Agnes Scott Institute.

THE Institute seeks to develop the highest type of womanhood. For the accomplishment of this end the effort is made to provide the advantages for the higher education, and at the same time to surround the student with those influences best adapted to form Christian character. The curriculum and standard are high but not higher than found in the best institutions, and not higher than necessary to meet the demands of the modern education of woman, and to prepare her for the largest usefulness. It is sought as far as possible to make the Institute a Christian home with both the freedom and restraint which characterize such a home. Special care is taken of the health of the pupils and provisions made for their physical development. The authorities of the Institute regard each pupil as a sacred trust committed to their care and guidance to be prepared for the highest destiny here and hereafter.

The Institute was founded in 1889 for the higher Christian education of young women. The object in view was to establish an institution which should offer the best educational advantages and yet be distinctly and positively Christian. In order to the largest fulfilment of this purpose its life and work have been dominated by a definite plan embodied in the following

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

IDEAL.

1. A liberal curriculum, fully abreast of the best institutions of the land.
2. A sound curriculum, with text-books along all lines in harmony with the Bible.
3. The Bible a Text-book.
4. Thoroughly qualified and consecrated teachers.
5. A high standard of scholarship.
6. The Institute a model Christian home.
7. All the influences in the school to be made conducive to the formation and development of Christian character.
8. The glory of God the chief end of all.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

Requirements for Admission to the Freshman Class.

The requirements here given are for admission to the Freshman class according to the new arrangement of courses of study. (See page 24.)

These requirements correspond to the minimum college requirements as prescribed by the Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools in the Southern States, except in French, German and Greek. A course in each of these branches is offered in the Sub-Freshman year as follows: French three hours a week, German three hours a week, Greek five hours a week. This, however, is not considered a full equivalent to the prescribed requirement.

ENGLISH.—(a) Some standard English Grammar, such as The Mother Tongue, Book II., and some Elementary Rhetoric should be completed. The student should lay greater stress on the thoroughness of her work than on how much she has done. Ability to write simple English correctly is necessary. Each applicant will write a theme upon some assigned subject. No candidate will be accepted in English if her work is seriously defective in spelling, punctuation, grammar, or division into paragraphs.

(b) Literature. Careful study of Scott's Lady of the Lake or of Marmion; Ivanhoe; The De Coverly Papers; Pope's Iliad, Books I., VI., XXII., XXIV.; Lowell's Vision of Sir Launfal; Tennyson's Princess. The candidate is expected to present evidence of a general knowledge of the subject-matter, and to answer simple questions on the lives of the authors.

MATHEMATICS.—(a) Arithmetic completed.

(b) Algebra through the Progressions. Wells's, or equivalent.

LATIN.—(1) Collar and Daniell's First Latin Book completed and thoroughly reviewed.

(2) Cæsar, four books.

(3) Cicero: Against Catiline I.-IV., For Archias, Concerning the Manilian Law.

(4) Latin Composition, one hour a week for at least two years. Text-books recommended: Moulton, Part II.; Daniell's New Latin Composition, work based on Cicero.

(5) Latin Grammar: West's Latin Grammar completed; Gildersleeve-Lodge studied after class begins Cicero.

(6) Sight-reading, as much practice as possible.

GREEK.—(1) White's First Greek Book completed and thoroughly reviewed.

(2) Xenophon's Anabasis I., Goodwin and White.

(3) Goodwin's Greek Grammar studied in connection with Xenophon.

(4) Woodruff's Composition, exercises based on Anabasis I.

(5) Sight-translation, Greek New Testament, as much practice as possible.

GERMAN.—I. Lehrbuch der Deutschen Sprache; Heller's First Course in German; Altes and Neues.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

This includes a practical knowledge of the principles of pronunciation and accidence, the elementary rules of syntax and word order, the translation of sentences from German into English and from English into German, the simplest forms of conversation, and one hundred and fifty pages of easy reading.

* FRENCH.—A knowledge of the principles of French Grammar as given in Chardenal's Complete French Course as far as syntax.

Regular and the most used irregular verbs.

Ability to translate easy French prose into English.

HISTORY.—(a) History of Greece, Fyffe's, or equivalent.

(b) History of Rome, Creighton's, or equivalent.

(c) History of the United States, Field's, or equivalent.

SCIENCE.—(a) Physical Geography, Davis's, or equivalent.

(b) Physiology, Blaisdell's, or equivalent.

The proper classification of new students is exceedingly important. If it is too high the student will find her work a constant drag and thoroughly unsatisfactory to herself, teachers, and parents. On the other hand, if too low, an injustice will be done. To avoid both evils is our earnest desire. After years of experience we find the best plan is to combine two things—viz.: examination and probation. After what, under the circumstances, is considered a fair test, the student will be classified on probation, and all necessary changes will be made after trial in daily recitations and class-room work.

*French or German required.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Admission to Advanced Classes.

Candidates for entrance to any class above the Freshman will be required to stand examinations on all subjects previously studied in the Collegiate Department. For a list of these studies in the different courses see pp. 18 and 19.

Special Students.

Special students are permitted to elect any study which they give evidence of sufficient ³/₄ preparation.

COURSES OF STUDY.

TABULAR STATEMENT

— OF —

Courses of Study.

Announcement was made in last year's catalogue that certain changes would be made in the courses of study offered in this institution. One important change announced was the reduction of the number of hours of recitation from seventeen and eighteen hours to fourteen and fifteen hours. This change makes it necessary to take another year to complete the course of study prescribed for graduation. This additional year is called Sub-Freshman and the work is shown in tabulated statement given below.

(The figures in parentheses refer to divisions under head "Description of Courses of Study," and the other figures denote number of hour recitations per week.)

In order not to disturb those already in our collegiate classes and not to disappoint those preparing for Agnes Scott, the above arrangement of the curriculum will be gradually adopted, as follows:

1. Session of 1903-1904, candidates for the Freshman and Sophomore Classes will be given the option of either arrangement. But all candidates for the Sub-Freshman Class must enter according to the new arrangement.
2. Session of 1904-1905, candidates for Sophomore and Junior classes will be given option of either course. All others must enter under the new arrangement.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

The Agnes Scott Institute has been Right of accepted as an accredited school by Certification. the following leading Colleges and Universities: Cornell University, Woman's College of Baltimore, Mount Holyoke College, Wellesley College, Vassar College.

Students who have completed the Freshman class of the Classical Course as outlined above will be admitted to the Freshman class of these institutions without examination.

There are two general examina-
Examinations. tions conducted in writing, one in December and the other at the close of the session. No student will be allowed to advance to a higher class whose examination and sessional standing are not satisfactory.

A report of the class standing and deon the entire course will be awarded the First Honor. The member of the class whose average on the entire course is above 90 and less than 95 will be awarded Second Honor.

A certificate of Distinction will be Certificates. given to the student whose yearly average in any subject is 90 or more.

A certificate of Proficiency will be given to the student who completes satisfactorily the course of study prescribed in any subject.

EXAMINATIONS, REPORTS, HONORS.

A student who completes satisfactorily either of the courses of study prescribed will receive a diploma with the title Graduate.

Description of Courses of Study.

ENGLISH.

Miss McKinney,

Mr. Farrar,

Language.—The aim of this department is two-fold: First, to teach the student to express her thoughts clearly, forcibly and elegantly, both in spoken and written discourse; and second, to study the language in its historical development, a knowledge of which is essential to a correct understanding of our present-day English. The principles governing clear and correct writing are taught, and practical skill is gained by the preparation of frequent themes which are criticized in the classroom.

Literature.—The chief aim of this branch of the English work is to arouse in the students a desire to read and know the best English literature. As the first step toward gaining this object, such of the masterpieces as will interest the pupils and are adapted to their comprehension will be given the class for thorough and careful study. These are discussed at length in class.

As a second step towards this end, a course of pleasant and instructive reading, outside of regular work, is assigned to each class, to be reported upon at regular intervals during the term. The student is expected to read carefully and intelligently all the books prescribed. She should read them as she reads other books; she is expected, not to know them minutely, but to have freshly in mind their most important parts.

Written work is required of the classes in this department, not only as a practical test of their knowledge of the books read, but also as a further help to clear and accurate writing.

1. (a) Rhetoric and English Composition.—Recitations and weekly themes. This is purely an introductory course and is designed to teach correctness and clearness of expression, and to give the student practice in the more elementary kinds of composition.

Text-books:—Herrick and Damon, Composition and Rhetoric; Buehler's Practical Exercises in English.

One hour a week.

1. (b) For Study: Shakspeare's Macbeth, Julius Cæsar, Hamlet; Milton's Paradise Lost, Books I. and II., Comus, Lycidas, L'Allegro, and Il Penseroso; Spenser's Faerie Queene (one book); Chaucer's Prologue and The Knight's Tale.

For Reading: Shakspeare's Tempest, Midsummer-Night's Dream, and Merchant of Venice; Dryden's Palamon and Arcite.

Two hours a week.

2. (a) Rhetoric and English Composition: Recitations and weekly themes. This consists of a study of the organization of materials and of a series of graded themes so arranged as to give the student practice in description, narration and exposition. Some English classic is studied with reference to the author's use of materials in the sentence, in the paragraph, and in the whole composition.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Text-books:—Genung's Working Principles of Rhetoric; Baldwin's Specimens of Prose Description; Brewster's Specimens of Narration.

One hour a week.

2. (b) For Study: Burke's Speech on Conciliation with the American Colonies; Macaulay's Essays on Milton and Addison; Selections from De Quincey, Matthew Arnold and Charles Lamb; Carlyle's Heroes and Hero Worship and Essay on Burns.

Required Reading: George Eliot's Romola and Felix Holt; Thackeray's Vanity Fair or The Newcomes; Hawthorne's The Marble Faun.

Two hours a week.

3. (a) Word-Study: Recitations and Lectures; occasional long themes. The origin, derivation, pronunciation, and use of English words. In addition to text-book, the student will use the dictionaries freely.

Text-Books: Johnson's English Words; Greenough and Kittredge's Words and their Ways in English Speech; Abernethy's Academy Orthoepist.

One hour a week.

3. (b) The History of English Literature: Emery's Notes on English Literature.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

In this course the student is constantly consulting books on the history of English Literature.

Two hours a week.

4. Advanced English Composition: Recitations, lectures, and daily themes. This class is intended only for students who have shown such a special aptitude for writing as to render profitable a further practice and study of English prose style. Instead of the daily themes, topics requiring consecutive treatment will occasionally be presented. Some of these are preceded by carefully prepared plans. Besides the regular writing, students are required to do certain reading which will furnish subjects for treatment and illustrations of the forms of expressions. Each student will have frequent conferences with the instructor. Open to students who have completed Courses 1, 2, and 3.

Two hours a week.

5. Old English; History of the English Language: This course furnishes an elementary study of old English and a brief study of the history of the language. Open to students who have completed courses 1, 2, and 3.

Text-books:—Smith's Old English Grammar and Reader; Emerson's Brief History of the English Language.

Two hours a week.

6. English Grammar: This course in advanced English Grammar is especially helpful to those who expect to teach. Phonology; Forms; Idioms; Historical Grammar. Much of the work will be independent investigations which will be compared and discussed with the class. Lectures on questions of usage. Open to students who have completed courses 1, 2, and 3.

Two hours a week.

7. Nineteenth Century Poetry: Study of the poetry of Keats, Shelley, Wordsworth, Browning, and Tennyson's In Memoriam.

For Reading: Carlyle's Hero as Poet; Emerson's Poet; Matthew Arnold's Study of Poetry; and some of Shairp's Aspects of Poetry.

Two hours a week.

8. The History of American Literature: This course is intended in a measure to supplement the work done in American Literature in the Academic Department. The work will be conducted as in course 5.

Two hours a week.

For graduation, all of courses 1, 2, and 3 are required; for a certificate all of courses 1, 2, and 3, and any three of the remaining five courses.

MATHEMATICS.

Miss Young.

The aim of this department is to cultivate habits of clear and exact reasoning. Students are required to be self-reliant and independent in their work. Frequent written tests are given, and no student is permitted to advance unless satisfactory evidence of thorough preparation is given.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

1. Plane Geometry. Original demonstrations of propositions and the solution of numerical problems form a very important part of this course.

Text-book:—Wentworth.

Four hours a week.

2. (a) Solid Geometry. In this course, as well as in 1, much stress is laid on original work.

(b) Plane Trigonometry. A careful study of right and oblique triangles, of Trigonometric Analysis, and of the practical use of the tables.

Text-books:—Wentworth's Geometry and Wentworth's Trigonometry.

Four hours a week.

A good training in the original solution of Geometrical problems is a necessary preparation for this course.

3. (a) Spherical Trigonometry. Study of right and oblique spherical triangles; applications of the principles of Spherical Trigonometry to problems relating to the celestial sphere.

Text-book:—Wentworth.

(b) College Algebra. A brief review of elementary subjects, followed by a careful study of Permutations and Combinations, Convergency of Series, Undetermined Coefficients, Binomial Theorem to any exponent, Continued Fractions, Summation of Series, Theory of Equations.

Text-book:—College Algebra, Wells.

Four hours a week.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

4. (a) Analytic Geometry. Construction of loci, properties of the point, straight line, circle, parabola, ellipse, hyperbola, and discussion of the general equation of the second degree.

Text-book:—Bailey and Woods.

(b) Differential Calculus. Elementary Course based on the method of limits. Open to students who have completed 4 (a).

Text-book:—Young and Linebarger.
Three hours a week.

From time to time during the year lectures on the History of Elementary Mathematics will be given.

LATIN.

Miss Morrow.

The aim of the first two courses (1, 2) is to impress and increase the knowledge of forms and syntax acquired in the Academic Department. The remaining courses look toward grace and facility in translation and literary and critical appreciation. In all courses students are expected to become familiar with the history and geography in the text, and to explain all mythological allusions.

The Roman pronunciation is used and quantity-marking is required through Course 2. Students in this department are required to take the course in Roman History and Mythology which is given in the department of History.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

Students are advised not to attempt to enter a Latin class in advance of their classification in English.

1. Virgil, the Æneid I.–VI., Greenough and Kit-tredge; Latin Grammar reviewed with special attention to poetic forms and syntax, first term; Mac-kail's Latin Literature, second term; Prosody; Latin Prose Composition; selected sight-reading.

Three hours a week.

2. (a) Horace, (Smith and Greenough,) selected Odes, Satires and Epistles, with special study of the Editors' Introduction; Prosody; selected sight-reading; Latin Prose Composition; parallel reading, Theodore Martin's "Horace" in Collins's Classics Series.

(b) Cicero, De Senectute and De Amicitia; Latin Prose and sight-reading of first term continued; parallel reading, "Cicero" in Collins's Series.

Three hours a week.

3. (a) Livy, I.–II., Greenough; sight-reading, selections from Livy; sight exercises in Latin Prose; parallel reading, "Livy," Collins's Classics Series.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

(b) Tacitus, Annals, (Allen;) sight exercises; selections for sight-reading; parallel reading, "Tacitus," Collins's Series.

Three hours a week.

4. (a) Catullus, Propertius, Tibullus; critical study with library work.

Two hours a week.

(b) Latin Comedy, Plautus and Terence; a study of the rise and development of the Latin play and of its influence on English drama.

Two hours a week.

Note: Courses 4 (a) and 4 (b) are offered in alternating years.

5. A course in Latin sight-reading: Ovid, Pliny's Letters and other selections.

Required of all Juniors intending to elect Latin (4 and 5) in their Senior year; open to all students who have completed Latin (3).

One hour a week.

GREEK.

Miss Morrow.

Sub-Freshman and Course 1 are planned to give a thorough knowledge of the Greek forms and syntax in common use. For the attainment of this, there is daily blackboard work. Special drill is given on accent. Exercises are given in every course, in sight-translation and translation at hearing. The last two courses include work in literary study and criticism, though the rigidity of drill on forms and syntax is not relaxed.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

Students in Greek must take the course in Grecian History and Mythology offered in the department of History.

1. (a) Xenophon, the Anabasis, III.–IV., Goodwin and White; Goodwin's Greek Grammar; Woodruff's Greek Prose Composition; selected exercises in translation at sight and at hearing.

(b) Homer, the Iliad, I.–IV., Seymour; informal lectures on Homeric forms and syntax, based on Munro's Homeric Grammar; Prosody; remainder of work a continuation of 1 (a); parallel reading, Mahaffey's Old Greek Life.

Five hours a week.

2. (a) Plato, the Apology and Crito, Dyer; Goodwin's Grammar reviewed; Greek Prose Composition; translation at sight and at hearing; parallel reading, Miss Swanwick's translation of the Oresteia.

(b) Sophocles's Antigone, Jebb; Greek Prose Composition; Prosody, with Schmidt's Rhythmic and Metric as a reference-book; selected translation at sight and at hearing; Jebb's Literature Primer.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Four hours a week.

3. (a) Euripides, Alcestis, Earle; Jebb's Classic Greek Poetry; translation at sight and at hearing; Prosody as in 2 (b).

(b) Thucydides, Fall of Plataea and Plague at Athens, Sutthery and Graves; translation at sight and at hearing, selected; studies in Greek Literature, with literary work and papers on assigned topics.

Four hours a week.

FRENCH.

Miss Massie.

The aim of instruction in this department is to give a correct pronunciation, a thorough knowledge of the principles of French grammar and syntax, a sympathetic appreciation of the French point of view and of French characteristics as revealed in selections from their best authors. Students are encouraged to express themselves upon ordinary topics in correct French and to read French without translation into English.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

1. Grammar.—Chardenal's French Course completed.

Reading.—Daudet's Contes, Boum-boum et autres contes, Labiche et Legouvé's La Cigale chez les Fourmis.

Written work based on Le Siège de Berlin, La Dernière Classe (Grandgent's texts), and other stories.

Irregular verbs and the more difficult principles of French Grammar are studied in this class, idioms carefully considered, and a good reading knowledge of French acquired.

Three hours a week.

2. Fraser and Squair's Grammar, Part I.

Grandgent's Selections for French Composition.

La Nevvaine de Colette (Schultz), with English paraphrases for translation into French.

Fortier's Les Sept Grands Auteurs (recited in French). Daudet's La Belle Nivernaise. Loti's Pêcheur d'Islande, Sandeau's Mlle. de la Seiglière. Paillerond's Le Monde où l'on s'ennuie. Coppée's Luthier de Crémone.

Three hours a week.

3. Fraser and Squair's Grammar.

Grandgent's Selections for French Composition.
Fortier's French Literature (recited in French).

Reading.—Bowen's French Lyrics.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Esther, Le Cid, Le Misanthrope, L'Avare, Hernani, La Chute.

Résumés and sketches written in French are frequently required, while conversation and dictation exercises are given throughout the course. Proverbs, short poems, and idiomatic dialogues are memorized at intervals.

French is, to a great extent, though not exclusively, the language of the class-room.

Three hours a week.

GERMAN.

Miss Shepard.

While acquiring a correct pronunciation, a sufficient vocabulary, and a knowledge of grammatical principles, the student is led to an understanding of the German tongue as a living medium for the expression and interchange of thought. A love for German literature is awakened, and an ambition to readily comprehend its masterpieces is aroused. The method of instruction is varied to suit the needs of the class, but the same end is kept in view, that of grasping and expressing ideas.

1. Collar-Eysenbach's Grammar. Accidence is reviewed. Special stress is laid upon the use of prepositions and conjunctions and the modal auxiliaries. Such stories as Immensee, Höher als die Kirche, L'Arrabbiata, der Zerbrochene Krug, are read and translated. They are made the basis of German conversation and are then reproduced in German by the class. William Tell is read and analyzed.

Three hours a week.

2. Spanhoofd's Grammar. The text is recited in German, emphasis being placed on the subjunctive and infinitive moods. Stories of such grade as Anfang und Ende and Die Einsamen are read. Ginn and Company's edition of Maria Stuart is used, combining the questions with reference to the development of the drama with a thorough study of the work itself. Some work of Goethe is taken up in detail. Attention is paid to the thought and style of the authors, and character sketches and essays are written in German.

Three hours a week.

3. The more difficult principles of Grammar reviewed. Recitations in the German language from Bilder aus der Deutschen Literatur. Reproductions in class from collateral reading. Classical works read and classified. Grillparzer and modern novelists studied.

Four hours a week.

The German script is used and constant attention is given to the German idiom. Dictation exercises, memory work, prose composition and composition in German are required each year. German is the language of the class-room.

Those completing 1, 2, and 3, will receive a certificate of proficiency.

A.—CHEMISTRY.

I. INORGANIC CHEMISTRY.—This course consists of lectures, recitations, and laboratory work, using Remsen's Inorganic Chemistry (Briefer Course) as basis of the work. The course is designed to give such general knowledge of chemical facts and phenomena as is the prerequisite of a liberal education, and to cultivate correct habits of observation and manipulation.

Laboratory work is essential. No student who is not faithful and persevering in this branch of the work will be promoted. At least ten quantitative experiments are required to impress the importance of accuracy in the verification of the simplest laws. The students are trained in the construction, mounting, and manipulation of apparatus.

Each student is required to make a record of her laboratory work while in the laboratory. The care and originality shown in this record will be an important factor in the determination of class-standing.

Students applying for admission to higher classes must furnish evidence of systematic laboratory work in chemistry, as it is the quality and not the quantity of their work that will be considered.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

Laboratory books must, therefore, be presented before the student is admitted to examination.

Recitations three hours per week throughout the year; laboratory work two periods of two consecutive hours per week.

Text-book:—Remsen's Inorganic Chemistry (Briefer Course).

Books of Reference:—Méndelcéff's Principles of Chemistry and Remsen's Inorganic Chemistry.

2. (a) ORGANIC CHEMISTRY.—This class meets twice a week throughout the year for a study of the simpler compounds of carbon of the aliphatic and the aromatic series. Regular hours of laboratory work will be required of the students taking this course.

Text-book:—Remsen's Organic Chemistry.

Book of Reference:—Berntsen's Organic Chemistry.

(b) QUALITATIVE ANALYSIS:—This course offers students the opportunity of acquiring a practical knowledge of qualitative analysis. It is essentially a laboratory course, seven hours per week being required in the laboratory. This class recites once a week.

Text-books:—Seller's Treatise on Qualitative Chemical Analysis and A. A. Noyes's Notes on Qualitative Analysis.

Books of Reference — Olding's Practical Chemistry, Muter's Analytical Chemistry, and Vollhard.

3. (a) QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS.—The most common methods of gravimetric and volumetric analysis are studied in this course, and the students will be drilled by the many practical analyses which will be required. This year's work will be given only to those students who have chosen the special chemistry course. Laboratory work, seven hours a week.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Text-books and Books of Reference :—Newth's Manual of Chemical Analysis, Talbot's Quantitative Chemical Analysis, and Cairn's Quantitative Analysis.

(b) ORGANIC PREPARATIONS.—A general course in organic preparations is offered during the latter half of the last year to students pursuing the special chemistry course. The work will be selected from the books of Levy and Gatterman on Organic Preparations. Laboratory work, seven hours per week.

The Institute has recently constructed a building to accommodate the scientific laboratories. This building, which is called Science Hall, is a two-story brick building containing nine rooms and a basement. The whole lower floor, consisting of laboratories for Analytical and General Chemistry, recitation-room, library, balance-room, storage-room, is devoted to Chemistry.

This building is supplied with gas for lighting, laboratory burners, blast lamps, furnaces, and so forth. The chemical laboratory is well equipped for general experimentation, having a good stock of inorganic and organic chemicals, a complete assortment of the necessary laboratory apparatus, and convenient laboratory desks, which are supplied with gas, hot and cold water, and air blast. In these laboratory desks are separate drawers and lockers for each student, where the apparatus given out from the storage room can be kept.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

Some of the best reference books and current scientific journals are kept in the library. In the balance-room are Becker balances of high grade.

B.—PHYSICS.

There are two courses in Physics.

1. INTRODUCTORY PHYSICS.—This class recites three hours a week and meets in the laboratory three hours a week. This course is elementary, and designed to present the simpler laws and principles of Mechanics, Heat, Sound, Light, and Electricity.

Text-book:—Wentworth and Hill's Physics.

2. GENERAL PHYSICS.—This is a more extended course, embracing a general study of Mechanics, Sound, Heat, Light, and Electricity, and the solution of a large number of problems under each of the branches named. The lectures and recitations will be enforced by numerous demonstrations, and regular time will be provided for in the laboratory.

The laboratory is being equipped year by year with the necessary apparatus. During this year several very valuable pieces of apparatus have been added. Recitations three hours per week.

Text-book:—Avery's Principles of Physics.

Books of Reference:—Barker's Physics and Ganot's Physics.

C.—BIOLOGY.

The Biological laboratory is a beautifully lighted room on the second floor of Science Hall. Here are found the very best compound microscopes dissecting implements, sectioning and staining apparatus, constant temperature baths, cages for insect culture, aquaria, and many other conveniences for study of animal and plant life.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

There are four courses offered in this department.

1. GENERAL BIOLOGY.—This is a practical course, which includes the study of animal morphology and physiology—Zoology; and a study of vegetable morphology and physiology—Botany.

This course is elementary and founded on selected portions of Davis's text-books of Biology. In connection with the lectures and recitations a regular course of laboratory work will be maintained, in which the lower forms of life, such as the amœba, the hydra, yeast, moulds, etc., will be studied under the microscope; and higher forms, such as the oyster, the crayfish, the frog, the English sparrow, etc., will be dissected. The object of this course is to give the students a knowledge of the most important phenomena of animal and plant life.

During a part of the second term an elementary course in the botany of flowering plants is given. The various parts of a plant, such as seeds, roots, stem, leaves, etc., are studied, and this is followed by an examination and classification of the ordinary native plants of the vicinity. This course comprises three hours a week of laboratory work, and so much of field work as circumstances will allow.

This class will recite three times a week.

Text-books:—Needham's Lessons in Zoology, Davis's Biology—Part I., and Bergen's Elements of Botany.

Books of Reference: Brook's Invertebrate Zoology, Comstock's Manual for study of Insects, Gray's School and Field Botany, and Chapman's Botany.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

2. STRUCTURAL BOTANY.—Microscopic methods are studied more in detail. Sectioning, staining, and mounting of slides are put to practical use in the study of the structure and relations of the different organs and parts of the plant. Recitations two hours a week. Laboratory work five hours a week.

Text-book:—Strasburger's Practical Botany.

3. ANIMAL PHYSIOLOGY.—This course is designed to give the student a thorough knowledge of the functions of life as demonstrated in man and the higher animals. It is largely an experimental course in physiology, and so the student will carry out many of the studies in the laboratory. In connection with the work the dissection of a mammal will be required. This class meets four times a week.

Text-book:—Martin's Human Body.

Books of Reference: Foster and Howell.

4. ANIMAL MORPHOLOGY.—This is a laboratory course offered to students who have completed General Biology (I). It embraces a study of the morphology and embryology of simple invertebrate and vertebrate types, and a brief course in comparative Osteology. This class meets twice a week, and spends seven hours a week in the laboratory.

Text-books:—Sedgwick and Wilson's Biology, Brook's Invertebrate Zoology, Quain's Osteology.

D.—GEOLOGY.

In this department recitations and class work are supplemented by assigned readings, laboratory work and excursions.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

This section of Georgia presents some very interesting features for geological students. The shifted divides of North Georgia and South Carolina and the belted coastal plain of South Georgia and Alabama furnish excellent studies in Physiography. Stone Mountain, a splendid geological problem for the student, is but a few miles distant.

The Institute will endeavor to keep a complete set of publications of the United States Geological Survey, as well as those of the different States. Students will be encouraged to inform themselves respecting the geology of the regions from which they come.

1. (a) This course is designed to give an understanding of the general character of the earth's history, and embraces physiographic Geology, dynamic and structural Geology, and historical Geology.

A special course is now being planned in Physiography, which will be a stepping-stone to this general course in Geology.

Text-books:—Le Conte's Geology or W. B. Scott's Elements of Geology.

Books of Reference: Lyell's Principles of Geology, Geikie's Text-book of Geology.

(b) Mineralogy and Crystallography. This is a very elementary laboratory course which is so directed by the instructor as to make the students familiar with the most common minerals and crystal forms and the methods of identifying them.

Books of Reference:—Dana's Text-book of Mineralogy and G. H. Williams's Elements of Crystallography.

This class recites three times a week throughout the session.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

Through the kindness and generosity of Mr. N. P. Pratt, Dr. D. A. Shumate, Colonel Geo. W. Scott and others, a mineralogical cabinet of over 300 specimens has been recently added to this department, which will be of great value to the geological students.

E.—ASTRONOMY.

I. This course in Astronomy is based on Young's General Astronomy. A knowledge of Trigonometry and Analytical Geometry is necessary.

Though denied the use of the large and refined instruments now at the command of wealthy institutions, photographs and stereopticon views of the instruments now in use in the Yerkes and Lick observatories will be presented and their working described. The Institute has a small telescope which adds much interest to these studies.

Text-book:—Young's General Astronomy.

THE BIBLE.

Dr. Gaines.

This is a three years' course, beginning with the Sophomore year.

OBJECTS.—(1) To give a clear knowledge of Biblical History. The facts of this history not only form the basis of our religion, but have determined the history of the race, and especially of Christendom.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

(2) To give in some measure an adequate view of the value of the Bible. While the Bible is theoretically considered the greatest book in existence, yet comparatively few have a true appreciation of the ground of this claim.

(3) To teach how to study the Bible. Much Bible reading and even Bible study is unsatisfactory for the lack of the best method of study.

HOW THE COURSE IS TAUGHT.—(1) The Bible itself is the main text-book ; other books are used only as guides or helps.

(2) The Bible is taught systematically—i. e., according to a plan. The plan used is to divide each Testament into periods according to the epochs in the history, and to study these periods in order.

(3) The Bible is taught analytically. Each period is carefully analyzed and the material orderly arranged. Then, as time permits, books and chapters are analyzed.

(4) The Bible is taught in the light of Biblical Geography. The location of an event not only makes it more real and helps to fix it in the mind, but often enables us to understand it. The latest Biblical Geography and the best wall maps are used.

(5) The Bible is always taught as the inspired Word of God.

The course is arranged as follows :

I. From the Creation to the Kingdom. Text-books : Bible Course: Outline and Notes (Gaines); Manual of Biblical Geography (Hurlbut).

Two hours a week.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

2. From the Kingdom to End of Old Testament. Same text-books continued.

Two hours a week.

3. The New Testament. Same text-books continued, with the following additional: Harmony of the Gospel (Broadus); Evidences of Christianity (Alexander).

Two hours a week.

Each student should be supplied with a good copy of the Revised Version.

All students who do not take the regular Bible course are required to recite one lesson a week either in the Story of the Bible (Foster), Studies in the Four Gospels (Hurlbut), or Blaikie's Bible History.

HISTORY.

Miss Massie.

In this department, effort is made to employ those methods of instruction best adapted to remove the prejudice that history is a dry mass of facts and dates, to arouse in the student enthusiasm for the study of History, and to constantly impress the idea of the continuity of all history as well as the unity of national life, throughout all changes and even revolutions.

1. Sheldon's Ancient History, supplemented on certain subjects by Myers's History of Greece and of Rome, and Oman's Greece.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

(a) The civilizations of the ancient East and its contribution to Greece, the influence of physical geography upon the Greek State, Greek political history to the death of Alexander, the characteristics of Greek civilization, history of the origin and development of the Greek drama.

(b) The history of Rome to the death of Constantine, the physical advantages of Italy, the development of the constitution, the rise of the Plebeians, the internal weaknesses of the latter days of the Republic, the spread of Roman civilization, the downfall of Paganism.

Mythology by topical study.

References: Grote's Greece, Mahaffey's Old Greek Life, Bulfinch's Mythology, Francklin's Translation of Antigone, Æschylus and Sophocles (Collins's Classic Series), Leaf and Lang's Iliad, Plutarch's Lives, Mommsen's Rome.

Two hours a week.

2. Myers's Mediæval and Modern History, Emerson's Introduction to the Middle Ages. The Decline of the Empire, the Settlement of the Teutonic Peoples, the Growth of the Church, the Feudal System, the Crusades, the Rise of the Free Cities, the Renaissance, the Protestant Reformation.

References: Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, the Epoch series of Histories, Guizot's History of Civilization, Froude's Studies, Duruy's History of the Middle Ages, Carlyle's Heroes.

Two hours a week.

3. (a) Montgomery's Leading Facts of French History; Adams's Growth of the French Nation. The History of France from the earliest times to the French Revolution.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The strife between nobles and king ; the gradual growth of absolutism ; the religious wars ; Richelieu ; the age of Louis XIV.

References:—Guizot's History of France and History of Civilization ; St. Amand's Works ; Stephen's Lectures on the History of France.

(b) Montgomery's Leading Facts of English History, as an outline, largely supplemented by Coman and Kendall's History of England.

The Physical Geography of England ; the Puritan Revolution ; the attainment of self-government ; the political and social reforms of the nineteenth century are the leading subjects of study.

References: Gardiner's Students' History of England ; Green's Short History of the English People ; Macaulay's Essays and History ; McCarthy's History of our Times ; Fielden's Constitutional History ; Coman's Book of Sources ; Carlyle's Heroes.

Two hours a week.

4. (a) Myers's Mediæval and Modern History.

The French Revolution and the wars of Napoleon ; the Rise of the Modern Kingdoms ; formation of the German Empire ; United Italy ; the Republic of France.

References: Same in general as for Course 2, with Fyffe's History of Modern Europe, and Guizot's History of France.

(b) Fiske's History of the United States ; Cooper and Estell's Our Country.

Exploration and settlement ; Government and Social Condition ; the Causes of the Revolution ; the American Revolution ; Formation of the Constitution ; Development of Nationality ; the Slavery Contest; the Civil War; Reconstruction Period.

(c) One recitation a week in Civil Government in the United States.

Two and a half hours a week.

References: Bancroft's History; Winsor's Narrative and Critical History; Old South Leaflets; H. A. White's Life of Lee; Dabney's Life of Jackson; Watson's Life of Jefferson; Johnson's American Politics; Fiske's Critical Period of American History.

Course 4 is intended for those only who have taken courses 1, 2, 3.

Topics for special study are assigned from time to time, of which oral or written reports are given to the class. For the preparation of these topics much use is made of the source books and leaflets now available, and the student is taught to distinguish between contemporaneous accounts and those given by later historians or biographers.

States and territorial acquisitions are located and lines of march of tribes and armies traced by the class on outline maps—at first from memory, to be corrected later by comparison with an atlas.

For this, Heath's Outline Maps are used.

Written tests are given at intervals to each class, and several papers during the year are required of those taking courses 2, 3, or 4.

Class discussion is encouraged, and students are urged to bring to the class from magazines, newspapers or any sources available, collections of pictures and items of interest bearing on the subject studied.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

A reading-room, well supplied with the best periodicals, enables the students to prepare themselves for a weekly discussion of topics of the day and of matters of general information.

PHILOSOPHY.

Miss Sheppard.

This is a three years' course, beginning with the Junior year. The department includes Formal and Material Logic; Rational and Educational Psychology; Theoretical and Practical Ethics; the History of Philosophy and of Education. The entire course is required for graduation of those electing the English group of studies, and of those desiring a certificate of proficiency. Course 3 may be omitted by those electing any other than the English group.

The first year attention is given to the relations between Physiology and Psychology, to the kinds of mental activity; to the primary laws of thought and their application in correct thinking, and to the value of psychologic principles as the basis of true educational methods.

In the second year the natural progression from Psychology to the settlement of the ethical theory and its application is observed. The ground of moral obligation is studied, as well as the impulsive, rational and moral principles of action. Specific duties arising from special relations are discussed. The truth of thought with its criterion and evidence is considered. Attention is given to the History of Ancient, Mediæval, and Modern Philosophy, tracing the development of philosophic thought from Thales to the present time. The fundamental problems of Philosophy are discussed and the chief modes attempted for their solution are indicated. A short time is devoted to the lives and works of some of the chief educators, and an effort is made to cull from them the essentials of pedagogical doctrine.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

1. (a) LOGIC, INDUCTIVE AND DEDUCTIVE.—The text-book used is Poland. References are made to Bowen, Schuyler, Creighton, and Jevons-Hill.

(b) PSYCHOLOGY.—The text-books used are Davis and Hopkins. Collateral readings are required from Ladd, James, Dewey, Stout, Titchener, Halleck, and others. Instruction is given by means of lectures and practical exercises in connection with recitations.

Two hours a week.

2. (a) ETHICS.—The chief authors studied are Davis, Dabney, Hopkins, and Mackenzie. Besides recitations, essays, reviews, and critical comparisons are required.

(b) HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY. — Text-book : Hunter. References to Weber's History of Philosophy translated by Thilly.

(c) HISTORY OF EDUCATION. —Text-books :Com-

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

payre, Seeley, and Painter. Topics are discussed and reports are given from required readings.

Two hours a week.

3. ADVANCED LOGIC.—Comprehensive study of the History of Philosophy. Poland, James, and Weber are used as text-books with references to works heretofore mentioned. The course is pursued by means of lectures, essays, assigned readings, and discussions.

Two hours a week.

Music.

The work of this department embraces instruction in piano, organ, violin, voice culture, art of singing, harmony, theory of music, history of music, sight-reading, and chorus singing. Only experienced teachers of special talent and training are employed; there are no tutors or assistants. Students in piano, organ, violin, and voice culture have two lessons a week of half an hour each. Harmony, theory, sight-reading, etc., are taught in classes. Each student is expected to perform the part assigned her in frequent recitals. Piano pupils in the preparatory grade are expected to practice one hour daily; more advanced students, two hours. Students in voice culture will practice one hour a day. Special students can arrange for more time.

The library is well supplied with standard books of reference, histories, biographies, collections of letters, critical and historical essays, theoretical works, etc. The leading musical periodicals are also received.

PIANO.

Mr. Maclean,
Mr. Stephan,
Miss Watkins.

PREPARATORY GRADE.—Rudiments, position of hands and muscular development; simple studies, major scales and chords; easy pieces; sonatinas.

SCIENCE HALL.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

INTERMEDIATE GRADE. — Rhythmical scale studies ; major and minor scales ; arpeggios ; finger studies to be transposed into every key ; wrist studies ; studies in phrasing and expression ; trill studies ; study of polyphonic music begun ; easy sonatas ; pieces by modern composers ; playing at sight (pieces for four and eight hands) ; playing from memory.

ADVANCED GRADE.—Technical studies continued ; study of standard sonatas, concertos and pieces of modern composers ; systematic study of works of the great composers, together with reading of musical biography, analysis, etc.; ensemble playing.

ORGAN.

Mr. Stephan.

At least one year's study in piano playing is necessary before undertaking the organ.

This course is planned especially to meet the needs of those preparing themselves for church choir work.

Studies. — Stainer's Organ Primer ; Whiting's First Six Months ; D. Buck's Pedal Phrasing ; Rink's Four Books ; Bach's Preludes and Fugues ; Church Music by Best, Smart, Merkel, etc.

The Institute has a two-manual organ for the use of students.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

VOICE CULTURE AND ART OF SINGING.

Miss Leinbach.

GRADE I.—Exercises for control of breath, placing and developing of tone. Concone, op. 9. Simple Songs.

GRADE II.—Tone Exercises. Scales by Bonoldi, Garcia, etc ; Vocalises by Concone, op. 12. English songs and simple Italian arias, with special attention to enunciation and phrasing.

GRADE III.—Tone Exercises. Vocalises of Panofka and Luetgen. Study of French, German, and Italian songs and arias ; English Oratorio.

In connection with the above course, sight-reading and chorus classes are formed, open to all the students of the Institute. Students of the vocal department are expected to attend these classes regularly.

VIOLIN.

Miss Morgan.

The method of instruction follows that taught by the greatest of living German violinists, Prof. Joseph Joachim, Director of the Royal Academy of Arts, Berlin, Germany, under whose supervision Miss Morgan received most of her musical training.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The instruction is necessarily individual, being suited to the needs and talent of each student. Much attention is given to right-hand as well as to left-hand technic, the practical and very graceful Joachim bowing resulting in beautiful tone production. A thorough knowledge of the scales and arpeggios (David, Schradieck, Moser) is required, a prescribed course in Bowing Exercises (Joachim, Tartini, Sevcik, Kreutzer), Etudes by Kayser, Dancla, Dont, Kreutzer, Fiorillo. Concertos and Concerto-Studies by Bach, DeBeriot, Kreutzer, Rode, Sitt, Viotti, etc., together with lighter compositions by the best classical and modern composers.

THEORY.

This course is arranged to cover four years. The first three grades are required for the completion of the regular musical course; the fourth is optional, and should be undertaken only by those who have fully mastered the preceding grades and give evidence of talent in melodic invention.

GRADE I.—Elementary Theory.—The staff, notation, rhythm, major and minor scales, slurs, syncopation, triads, appoggiaturas, ornamentation, etc.

Collateral reading concerning lives of Bach, Handel, Haydn, Mozart, and Beethoven.

GRADE II.—Harmony.—Preliminaries, intervals, triads and their inversions, seventh-cords and their inversions, altered chords, modulation, suspensions, organ-point, passing tones and chords.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Collateral reading concerning lives of Schubert, Schumann, Mendelssohn, Wagner, and Brahms.

GRADE III.—Part-writing for two, three, and four voices ; harmonic accompaniment to given melody.

GRADE IV.—Counterpoint, single and double ; canon ; fugue ; elements of orchestration ; musical forms.

Practical work based on manuals of Broekhoven, Chadwick, Bridge, and Jadassohn.

HISTORY OF MUSIC.

This study covers the last two years of the Musical Course.

THIRD YEAR.—General History from earliest times to present day, especially since death of Palestrina.

FOURTH YEAR. — Special study of different epochs, with particular attention to the development of the Sonata and other forms. Musical Analysis and Criticism.

CERTIFICATES

Will be given pupils in piano playing, voice culture, and violin playing.

Requisites for Certificates.

Recognizing the necessity of a broad and liberal culture in every department of study, it is required

THE WHITE HOUSE.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

that candidates for a certificate in this department shall complete satisfactorily the courses in English and English Literature prescribed for Freshman and Sophomore classes of this Institute, or shall be able to stand examinations on the equivalent of these courses. In addition :

1. In piano-playing, ability to give a public recital (mostly from memory), the program to include a movement from a standard piano concerto, and pieces of varied styles ; to pass satisfactory examinations in playing at sight and in the first three grades of theory and a good general knowledge of musical literature.

