Dear Agnes,

I knew things would be different at Agnes Scott. Once I got on campus, I knew that this was where I belonged. I never thought I would call Agnes home, but I do. The people are friendly, the campus is beautiful, the courses challenging and interesting;

I just knew that this place would change my world and with it, I would change too. I have been able to form close bonds with both my classmates and the administration. Who knew that the Deans could be so cool! When I came to visit during my Senior year of high school everything was so different. I thought, 'this place is amazing and I can have a double major, an internship, and study abroad!' Once I got here and realized that this was my home, I felt comfortable asking upperclasswomen for help and advice. I soon learned that the students had a lot of power and opportunities available to them and that they were a bunch of strong-willed women who knew what they wanted. I started to feel that I could be one of those women. Agnes Scott could give me the opportunities to become one of those student leaders and gain the skills that I would need to be a leader beyond Agnes. It all started with Orientation and someday it will end with Graduation. In the meantime this book is to keep all of the memories that occur between those two life changing events. There was the Honor Pledge singing, Black Cat, Family Weekend, Sophomore Family Weekend, Junior Production, and Senior Investiture. Each of these events was important and truly helped to make me a part of the Agnes Scott College community. While those big events occurred I also honestly enjoyed my major and professors, moving around campus with my roommate, and "getting involved" as Dean Hudson instructed during that initial Orientation. I am sure that I signed up to be in about fifteen clubs that year. First-year really was a lot of fun and the years sure have flown by. While I could not believe that I would ever call Agnes home, I now think that part of me will always consider it home, especially that tower room in Main.

M O V E I N

Move in could have been so stressful, but everyone was so helpful in easing my mind, and they helped my parents stop freaking out too! I met my hallmates and they seem alright. I just know that this year will bring lots of good times and even more adventures away from home!

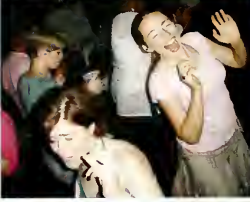

Growing together already! Floormates all dolled up before the Honor Pledge signing.

The friendly faces of Resident Assistants Hanwen Li ('10), Kaybern Cuffy ('09) and Eowyn-Rose Smith ('10) sooth the fear of moving in.

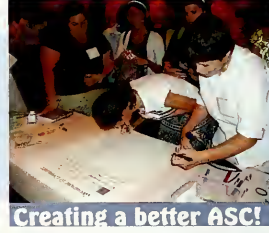

Wise words of advice from Dean Zumwalt during Convocation.

Having fun...

Making friends...

Working together...

Creating a better ASC!

Leadership Retreat

"You must be the change you wish to see in the world." -Gandhi

This memorable quote was the focus of the Leadership Retreat, with nearly 100 Scotties in attendance thinking of ways to change the ASC community and the world! This year at Stone Mountain, we Scotties listened attentively, worked together, dedicated ourselves to a better community and, more importantly, had FUN! Dean Hudson premiered her iPod parties at the Leadership Retreat, and the dance on the first night really brought together groups and friends who spent the summer apart. The Leadership Retreat also showcased the amazing, dedicated and world-changing minds that have shaped this year at ASC!

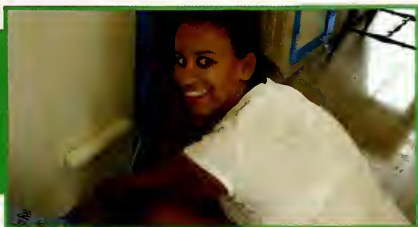

Take root,
grow

ASC 101

This year's new students got to start a new tradition: having each ASC101 group compete against the others, but they also followed the first-year traditions of Service Saturday and, of course, the Honor Code Signing. Each group was named after a person that has impacted Agnes Scott, and they learned about ASC's history and customs as they spent the first weeks of their fall semester researching and experiencing the Scottie life firsthand. As usual, ASC101 ended with the long awaited Black Cat Week.

Black Cat Decorations

Left: The Sophomores diligently apply as much red as possible to the Quad in hopes of creating a hellish atmosphere.

Dear Agnes, Black Decorations always kindles memories of frantic rushing to claim the best spot on the quad and enormous amounts of caution tape. Staying up late, covering myself in yellow, and hanging out with fellow classmates will always hold a special place in my memory of Agnes.

Luna Spirit

'08 = Great

Above: The blue playscape never fails to draw attention on the quad.
Left: The blue ladies make sure Gaines has Luna Spirit!

The Class of 2011 makes a great start in the Black Cat tradition with a Wizard of Oz theme for the Quad and Alston.

Go Amazon Warriors!!

"If I only had a brain" ->

ASC PARTY DAYS

ASC Party Days were the BEST part of Black Cat!

