties.