President Kiss

A new time, A new beginning

College is a new time, a new beginning. This year we would like to welcome the class of 2010, our new faculty and staff, the many renovations, and of course our new President. President Elizabeth Kiss comes to Agnes Scott from Duke University where she was Director of the Kennan Institute for Ethics. A 1983 graduate of Davidson College, she went on to receive her Ph.D. from Oxford University. From there President Kiss taught at Princeton University, Randolph-Macon College and Deep Springs College. Her arrival on campus in late August was highly anticipated and met with much enthusiasm only to be rivaled by the excitement brought by the arrival of the class of 2010. President Kiss is excited to see the renovations and changes on campus and has a few of her own plans. Passionate about community service, she hopes to make it part of the classroom experience at Agnes Scott. President Kiss also wants Agnes Scott to be more visible in the community and hopes to make some long standing connections within Decatur. She looks forward to working closely with faculty and staff and getting to know students, and she is very excited to be part of the red class of 2010.

Welcome to the family

President Kiss, like the Class of 2010, has experienced many first. Her first Orientation, Black Cat Dance and Senior Investiture. She has also made many opportunities to meet students in her first semester at Agnes Scott, making her a fast favorite on campus. We all look forward to getting to know and working with President Kiss and considering her a friend of Agnes Scott for many years to come.

Out with the old, in with the new!

We can see clearly now:
A dedicated worker updates Buttrick's windows.
A worker chips away at what feels like centuries of dirt, grime, and midterm stress.

Not just any Science Center!

In honor of Mary Brown Bullock's 11 years of service to Ayns Scott, the once nameless Science Center is finally given an identity.

You may now enter:

Although renovations of Campbell Hall are not yet complete, the doors will soon be open after years of dormancy.

A Little Break: Jill Ford '10 and Leah Mickelson '10 take a break from homework and relax in bed.

The FYI book has been read, the stuff is all packed in the car and U-Haul, your parents are ready with tissues in hand. But before you can say your last goodbyes, you pull into the Agnes Scott parking deck and are greeted by smiling faces cheerfully saying "Welcome to the Family!". Orientation Weekend allows parents as well as Scotties to say their goodbyes and get settled into college life.

Junior Production

Black Cat every year ends with Junior Production, the play performed, written, and directed by the Junior class. This year, the Lunas, along with the 007 Bond Girls, Phoenixes and Gold Diggers did a phenomenal job representing their classes in song, dance, and performance. With the Bond Girls' adaptation of the song "Topsy" by J-Kwon, the Gold Digger version of "Dude (Looks Like a Lady)" by Aerosmith, the Phoenixes rendition of "Shake Your Tail Feather" and the Lunas dance with "Sound the Alarm" by Beyonce', the performances were stellar and will always be remembered.

Traditions

Traditions are an important factor in each Scotties life. From Black Cat to Hub Sings and the Sophomore Ring Ceremony, we cherish the traditions our sisters before us have left.

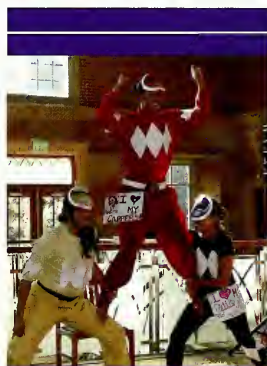

The signing of the Honor Pledge is one of the first events at Agnes Scott where new students, one by one, pledge themselves to the Honor Code.

Leda Sox '10, Helen Tzow '10, Jennifer Sefaboa'10, Jill Ford '10 and Leigh Tami '10 take a picture just after the ceremony.

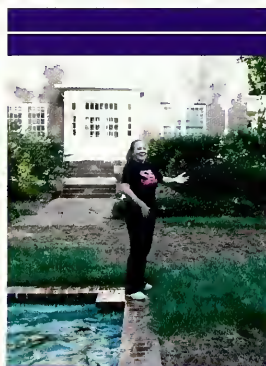

at Agnes Scott

Each Spring, Sophomores are presented with their class rings, and join what is known as "The Black Ring Mafia." This event signifies one of the most important ceremonies in a Scottie's collegiate career.

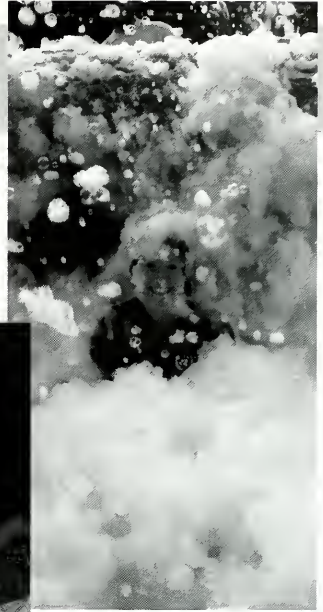

Each year capping occurs when a Senior initiates prospective members of Pestle Board. This also means that the capes must dress up in various costumes. Here some Seniors are dressed as the Power Rangers.

The Alumnae Pond is not a mere decoration. The long standing tradition is for a newly engaged Scottie to be thrown into the pond by her friends. Alyson Porwoll '08 has just gotten out after being tossed in.

Although not a regular tradition, movies are filmed at Agnes Scott quite a bit. This fall, a Revenge of the Nerds remake was filmed on campus. A few of the stars took a break during filming to let us get a picture.

New Staff Members

Mattie de St. Paer

Mattie de St. Paer joined us this year from the University of Michigan as the new director of Student Activities.

Mattie came in with a bang and commonly uses her motto "Go Big or Go Home" in her daily life! With her dedication, enthusiasm, and successful programs with Programming Board, Mattie has left a permanent mark on the Agnes Scott social scene.

Chaplain Kate Colussy-Estes

Chaplain Kate Colussy-Estes comes to us from Elon University in Elon, North Carolina and brings along with her, her husband and two children. Chaplain Kate promotes many multi-religious programs and events on campus and is interested in bringing the Agnes Scott campus together through service.

Kijua Sanders-McMurtry

Kijua Sanders-McMurtry became the new director of Multicultural Affairs here at ASC. From the beginning, Kijua has desired to be an essential part in the lives of all Scotties with her dedication to making the campus not only more multi-cultural, but also trying to promote a more conscious awareness for the cultural groups on campus.

Beth Krakow

Beth Krakow is the newest member of Personal Counseling. She has an interest in working with students of Agnes Scott to promote emotional and mental health. She works closely with SAFE Women with their emotional health content. Beth makes herself known on campus by also working with Residence Life and ensures that she makes a personal connection with all of the students that she comes in contact with.

We Love

Dean of Students

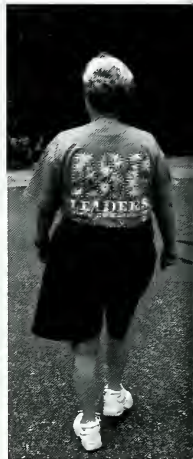

Dean Gue' Hudson '68

Dean Hudson has been a part of the Agnes Scott community for more than 20 years. Dean Hudson came to Agnes Scott in 1964 to pursue her B.A. and ever since, she has made a huge impact on the women of Agnes Scott. She has remained an integral part of Student Life and is seen at nearly every Agnes Scott event, from sporting events to Hub Sings. Dean Hudson thinks it's important that the college maintains its honor, traditions and integrity.

Associate Dean Michelle Hall

Dean Hall didn't begin her career at Agnes as a Dean: Dean Hall was once in charge of Student Life affairs with Kristy Smith. Dean Hall works with Residence Life affairs, and this year has implemented a new recycling program on campus. It is obvious that Dean Hall has dedication to improving the world and she started here by improving Agnes Scott's campus and community.

Associate Dean John Lucy

Dean Lucy also didn't start as a Dean here at ASC. The OO7 Bond Girls fondly remember him as Dr. Lucy, a former member of the Personal Counseling staff. In 2004, Dean Lucy became Associate Dean of Students, and mainly works with the Sophomore classes to make their Sophomore Family Weekends memorable. Dean Lucy also works closely with Orientation Council and is an active part of the FYI program and other Orientation activities.

Our Deans!

Dean of the College

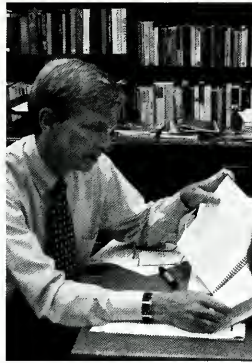

Dean Rosemary Zumwalt

Dean Zumwalt's career at Agnes Scott has been successful on many levels. With the implementation of many new disciplines and curriculum, it is apparent that Dean Zumwalt is looking forward to the future of Agnes Scott. She makes sure that the world for women presents a varied and representative curriculum meant to be diverse, interesting, and scholastically stimulating.

Associate Dean James Diedrick

Dean Diedrick has dedicated his life to ensuring higher education. As the leader of the Post-Bacc program,

Dean Diedrick allows for the pursuit of higher education here at Agnes Scott. He works closely with students to ensure that they get the best attention possible and that they get the appropriate information regarding course choices, designing a major, and many other fields.

Assistant Dean Jennifer Cannady

Dean Cannady works with the Dean of the College as the Director of Academic Advising. Dean Cannady dedicates her time to assisting students in the pursuit of their degrees and works hard to get any study abroad, internship and externship credits to transfer into your transcript. Dean Cannady is a truly helpful individual and a gem of ASC.

Bang Bang

As sung by the 007 Bond Girls at Black Cat 2005

Lyrics by Artesia Franklin and Kaleah Overton

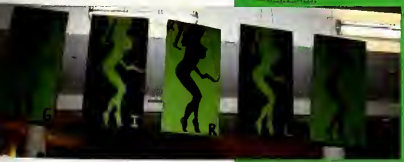

Bang Bang you got to stop now
Double '07 is getting hot now
Bang Bang we know you hate us
Just because we are the greatest

So Okay '07 is here
Bond Girls are back, we ain't going nowhere
We see you wanna stand on your feet
Ain't no shame, it's a hot beat
We're so original we can't be out done
A thousand years as the only ones
We'll shout it from the tops we're the cat's meow
From '07 with love, you can hate us now

2005 is a different year
Vixens and Goddesses we smell your fear
Under the pressure you thought we would crack
But '07 just keeps coming back
We'll live and let die, it's just a lesson learned
We already said it, the world is not enough
Diamonds are forever, pressure's on we get tough

Bang Bang you got to stop now
Double '07 is getting hot now
Bang Bang we know you hate us
Just because we are the greatest

It Ain't Over

As sung by the 007 Bond Girls at Black Cat 2006

Lyrics by Artesia Franklin

It ain't over, no, no
 It ain't over fa' sho'
 We gon' let the beat drop
 Oh yeah, 'cause we run the show
 And it ain't over, no, no
 And it ain't over, no, no
 And it ain't over, no, no
 And it ain't over, no, no

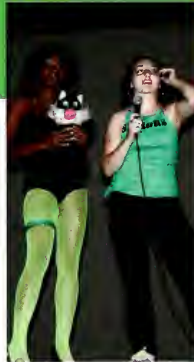

We back again
 We back to win

It's not about the numbers it's
 About the beats we spin
 Three years on the block
 And you peoples wanna jock
 Yet we can't understand why we
 Don't come out on top
 We believe in karma. Yeah I
 Bet you do, too
 And we even tried to warn ya, but yo
 Kept on wearin' blue

So hold on to ya britches, and yo
 Best not burn ya bridges
 And I bet you want our riches, hell nah
 Bang, bang, b**

B-O-N-D, yes (yes)
 We step on all the rest (rest)
 Hypnotized, mesmerized
 Wearin' ties, best dressed
 Sorry guys, no surprise
 We acin' all the tests (tests)
 We gon' turn the party out
 Ya'll lookin' all depressed (pressed)
 R-E-S-P-E-C-T

We are what you wanna be
 No matter how you T-R-Y
 Tomorrow never dies (dies)
 Stuffy nose, shaky hands
 Fever, sore throat
 Ya'll sick because we stole the show?
 Man, take that ish to Dr. No

It ain't over, no, no
 It ain't over fa' sho'
 We gon' let the beat drop
 Oh yeah, 'cause we run the show

And it ain't over, no, no
 And it ain't over, no, no
 And it ain't over, no, no
 And it ain't over, no, no

"It takes a lot of courage to release the familiar and seemingly secure, to embrace the new. But there is no real security in what is no longer meaningful. There is more security in the adventurous and exciting, for in movement there is life, and in change there is power."

"Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small does not serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine, as children do. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It is not just in some of us; it is in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others." -Marianne Williamson

I cannot believe it is already 2007! Wow, what a great 4 years I've had at Agnes and working on the Silhouette staff. Who ever thought I would be the Editor, especially after my attempt to quit the staff our first-year and not having worked on a yearbook until coming to Agnes. I want to thank several people--those who have given me support on the Silhouette and those who have supported me personally. First, to my co-Assistant Editors Pauline, Nicole, and Kim, thank you for all of the work you've put into the book. I know the book would not be complete without your help. Shannon and Sarah, your design expertise and moral support throughout the creation of this lovely book was endless. I know without you all staying up until the wee hours of the morning (when you could hear the "good morning birds" singing) I would have given up on the book. Thank you, thank you, thank you both for working on the senior section with me over winter break even though SK may have wanted to kill me just a teeny bit! You are wonderful! You know that I love you both eternally and will miss our craziness and excellent adventures next year. Pauline, Sarah and Shannon I will miss our yearbook parties! What am I going to do without you all? I feel as though between the five of you, I am leaving the book in good hands! To the staff, you all are wonderful. Thank you for all of your hard work this year, the proof of which is of course our fabulous book! To Betty, thank you also for your support and willingness to meet with me about any problem that occurred with the book. Thank you for keeping me sane when the book became stressful. All of your help is greatly appreciated and I will miss you too next year!

