President

Mary Brown Bullock '66

A thank you to President Bullock:

It is easy to dedicate oneself to Agnes Scott College. There is something about this campus with its committed faculty and staff and of course its dedicated students. President Mary Brown Bullock '66 has devoted the past eleven years of her life and career to Agnes Scott as its hard working and ever present leader. The college has, in her tenure, increased enrollment, risen on statistical charts, and generated an improved social and intellectual environment. This institution is a leading liberal arts college filled with extremely promising students nurtured by a prestigious faculty and talented staff. It is with great pleasure that this page is printed to honor President Bullock and her years here at Agnes Scott. President Bullock you have made Agnes Scott College a place where students, faculty, and staff want to come and enjoy being, and for that we are forever grateful. You addressed the students by stating that you look forward to our years together as alumnae and frankly, so do we. We wish you the very best of luck in your future endeavors and hope that we shall cross paths soon and often.

Invested in the Red Class:
Mirena Todorova '06 and
President Mary Brown
Bullock '66 attend Senior
Investiture November 5th, 2005.

Another year gone by, another year filled with hard work and dedication. After all the papers, tests, and projects have been turned in and the books have been returned to the library, what exactly are we left with? We are all privileged enough to be part of an amazing community of higher education. This academic year has no doubt changed thinking, challenged views, expanded knowledge, and developed relationships. This book attempts to capture that stimulating environment. The Agnes Scott community is comprised of the people who participate in it and the hope is that this, the 102nd volume of the Silhouette, summarizes all that is Agnes Scott: the energy and activity of the campus, the professors who teach and lead the quest for knowledge, the staff who maintain the comfortable environment and support events, and the students who learn together, work together, and party together. Whether you have been here for thirty years or only one, you have chosen to share your life with the rest of the Agnes Scott community. So, with another year behind us, what we are left with is our lives filled with a million memories. This book seeks to visually depict those memories and represent what we have done and what we have shared. So here is to life, the life of Agnes Scott College.

This book was inspired by the art movement known as Pop, as well as the brilliantly simplistic designs of previous editions of the Silhouette, published in the 1960s and 70s.

Student

Pep Rally fun: Caroline Thompson '08 and Claire Huddleston '08 show Scottie spirit. "Hanging" around: Amy Herring '06 and Andrea Jones '06 lounge on the Inman porch. In the foam: Sarah Jones '09 and Dana Peterson '09 enjoy the foam party. True friends: Charlie Tikon '07 and Emmeline Creasy '06 hang out in Decatur. Happy Vixen: Caitlin Copan-Kelly '06 enjoys dressing up for bonfire. You've got mail: Renn Judin '06 gets a package from Colleen McCreight '08 at the post office.

To the Class of 2006:

This section is dedicated to a truly exceptional class. These pages are filled with the faces of strong leaders, brilliant thinkers, and devoted workers. Over the past four years these ladies have proven their strength and perseverance and it has been a pleasure to be among them. We always aimed for excellence: be it in the classroom, the work place, abroad, or even Black Cat. We came together when it was most needed and committed our time and talents no matter how challenging the task. The color red has served us well, fittingly just as bold, daring, and passionate as we were. The time we have spent here at Agnes Scott College has been unforgettable and I can only hope that the contents of this book communicate that feeling. With great pride I would like to present the Vixens: Class of 2006.

Exodus

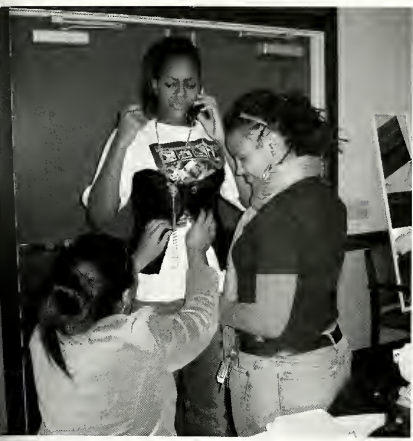

The mission of Exodus is to assist in the development of the Caucasian character. This will be accomplished through examining the following: the construction of "whiteness", the idea of white privilege, the ways in which members of the white race have been socialized, and the effects of that socialization on ourselves and other peoples. This is a group led by Caucasians who desire to improve upon their own moral and character development, although students and faculty of all races and ethnicities—and their input—are welcome.

final words:

i was never supposed to be the editor. i joined the yearbook staff my first year thinking it seemed like a good idea. i tried quitting almost every week since that first semester in 2002, but for some reason my attempt to quit was always taken as an idle threat and never worked. looking back, i do not know if it was the people or the job that kept enticing me. it was probably both. yearbook requires an exceptional amount of time and a number of sacrifices. it is a tall order to document a year in a single book, especially when that task is one of many on your plate. the silhouette has been a large part of my life since starting here at agnes and it defines for me what it means to have a love/hate relationship. the struggles of being a staff member and especially editor are many but at the end of the day there is so much to be proud of. it becomes a battle to balance the amount of work involved and to maintain your desire to produce a quality product. after spending countless hours in the yearbook office i can only hope that it has been worth it. the end is bitter sweet. when i was confronted with the decision to become editor i never wanted to take the job. i was scared. but katie vesser wanted to pass the duty on to me. she told me that she had complete faith in my abilities and did not want anyone else. flattery seems to always work on me. maybe she knew that i was right for the job because after trying to quit so many times i never actually did and i always came back. she could tell that i loved it. she saw how much i cared about agnes and how badly i wanted the yearbooks to mean something to the agnes scott community. she knew that i would never lose the drive to make the best book i could no matter the obstical. ultimately, i guess the truth is i was always supposed to be the editor.

"I get by with a little help

eternal thanks:

There are of course many to thank and too many to name. thank you to all of my friends who supported and cared for me over the past four years. i never thought i could find so many wonderful and talented women in one place. your friendship has made all that i have done here worth it and your faith and encouragement along the way will stay with me always no matter where i go. you kept me sane as i worked on the yearbook and were patient with me when i was never around. thanks to my family who love me no matter how many times i call crying into the phone about any number of disasters. thank you to all of my professors who have inspired my mind and gifted me with the strength of knowledge. there is no greater gift than the gift of learning. whitney, i cannot describe to you how much you mean to me. you were there for me no matter what and this book would never have happened without you. thank you for always believing in me, always laughing at my jokes, and always making the time to talk to me. you're a dear friend and i have full faith that i am leaving this craziness in talented hands. betty, i greatly appreciate your support and commitment to helping me accomplish all that i wanted with this book. to the rest of the staff, thank you for putting up with my antics and sticking by me through it all. thanks also to others who supported me during this project, especially, anneliese singh, dean michelle thompson, dean hudson, mary marlowe, kristy smith, and dr. lucy. lastly, thank you to the agnes scott community for allowing me to be your editor and i hope that you enjoy and cherish this book as much as i do.

specifications

The 2005-2006 Silhouette was produced using Adobe InDesign CS2 and Jostens Yeartech at Agnes Scott College. Pages were printed on a HP psc 2410 photosmart all-in-one printer. Pictures were taken by staff photographers as well as submitted by other students and Agnes Scott staff members. Staff cameras include: 5.1 Canon PhotoShot A95, 6.1 EOS Canon Digital Rebel with a EF-S and 8-55mm lens, Canon PowerShot SD20, Minolta Maxxum 7D, and a Kodak BZ740. Underclassmen were photographed in the Rebekah Lobby by Jostens and the Senior portraits were photographed by Terri Clark of Terri Clark Photography. The book was produced and printed by Jostens, headquartered in Clarksville, TN.

The cover was designed in Adobe Illustrator by Nicoline Strøm-Jensen '06 with the help of the technical and artistic talents of Kirby Hager '06 and Professor Nell Ruby.

The Silhouette is a student produced publication and is not representative of the views of Agnes Scott College or its affiliates.

Our darling Yana,

You came into this world screaming, "I'm here, pay attention!" It is this strong personality that is so endearing and what makes you such a joy. You are fun to be with, interesting, hilarious, and sensitive. We are proud of all your accomplishments and proud that you are our daughter.

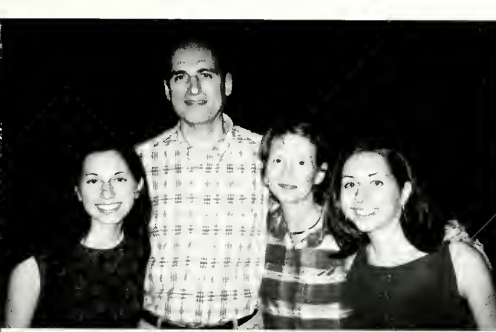

We love how you approach everything with such passion and how you can capture the attention of all who are around by your outstanding wit and varied interests. It is this flair that you have that will see you through any challenges in the future.

Congratulations for persevering and earning that most-coveted reward: your diploma.

We love you with all our heart,

Mom and Daddy

Elizabeth-
 We are so blessed to have you

Yolanda,

When you look into my eyes I hope you'll see the woman that I raised you to be - One of morals, values, and integrity. Always showing love and concern no matter what the situation may be. Upholding a sense of great character and sensitivity. Letting your light shine not so much in what you say but in your walk, pleasant smile, and sweet humble way. Never taking anything for granted. Powerful and strong, knowing that through you God the Creator is forever showing.

As He continues to lead you in whichever path life takes, wherever the road may lead, always always remember that my love for you is everlasting.

Love,

Sandra Asamoah Abrokwa

You are a special gift.

As we count the family's blessings, we cannot fail to notice that you are a SPECIAL GIFT. You clearly reveal an identity of an immensely decorated "gift box" that God has specifically created with great value, uniqueness, nobility, beauty, intelligence and good courage. As you bring the challenging but memorable journey to Agnes Scott to a close, be reminded that you are not a "mere existence" - you are a special gift for your generation. Remember always that Daddy, Mum, Peter, Angela, and Kwame love you dearly and remain a bedrock of support.

Congratulations!
We are so proud of you. You are the "Best Daughter in the Whole World."

"It must have been cold there in my shadow
To never have sunlight on your face
You were content to let me shine, that's your way
You always walked a step behind
So I was the one with all the glory
While you were the one with all the strength.
A beautiful face without a name, for so long
A beautiful smile to hide the pain
Did you ever know that you're my hero
And everything I would like to be
If I can fly higher than an eagle
You are the wind beneath my wings"

Thank you for supporting so many for so long. And thank you for showing us what a strong, smart woman can accomplish once she decides that it's her turn to fly.

With love, from the family of Susan Holliday, class of 2006 (!)

Yearbook? Who wastes their time working on Yearbook?

If you ask me I think it's a positive thing my sister went to finishing school. It's important for a woman to know how to take dictation.

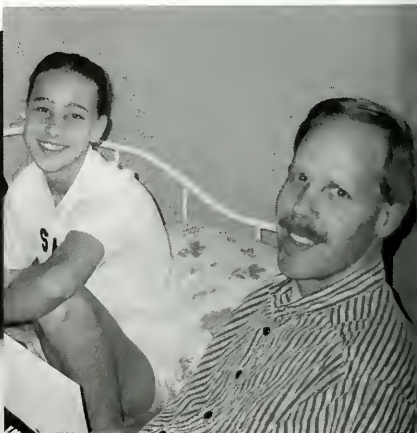

Finishing college and completing a twelve-step program at the same time is tough Nicoline, I'm proud of you.

The successful person is not the one who does the least work, but the one who has the least responsibility. Rarely are people recognized for completing a great endeavor, but failure is always noted. Thus one must take satisfaction in a job well done, without seeking outside praise, and glide gracefully away from blame when things turn south.

To a T-abled, Exemplary, R-emarkable, I-ntelligent, C-aring, and A-wwesome young woman: You have given us so many happy and "bursting with pride" moments. Having surpassed our hopes for you as a college student, you have truly exemplified what it is to be an outstanding leader. While accomplishing your personal goals, you still devotedly attended to your family and friends. Even when you were faced with difficulties like getting gravely ill and going to the ER more than once, you never missed a beat. Although you were involved in numerous endeavors, you managed your time and energy with superb skill and grace. With all of our love and support, Mom, Dad, and Torian.

Amy Flagg

Congratulations Amy! We love you so much and are very proud of you and all your accomplishments. Your college years have gone by fast but I'm sure you are now well prepared for the next phase of your life. With all that you have learned, you will tackle all the challenges and trials that cross your path. Always reach a little higher and follow your dreams. Love always, Mom, Dad, and Jessica

Tara Marie Bech

Your life has been such an adventure so far, and Agnes Scott has made the last four years unforgettable. Thank you for sharing these special times with your family, we couldn't be more proud of you Tara. May your passion for learning, dance, and travel never end. Congratulations! All our love: Love, Dad, Mom, and Bobby

PS. You Go Girl!!!!!!

Love, Dad

Amy Herring

You inspire me. Aunt Cyn

I'm proud of you. Grandma N.

Amy, our precious little girl has grown into a beautiful young woman. We are proud of you and all of your accomplishments. We love you very much!

-Dad and Mom

Sam Yarbrough

Many of life's failures come from people not realizing how close they were to success when they gave up.

Congratulations on never giving up, creating a LIFETIME full of successes...

We love you!

~Bootsie, Gary, Nicole, and Tim

If God had a refrigerator, your picture would be on it because GOD thinks you are wonderful... and so do WE! Congratulations Sam!

~Pop, Mom, Cheryl, Gary, and Joyce

Remember the good times as well as the struggles from which we all grow. Remember your good friends and your good teachers.

Remember your successes and the hard work that made you successful.

Remember to keep that great attitude and continue to give all the wonderful gifts you have to the world.

Remember your roots, and remember we are behind you rooting for your next success.

Remember we love you and are always here for you.

Love, Mama and Cassie

Catherine Santello

Kherra Crowe

Congratulations Kherra,

We are so proud of you. You were born to us as "God's Gracious Gift." Now you have become God's gift to the world. He has blessed you with intelligence, perseverance, tolerance, and patience, but most of all, he has blessed you with humility for all mankind. We love you always and pray for your continued success in every aspect of your life. Remember to always have faith in God first, He is #1 in your life. To you from our hearts - Mommy, Daddy, Grandma Grace, Kelechi, Khalea, Trey, Uncle Tony, Uncle Assad, Grandma June, Grandpa Bobby, and eternally yours Great-grandma Effie.

Deanna Henderson The Black Cat

Congratulations, Deanna! We are so very proud of you, and we will always love you. Remember to follow your heart and always do your best.

God bless you!
Dad, Mom, and Chris

Black Kitty, You made us so proud this year! We were honored to have you as one of our own and will never forget the fun we had. We will hold you dearly in our hearts forever. You are a true VIXEN! Farewell.

JOURN E

“Don’t be dismayed by good-byes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends.”

-Richard Bach

* After four great years, the Vixen's Santa waves good-bye.