The food was great, the music was good, and every class brought their best. These four day were truly an adventure, I survived the Seven Deadly Sins with the Phoenixes, played croquet with the Amazon Warriors, partied at the rave with the Gold Diggers, and last but not least,partied like a rock star with the rock star Lunas!

T R I V I A

Dear Agnes,
As a member of the class of '09, I was disappointed with the results of trivia this year. We came in second our first year and sophomore year, but I guess we're passing the torch to our sister class who came in second this year. We may not have done well this year, but at least we got the cup!

Bonfire

Black Cat Bonfire

'08 IS GREAT!!

Junior Production

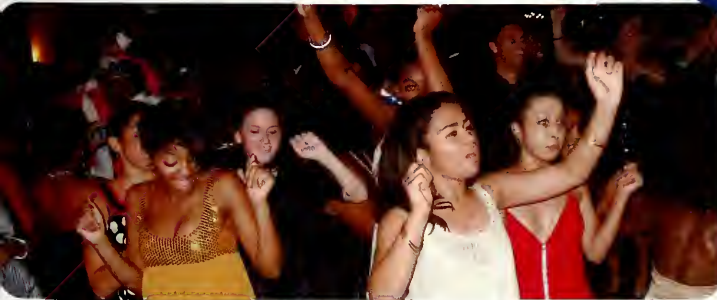

This year's Junior Production night was better than years past and every class really proved their worth! Some memorable moments were the dance for 2011 and their rendition of "In The Jungle", the crowd interaction with the members of 2009 and the many proud and loud Gold Diggers, the Phoenixes ode to their sister class and how they're "crispy, crispy, crispy" and how 2008 is the puppetmaster; showing the other classes how its done!

"Alice in Agnesland" was one of the best JPs of all time; blending the traditional JP format with musical numbers. With its depiction of ASC folks and the hilarious songs, it will be hard to forget this performance!

Black Cat Formal

The Black Cat Formal is one of Agnes Scott College's longest traditions. This year's formal was hosted at the Hyatt Regency Hotel. Students and staff enjoyed a fabulous night filled with dancing until exhaustion, delicious food and excellent music choices. After hours of fun, everyone left with tired feet and newly made memories and friends.

Family Weekend

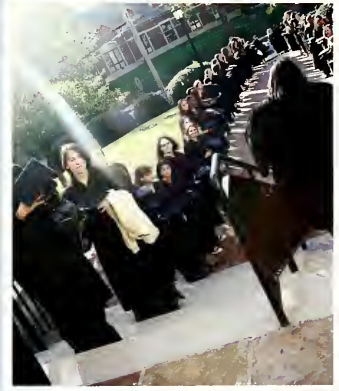

FAMILY

This year's Family Weekend was filled with sunshine, outdoor games and fun times with the family!

Senior Investiture

Senior Investiture is the first time we Seniors even thought about Graduation, with Dean Frudson lovingly calling it 'practice' for graduation even though some of us refuse to use the "G" word yet! We were surrounded by our friends, family, and fellow Lunas with a Senior Investiture that no one will forget! There were lots of laughs, some joyful tears, many proud family members and loved ones, and a standing ovation to congratulate us on surviving this far!

Study Abroad

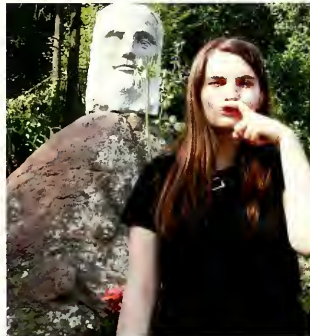

"Everyone who wonders is not lost." J.R.R. Tolkien

We are a part of one endless horizon. All cultures are interwoven in a tapestry of boundless beauty and students from all walks of life are given the privilege to walk amongst the ancient Mayans, share a Guinness with the Scots, dance in passion and friendship with the tribes in SoWato, South Africa, and share the Silver Bullet and Cherry Blossoms in Japan.

My journey to Scotland, for Study Abroad Summer 2007, will be an experience I will never forget. Even though, these feisty Scots are darn sure similar to us audacious Scotties, I learned to love our differences (bloody bag piping at 3am in the morning), and feel at home with our similarities (Drinks on me lassies!) I remember one quote I found in a pub, in the middle of Stirling, Scotland called Pivos. Their motto is "Where beer is made, fun is had." This is defiantly the epitome of truth for both the Scots and the Scotties.

Beer Beer Beer for Old Agnes Scott
You bring the whisky, I'll bring the scotch
Send a sophomore out for beer
And don't let a sober Senior in!!!
Cheers Mate!

Liz Hartnett '08 and her beautiful Paris countryside.