Sara Haj, as much as I complained about it, thank you for dragging me to that first yearbook meeting our first year. Obviously, I would not be where I am today had I not continued going to the meetings! And thank you for being a great friend! To my favorite first-years, I am so glad I met you this year! You all have surely changed my life in a positive way just as practically everyone I have encountered at Agnes has. Kolbi Johnson, thank you so much for sending out endless amounts of e-mails to all of the seniors and for not getting too mad when they replied to you and not me! And of course thank you for being a wonderful friend...and part of the 3 most feared of 007. Lauren Twining, I appreciate you more than you can imagine! You always told me I could do it and of course made me get some sleep when I felt like "I had to work on the book!" You are one of my best friends and I will miss you so much next year! Steph Lahue, I'm so glad we finally met this year! Going to NYC with you to see Kristin...and Natalie and Chrissy and Barbara and Kristin again, was one of the best trips of my life! You are a wonderful friend and I don't know what I'm going to do without you. A special thanks to my parents who never let me give up on anything and have always supported me in my endeavors. Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you a billion times over! To my SAI sisters past and present, you all are awesome and I know the chapter is going to be fabulous next year! I will probably visit you frequently and you know I am happy to be an advisor. Thank you for all of the fun times we've had over the past couple of years. To the rest of my friends, thank you for being my friends, end of story! You are awesome and I know life will be different without you there everyday to make me laugh, cry and smile. Thanks for laughing at my sarcasm too; I know its the most endearing part of my personality and of course my so called infectious laughter! Thank you for putting up with my crazy stress and of course for listening to my endless chatter about Broadway! I wish you all the best of luck next year and want you to know that I am always there to support you and be a shoulder to lean on!

Love Always,
Whitney Brown 07, Editor-in-Chief

WE CAN'T SAY ENOUGH ABOUT HOW PROUD WE ARE AT ALL OF YOUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS OVER THE LAST FOUR YEARS, AND AT SEEING YOU TRULY COME INTO YOUR OWN AS A CONFIDENT AND SAVVY WOMAN. I hope you never lose your sense of wonder You get your fill to eat But always keep that hunger May you never take one single breath for granted God forbid love ever leave you empty

I hope you dance... I hope you dance... I hope you dance... I hope you dance...

More than just a passing glance Give the heavens above Remember Give the heavens above Remember Give the heavens above Remember

When you come close to adding out Remember When you come close to adding out Remember When you come close to adding out Remember

Save your kisses Don't let some full heart Save your kisses Don't let some full heart Save your kisses Don't let some full heart

Certain it is that there is no kind of love so purely angelic as that of a parent toward their daughter. In love to our spouse there is desire, to our sons there is ambition, but to our daughters, God has not created the words to properly express. The lengths to which you would go for a daughter cannot be measured, and will not end until your last breath has left you.

You have always made me proud to be your Mommie! You have been the brightest spot in my resume of life. We've shared a special bond that has sustained us through the most trying times of our lives. In spite of it all, we made it. This page captures some of the precious memories we have made and shared in regard to your independence. You now have your first set of wings... you can fly!!! Love, Mamma

"I AM THE RESULT OF A JOURNEY OF MANY YEARS, BEGUN WITH A SENSE THAT MY LIFE WAS DESTINED FOR CHANGE. WHERE WOULD I FIND A DIFFERENT REALITY AND A WONDERFUL WORLD OF ACCEPTANCE? THE SEARCH ENDED WITH THE REALIZATION THAT THE JOURNEY ITSELF WAS MY PATH TO FULFILLMENT. I HAD TO BE WHOM AND WHAT I WANTED TO BE, NEVER EXPECTING WHAT MY LIFE COULD HOLD. NOW, WRITING THIS IN MY WORN LEATHER-BOUND JOURNAL, I KNOW THAT WE ALL CAN BREAK FREE OF THE MOLD THAT HAS HELD US FOR SO LONG, AND TRULY DISCOVER OURSELVES."

IN HER OWN WORDS FROM WHERE I LIVED AND WHAT I LIVED FOR
MAY THE JOURNEY NEVER END. LOVE, MOM, DAD, PATRICK, BOBBY, BETSY, HENRY, AND MYLES