Judith Pierce '08 flirts with a statue in Chile.

Cherie Murray '08, in Italy, contemplates life without Agnes as she glazes heart-wrenchingly into the blazing sun.

All smiles - Vonnie Lee '08 spent the spring semester of her junior year in South Korea.

Seniors

Can you believe that we're already here? I still remember our First-Year: our great times with Black Cat, learning about Agnes Scott and its traditions, having fun with our friends and living the good life at ASC.

Now, in our Senior year, things haven't really changed. We're still living it up as the most spirited class at Agnes Scott, our Junior Production rocked, we dominated field hockey, our Black Cat decorations were flawless, and we still have some of those same great friendships that we started our first year. Now, our time has come to leave our home of four years and go out and be the strong, feisty women that Agnes Scott has helped us become.

Clubs!

Agnes Scott students have a wide variety of options when it comes to club involvement at Agnes. The College ensures that every student will be able to find something they want to be involved in and if not then they are welcome to add to the College's list of clubs. Currently the College plays host to three student publications: Aurora, The Profile, and The Silhouette. The College also offers academic organizations; American Chemical Society, Astronomy Club, Beta Beta Beta, Dana Scholars, Mortar Board, Phi Alpha Theta, Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Sigma Tau, Pi Delta Phi, Psi Chi, Sigma Alpha Iota, Pre-Med Association, Sigma Delta Pi, Society of Physics Students, and Theta Alpha Kappa. Seven cultural clubs: AWISA, Asian Women, Faust Club, French Club, International Student Association, Latinas Unidas, and Witkaze. While these clubs show the cultural diversity on campus the following show the religious diversity: Baptist College Ministry, Daughters of Gaia, Fellowship of Christian Students, Jewish Student Association, Muslim Student Association, New Life Campus Crusade for Christ, New Westminster Fellowship, Newman Club, Unitarian Universalist, and Wesley Fellowship. Agnes Scott also provides students with several opportunities to be involved with leadership.

Some of the special leadership groups include: the Colonnade Club, Emerging Leaders, National Society of Collegiate Scholars, Orientation Council, Religious Life Council, Residence Life, and Tower Council. Agnes Scott is dedicated to service and has chapters of Best Buddies, Campus Girl Scouts, Circle K, and Habitat for Humanity. Many Scotties also take to heart the charge to engage the social challenges of their times as shown by the existence of ADORE, Amnesty International, FMLA, GEO, LBTQIA Collective, and SAFE Women. There are also many students who are politically active involved in such groups as ASCF, ASCR, ASC Libertarians, and ASCYD. Scotties also take pride in the roles they play in COSMO, Honor Court, IOC, Judicial Board, Programming Board, SGA, Student Calling, Student Senate, and Woodruff Scholars Organization. Beyond academics and express leadership organizations many students find outlets for their creative sides in ASC-TV, Blackfriars, Chorale, the Dance Team, Flute Choir, Handiworks Club, Joyful Noise, Luchseingers, Orchestra, Outdoor Adventure Club, Poetry Etc., and Studio Dane Theatre. A few of these clubs are shown on the following pages.

ASC SGA

SGA works hard for YOU!

SGA has been an Agnes Scott institution for more than 100 years but each year, the SGA Exec Board makes the position their own! This year, the theme was working for peace and cooperation. It started with Project for Peace, then SGA Exec collaborated to prepare one of the most fun Leadership Retreats of all! The new SGA Exec Board has its own goals and aspirations and with the determination and dedication of these awesome Scotties, there's no telling how many great things will happen at ASC!

Latinas UNIDAS is an organization focused on the importance of allowing others to become aware of Latin American cultures. We are sisterhood of dedicated women who have embraced the meaning of being a woman of color, a woman of race, a woman of culture, a woman of love and Latin beauty."

Andrea N. Martinez, President

L A T I N A S U N I D A S

A Sisterhood of the Americas

The women of Latinas Unidas (LU) are not just your everyday club; they're working to make a change in the world! They're actively involved in civil and political participation and in recent years have worked to create a united voice by working with other Spanish-speaking organizations in and around the Atlanta area. LU participates with these organizations in order to be a mechanism of creating a stronger social network by coordinating events like fundraisers, volunteer days, political protests, and even parties!

Agnes Scott College Republicans

The College Republicans have been very active this year. This fall they invited Dr. Miraim Grossman to speak about her book Unprotected and the concept of safer sex. They also made a display on September 11th with one American flag to represent each person killed in the attacks. Agnes Scott's chapter is involved with the Georgia Association of College Republicans and attends their meetings regularly. ASCR also attended the Conservative Political Action Conference this Spring. They are also bringing Bay Buchanan this Spring. Their Executive Board consists of Chairwoman Rachel Kaleren, Vice-Chairwoman Stephanie Scott, Executive Director Mary Szelistowski, Treasurer Amanda Greer, and Secretary. The general body members include Missy Pintos, Esther Wallace, Erica Erring, Ariel Newgard, Shannon Reisner, Kelsey Shaul, Haley Maxwell, Michelle Timmons, Rose Plasmond, Mimi Lee Curtis, and Crystal Purser.

Some of this years' highlights were the Punk or Prep Party, The Good Clean Fun Party during Family Weekend, and The Breakfast at Tiffany's Soiree. ProBo helps all of the Scotties have a good time; whether it be watching a movie, dancing it up with friends, chilling out at a coffee house or making fun crafts.

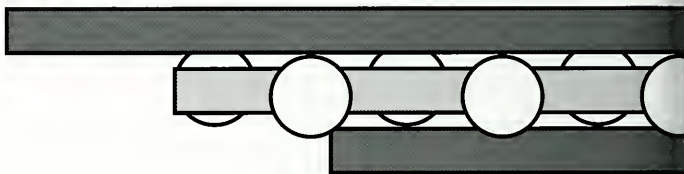

With Kristy Smith as the new director of Student Activities, Programming Board has gone above and beyond our expectations and thrown some SPECTACULAR parties and events!

◆☆◆ This Place Called Joyful Noise

I've been in Joyful Noise for four years now. I look back over my days in the choir and I truly have nothing negative to say about it. Wednesday night, my longest night of the week, is also the immediately blessed part of my week.

There is a bond between each woman in that choir which spreads like light every Wednesday night at 6:30, over to the daylight hours and weekend fun. I have found best friends in that choir. I have made connections with women that I would have never seen within the same daylight rays, because we are that different, belong to different departments, celebrate God in different ways. But. The point is that we come to Presser 17 every Wednesday and we sing, we share, we laugh, we let go of tears we've held for too long. Here we come to mend broken hearts, stitch together pieces of a shattered souls, bandaged head wounds from the world's clear plastic doorway.

I love these women, I am in love with this bond we share, and I mourn those who will never share this space and time with me.

ASC TV

ASC-TV is an organization devoted to bringing a variety of programming to the campus via Agnes Scott's closed circuit television station and providing an outlet for student expression through programming.

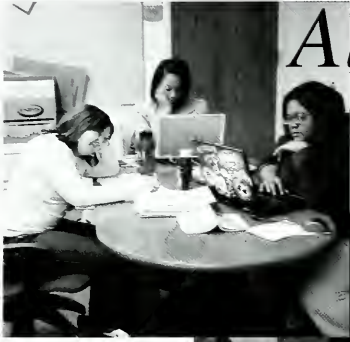

Some of the favorite shows this year include: Daughters of Gaia, Caroline Live from Finland, Gimme Gimme Shocktreatment, The Anna Banana Show, Gumbo, Beth's Comedy Hour, The Entity, Charone's Stash of Slash", Hayley Nawaya News, and Locking it up with Lonneman. Each of these shows is student produced.

Some of these shows are represented by the above picture: Calvin Burgamy, Savannah Sharp, Carieta Thomas, Emily Moore, Hayley Maxwell, Tyie Glover, Sagan Lain, Anna Spence

Class of 2011 Emerging Leaders:

Elizabeth Paleson, Ashley E Williams, Britni Phelps, Caprichia Jeffers, Meredith Conners, Katherine Flinn, Adrienne Anderson, Christine Baker, Onyinye Edeh, Melissa Griffith, Annalise Ford, Kristen Schuetz, Ariel Laws, Sarah Bowen, Jia Yu, Margaret Lenarz, Diana Shul, Mia McInnis, Jordal Casteel, Esther Wallace, Rachel Mathers, Lucia Hulsether and Brittani Banks.

Emerging Leaders is a program that helps new First Years become involved on campus by encouraging new students to, as Dean Hudson famously says "be involved"! By encouraging people to get involved, the Emerging Leaders program is helping promote responsible and innovative leadership on campus. Erin Howle, the director of the program, hopes that these Scotties will continue on their quest for leadership and that they'll take root and grow beyond to become the new Agnes Scott leader!

LEADERSHIP SCHOLARS

Dana Leadership Scholars are those Scotties on campus who are making waves in the classroom and across campus. The Dana Scholars maintain academic integrity while still being involved in on-campus clubs and organizations.

This year, thanks to Erin Howle, the Dana Scholars program does not only include a scholarship, but they participate in events. These events include sessions on promoting personal integrity in leadership positions, how to utilize your personal skills to achieve your goals, women as CEOs and businesswomen, and more.

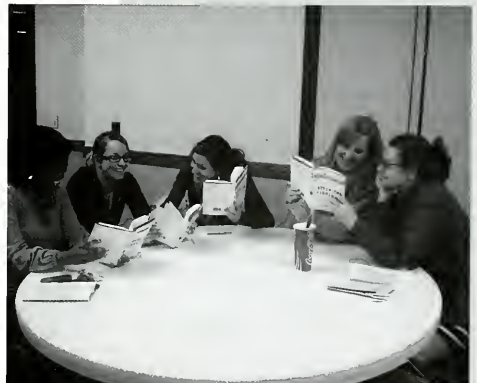

This program is really helping to nurture the future leaders of the world!

Evon Justin and Jaxen Sdseng give it their all at the XC Regionals in Virginia

The team poses for a post-race photo with Coach Mary Chind.

Run, Scotties, Run!

Angele Alberti was a Sophomore this year.

Larisa Hill was a Junior and had the same major as me: Theatre/Spanish!

Lucia hadn't decided yet what her major was, but she has time. She was only a First Year, after all.

Evan Justin was a Senior. Go Lunas! Evan is an amazing example of a multitasking Scottie. She majored in Chemistry and was involved with several of the ASC sports!

Julia Kargl was our resident Austrian Senior this year.

Joxen Salseng was a Sophomore Economics major.

Maya Velasco was a Junior Biology, Political Science major.

Najia Wakeed was a Sophomore Biology major this year.

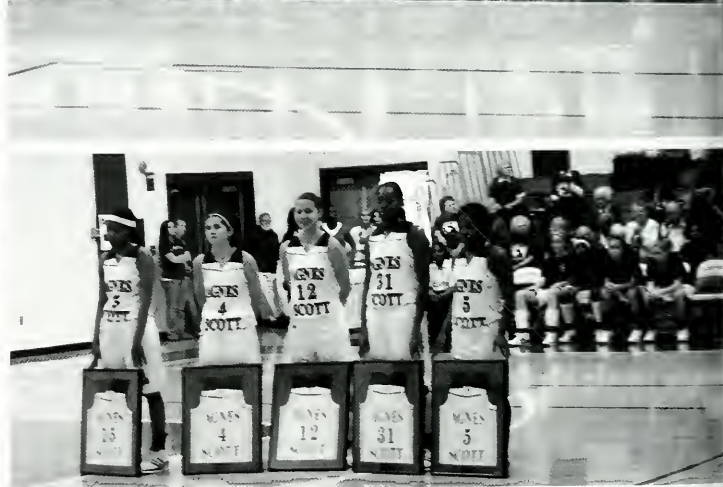

Oh, to be on the Cross Country team with the wind blowing your hair back as you run, getting to commune with nature. Sports really are poetry. Okay, so I wasn't actually on the team itself. I was more of a groupie, being friends with all the lovely ASC ladies on the team. But I treasure the memories like they are my own. I will remember forever the sense of camaradery that the team shared.

Just because they run, doesn't mean that they don't study!

ASC Basketball

Lets Go Scotties, Lets Go!

I love playing in the ASC Basketball games, they were full of energy and my scottie sisters and I dominated against the opposing teams. Our Basketball team gave it their all each and every game. The fans were cheering them 100% and the cheerleaders kept up the Scottie spirit. I am proud to be a Scottie and I would not have it any other way.

The 2007-08 will be a season of first for ASC Swimming. Veteran ASC coach Laura LeDuc will be at the helm of the Scottie swim program for the first time, and over half the team will be competing at the collegiate level for the first time. While these Scotties may have had a lot of first they also had excellent returning leadership. These swimmers work hard in and out of the pool to excel in the Great South Athletic Conference.

Sophomore Family Weekend

The Class of 2010 was officially honored and recognized as Scotties at this year's Sophomore Family Weekend. The Class of 2010 was the 50th class to participate in this ceremony and joins Lynes Scott graduates, from throughout the decades and around the world, in the "Black Ring Mafia." The participation of 165 members of their class has been one of the highest participation rates in the history of the ceremony which included speeches given by Harriet King '64, Dean Sue Hudson '68, and President Elizabeth Kiss. While the weekend itself included a charity bingo dinner, a first-year hall reunion brunch, and a Worship service led by students. The Silhouette staff would like to Congratulate the Class of 2010 and officially welcome them into the Black Ring Mafia. This year's committee consisted of Co-Presidents Meg Boyer and Margaret McMillan, Vice President Chelsea Guenther, Treasurer Hannah Li, Secretary Justine Schwartz, Ring Ceremony Chair Meredith Goodman, Ring Sales Co-Chair Soama Hair and Caitlin Shull, Slide Show Chair Heather Drew, Miteen Chair Helen Tzou, Decorations Chair Katie McLellan, Worship Ceremony Chair Julianna Jones, Food Chair Lynn Marie Rainwater, Entertainment Co-Chairs Breana Jones and Jessi Probus, Registration Process Chair Ziya Sun, Registration Publicity Co-Chairs Antra Cruz and Lauren Whitton, and Advisor Dean Michelle Hall.

Our fantastic staff and faculty shared their dogs with us Scotties for a few afternoons throughout the year. It was great to not think about midterms and homework and hold a puppy instead! Not only was it a great relief, it also helped those who were missing their pets from home. We hope that the "Miss Your Dog - Come Play With Ours" events will become a tradition at Agnes Scott and we will get to see these precious puppies grow up with us Scotties.

Living Wage Campaign

Students, faculty and staff continued to support a fair wage campaign for staff members. Students have taken a very active role in this issue by organizing protests, planning events for interested parties and pitching their ideas to the Board of Trustees. These Scotties are not only helping their community, they're giving hope for a better tomorrow.

When racism and injustice were at the forefront of the Jeno Court case, ASC students protested. Southern Latin protests in order to show their support for the Jeno 6 and hoped to prove that justice, peace and cooperation can exist in our world today.

Jeno 6 Protest

School of the Americas Protest

Many people do not believe that we can make a difference. The people that attended the School of the Americas protest would disagree. These students, along with around 15,000 others protest the injustice that occurs at the SCA every year. These students hope to cause a shift in the government's policy regarding Latin America and hope for a more peaceful future.

Recycling >

Even though Agnes Scott has always recycled, this year it's been revitalized. Thanks to Dean Hall and the Environmental Residents, our recycling efforts have become more present on campus with more Scotties than ever pitching in to "go green!"

Stand up and make a difference

< Project for Peace

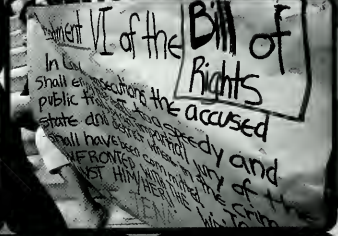

ASC was one of the many schools last year who received funding to do a Project for Peace, promoting peace and awareness in the community. Agnes Scott's SGA proposed a project that would create awareness about domestic violence in the Decatur and Greater Atlanta community. Many Scotties dedicated a portion of their summers in order to help with this effort. The Scottie Team was dedicated as they launched a weekend event about domestic violence with crafts, speakers, artists and more.

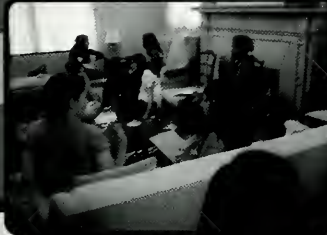

At Agnes Scott, we pride ourselves on being involved not only on campus, but in the community. We want to work together for the common good and to truly make the world a better place. Through our many efforts with various clubs and organizations, many Scotties on campus have already started making a difference.

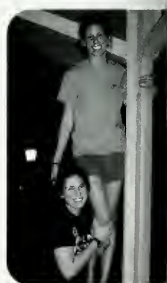

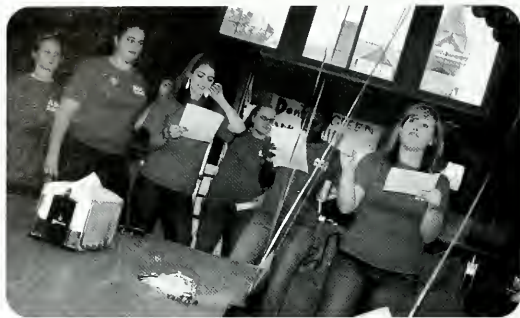

Some people participate by going to rallies, others by creating art for a purpose, and others still by organizing multiple efforts for their cause. We applaud the efforts of these incredibly driven, courageous and, dare we say, feisty Scotties.

Once Upon a Time, the sound of a breaking hour glass tink, pinked, and tooshed upon the floor of Heaven, and from there a destiny of turbulent trials, late nights of salt and water, and thank you Jesus anyhow's billowed across a starry night and into the crevasse of Being...and it somehow bumped into me & hence the Charmed Life, but truly, Agnes Scott is one hard cookie, but I wouldn't trade it for the world. I have found Friends For Life here or perhaps they have found me. I am strong, but Agnes made me tougher. I fear no more. After 4 yrs. I was born to do this. To my friends: you know who you are. There's no one like you. 1st years, I worry about you. J.R.'s represent! and Sophomores show 'em how it's done. Sarah Kalaris worked her ass off on this...thanks for the ED. toots! Senior Year Already?

Somehow, I can't believe that it's almost time to graduate. I feel like I just got here. Time really does fly when you're having fun. And I have to admit that the past four years at Agnes have been fun.

There were parties, dinners, movie marathons, Starship runs, nights spent dancing, mornings spent trying to remember the night before... These are the things that I'm not ready to let go of.

When I think about it, I'm not sure that I'm ready to leave. On the one hand, I'm excited to not have papers and exams and tons of homework. On the other hand, I'm not ready to leave the friends that I've made. It's strange realizing that the people you've seen every day for the past four years you may never see again.

So I've made this page as a tribute to those people.

Even though we may not see each other, you'll always have a special place in my memories and in my heart.

"We do not remember days...

... we remember moments. ~Cozaro Pavoze

I still can't believe that I'm here, at this point in my life. I've been so blessed with everything and my experience at Agnes has been nothing but enriching. I can honestly say that without this amazing place, I would not be the person I am today.

Firstly, I want to thank my parents for always loving and supporting me. You always believed in me, even when I didn't believe in myself and you helped me become the loving, kind and God-fearing woman that I am today. I love you both eternally. Next, I would like to thank all of the people that I have worked with at ASC, like the DOS staff, ResLife folks, the awesome people in Student Life and everyone else who has supported me. You all deserve a million dollars for all of the work that you do. THANK YOU! I would also like to thank my amazing friends. All of you fabulous people have made me laugh when I needed it most, made me smile when things were tough, made me think we were crazy because of the silly things we did and best of all, we partied like rock stars! Special shout-outs go to the ladies of Walters 3rd (O4-O5) for all of the good times from First Year and beyond, my fellow ResLifers over the years who've dealt with everything imaginable and we still managed to get through it with smiles on our faces, the OO7 Bond Girls who made last year amazing, the "Bridestmaid Brigade", the '07 SGA Exec Board for all of our hard work and time together, the Art History Theme House (with our Flavor of Love and I Love New York obsessions), my fellow members of the Silhouette over the past two years, and all the lovely Lunas who always kept things fun, interesting and entertaining.

Each person at Agnes Scott has made my four years here an amazing experience and I couldn't be happier for every moment that I got to spend with each of you.

I apologize for not naming everyone in my life that I should thank, but there are just so many people to thank that it would never fit in this little box! So, to everyone, named and unnamed, thank you from the bottom of my heart. I will always remember each of you and will keep our time together as a precious memory that I will treasure forever.

Love Always,

Also, a big thanks goes out to Betty Derrick '08 for her many years of dedication to the Silhouette.

Specifications

The 2007-2008 Silhouette was produced at Agnes Scott College using Jostens Yearbook Avenue. Pictures were taken by the staff as well as submitted by other students and Agnes Scott staff. Staff cameras include a Sony Cybershot with 5.7 megapixels, a Sony Cybershot with 7.2 megapixels, a Sony Cybershot with 72.7 megapixels, and a Canon EOS Digital Rebel XT with 8 megapixels. Underclassmen were photographed in Lower Leticia Pate Evans Dining Hall by Lifetouch Photography. The Senior Portraits were photographed by Terri Clark of Terri Clark Photography. The book was produced and printed by Jostens, Inc., headquarters in Clarksville, TN.

The cover was designed through a collaboration of Sarah Kalaris '09 and Sandra McCarthy of Jostens. Photographs for the cover were provided by the Agnes Scott College Office of Communications and Silhouette staff photographs.

The Silhouette is a student produced publication and is not representative of the views of Agnes Scott College or its affiliates.

If ...

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all around doubt you
But make allowance for their doubting too,
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good,
Nor talk too wise:

If you can dream--and not make
Dreams your master,
If you can think--and not
Make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with
Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two Impostors just
The same;
If you can bear to
Hear the truth
You've spoken
Twisted by Knaves to make
A trap for fools,
Or watch the Things you gave
Your life to, broken,
And stoop and build
'Em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it all on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can scarce your heart and nerve and sinew
And your old sinews soon after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings--nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much,
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And--which is more--you'll be a woman, my daughter!

Abigail McGraw

Abigail,

Although you are graduating and are completing your formal education, you are really only beginning life's journey. We have watched you grow and learn for what seems simultaneously an instant and an eternity. We are proud of you and love you. In the words of William Blake, remember to "see a world in a grain of sand; and heaven in a wild flower; hold infinity in the palm of your hand; and eternity in an hour." Good luck, and know that we will always be there for you when you need us!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Heather Nicole Evans

This picture is of you at exactly 2 months old to the day. Who knew that at 21 years old, you were to become the amazing young woman you are today. We have always told you Life is a journey, not a destination. We can only imagine where you will be 20 years from now. We can't believe everything you have accomplished in your first 21 years. Always stay beautiful, head strong, courageous and amazing and your life will be exactly that!

Always in our hearts and always loved. Sweet Pea.

Congratulations on your college graduation! We have witnessed your eagerness as a child to explore the world. Over the years these many adventures have helped develop you into a lovely woman, an independent person willing to embrace life's challenges in order to gain knowledge and understanding of the world. As your next adventure on your journey approaches, we wish you happiness, good health, wisdom and success in your future endeavors.

Love Always, Mom & Dad

Emily Hauck

Our Dearest Emily,

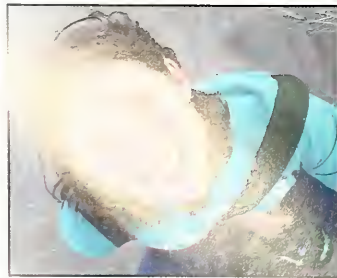

Thank you for sharing your ASC experience with us. It has been our joy and delight to be able to view your exhibits and listen to your talks. Your many accomplishments reinforce our belief in your abilities, as they should you. You are wondrously unique and we have truly been blessed with a special daughter.

As you venture forth into the world, far from our protective arms, we wish you all the best that life has to offer. Near or far, wherever you are, know that you are ever in our hearts, thoughts and prayers.

Congratulations on a job well done!

Love, your ever-so-proud,

Mom and Dad

On a bright sunny Saturday afternoon, GOD graced and blessed us with a bundle of joy.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart,
And lean not on your own understanding.
In all thy ways acknowledge him,
And he shall direct thy paths.

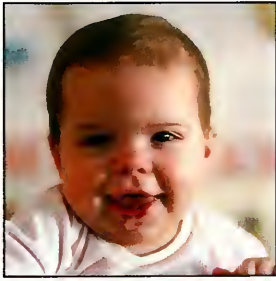

You have been blessed with the alignment of your spirit; to have been granted your hearts desire....
We have been blessed with you. We are extremely proud of all your accomplishments.
May your inner light continue to shine

Congratulations Anna! We are so proud of your hard work and dedication while a student at Agnes Scott. We know that you have much success in life. The best is yet to be. And always remember: Keep it real; keep hope alive; you are somebody; and keep your head in the clouds, your feet on the ground, and a jelly donut in your glove compartment.

Keyona Monet Forbes

My dearest Keyona... Proverbs 3:5,6 ... continually orders our lives; to make positive contributions to this world. At the age of 4, you expressed an urgency to learn ballet; for continuous learning; to travel to Africa and India; bring services & a better quality of life to those in need. Those trips were a confirmation that your purpose and desires are being fulfilled. We have been blessed with a wonderful, gracious and socially conscious daughter. We are proud of your accomplishments, achievements and most of all the young lady you have become.

Love Always,
Mommy

Shannon Leigh McKnight

We have watched you grow from a plain caterpillar to a beautiful butterfly; from an eaglet learning to fly to an eagle flying high.

We are proud of you and all you have become. As you leave school behind may you SOAR to new heights.

You have many talents that you gladly share with the world may you always use them to brighten life and ease the load.

As you grow older always keep that youthful spirit in your life it makes you who you are.

Remember to thank He who lifts you up; He made you a very special & blessed person.

We love you always,

Somehow I can't believe there are any heights that can't be scaled by men who know the secret of making dreams come true. This special secret, it seems to me, can be summarized in four C's: Curiosity, Confidence, Courage, and Constasy and the greatest of these is Confidence. When you believe a thing, believe it all the way, implicitly and unquestionably.

To live a successful life does not require fame, power or prestige. It's more a matter of being true to your principles, doing your best even in the smallest of things, and never taking anything for granted. For all the money in the world cannot buy self-esteem, character, contentment or happiness - and these are the very things that make life worth living. However you define happiness and success, may you find and enjoy them every day of your life.

Scotties Wish a Fond Farewell To A Favorite Dean

Dean Hudson may be retiring but she will never leave Agnes Scott for good.

With Dean Hudson's retirement this Spring, Agnes Scott will lose its number one cheerleader. With her love for students and enthusiasm for every event on campus, few of which she ever misses, her leaving will be a tremendous loss. Whether she is the reason you came to Agnes, the one thing you actually remember from Orientation ("Get Involved"), or you just love to wave at her across campus and have her shout your name back, you know that she will be greatly missed. Dean Hudson, we know that this is a happy time for you and so we are sad for selfish reasons only. Each Agnes Scott student has their own personal favorite memory with you and hopefully these pictures capture some of them. The Student Body wishes you the best in your retirement and hopes that you come back to see us often.