2. In voice-culture, ability to give a public recital, to be advanced to at least the Intermediate grade in piano-playing, to pass satisfactory examinations in sight-reading and in the first three grades of theory and a good general knowledge of musical literature.

3. In violin-playing, a course of at least four years with ability to give a public recital ; to pass satisfactory examinations in playing at sight and in the first three grades of theory, and a good general knowledge of musical literature.

ART.

Miss Lewis.

The aim of this department is to give a systematic course of study which shall be both thorough and inspiring, cultivating the eye to quick observation and the hand to facility of execution.

The regular art course is divided into four classes.

1.—Elementary Class.

Drawing.—Elementary casts, parts of human figure.

Clay Modeling.—Ornament, casts of foliage, parts of human figure.

Perspective.—Theory, drawing from groups of solids, etc.

2.—Preparatory Antique Class.

Drawing.—Fragments and masks from the antique.

Painting.—From still-life in color.

Sketching.—Time-sketches in pencil or charcoal, outdoor sketching in pencil.

3.—Antique Class.

Drawing.—Busts and full length figure.

Painting.—Studies in oil or water color.

Sketching.—In pencil, charcoal, or pen-and-ink from still-life, outdoor sketches in drawing or color.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

4.—Life Class.

Drawing.—Full length figure from antique, head from life, from draped model.

Composition.—General rules for composing pictures.

Painting.—Head from life.

Sketching.—Outdoor sketching in color.

Students cannot enter an advanced class without passing an examination on the work preceding.

Excellent opportunity in the way of good models and thorough instruction is offered those desiring to study china painting, tapestry, and other lines of decorative painting.

Miniature painting, pastel, and photo-crayon are also taught.

A sufficient knowledge of drawing will be required before entering upon the study of these branches.

Instruction in free-hand drawing is given to pupils in the Academic Department without extra charge for one hour a week during one session.

ART HISTORY.—Students in the Freshman year of the Literary Course taking Art as an elective branch will have, in connection with it, the study of Art History.

There will be an hour lesson once a week, the study extending over a two years' course. Excellent illustrations will be provided to aid in the interest and profitableness of the study. Reference will also be made to literature in its connection with Art.

Other students of the school may, with permission of the President, be admitted to this class. All studio pupils are expected to study Art History if so advised by the teacher of the department.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Certificates.—The same literary attainment as is required in the Music Department will be required in this department, in addition to the satisfactory completion of the art course as prescribed.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT.

The work in this department extends over five years, and has been so arranged as to prepare pupils for the courses leading to graduation in the Collegiate Department. The fifth year is introduced for the first time and is called Sub-Freshman. The studies prescribed in this year correspond very nearly to the Freshman work under the old arrangement.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ENTRANCE.

English.—Language lessons, study of the sentence, lessons in punctuation and capitalization, simple letter-writing.

Arithmetic.—Addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, primary fractions.

Geography.—Maury's Elementary Geography, or an equivalent, completed.

Reading.—Ability to read intelligently and expressively standard works of the grade of Hawthorne's Wonder Book and Kingsley's Greek Heroes.

ENGLISH.

Grammar and Composition.—The aim of this department is to give the pupil a thorough knowledge of elementary Grammar and to teach her the methods of simple, direct, and accurate expression. The study of the principles of composition is not left until the third or fourth year; from the beginning the pupil is led to frame simple generalizations for her own guidance. Much composition work is done in the first and second years. In the third, fourth, and Sub-Freshman years weekly themes are required. In each of the four years many themes are written in class, a limited period being set apart for the first draft and half as much time being given for revision.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Literature and Reading.—In general, the object of this department is fourfold: (1) To secure a ready apprehension of thought and feeling from the printed page; (2) to cultivate the power to give correct vocal expression to thought and feeling; (3) to secure at least a slight acquaintance with classic literature; (4) to create and foster a love for good reading.

Before entering upon this stage of their work pupils are supposed to have had thorough training in reading, although much of the class-work of these four years consists in reading aloud. Pupils will be required also, from time to time, to memorize passages from the selections studied. In addition to the regular class-work there will be assigned books for home reading.

FIRST YEAR.—Grammar and Composition.—The Mother Tongue, Book I. Frequent compositions. Letter-writing.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

Literature: Tanglewood Tales, Daffy-Down-Dilly and other short stories by Hawthorne; Ruskin's King of the Golden River.

Two and a half hours a week.

SECOND YEAR.—Grammar and Composition.—The Mother Tongue, Book I., completed and reviewed; weekly compositions; written work in class.

Literature: Hawthorne's The Great Stone Face; Stories from the Norse Mythology; King Arthur and His Court; Irving's Rip Van Winkle and The Legend of Sleepy Hollow.

Two and a half hours a week.

THIRD YEAR.—Grammar and Composition.—The Mother Tongue, Book II., through page 203; weekly compositions.

Literature: American Poems, including some of the longer poems of Longfellow, Whittier, Bryant, and Lowell.

Two and a half hours a week.

FOURTH YEAR.—Grammar and Rhetoric: Our Mother Tongue, Part II., completed, and Lewis's First Book in Writing English begun; compositions weekly.

Literature: Lewis's Introduction to the Study of Literature and Masterpieces of British Literature.

Required Reading: Scott's Ivanhoe, The Talisman, Kenilworth; Hawthorne's House of Seven Gables.

Two and a half hours a week.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

SUB-FRESHMAN.—

Rhetoric: Text-book to be selected.

Literature: Selections from the poetry of Scott and Tennyson; Pope's Iliad, Books I., VI., XXII., XXIV.; The Sir Roger De Coverley Papers; Coleridge's Ancient Mariner; Lowell's The Vision of Sir Launfal; De Quincey's Flight of the Tartar Tribes.

Required Reading: George Eliot's Silas Marner; Cooper's The Last of the Mohicans; Dickens's Tale of Two Cities.

Three hours a week.

MATHEMATICS.

FIRST YEAR.—Bacon's Four Years in Numbers, Second Part.

Two and a half hours a week.

SECOND YEAR.—Prince's Arithmetic by Grades (No. 5). Fractions, Decimals.

Two and a half hours a week.

THIRD YEAR.—Prince's Arithmetic by Grades (No. 6). Mensuration, Denominate Numbers, Metric System.

MNEMOSYNEAN LITERARY SOCIETY HALL.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

General Information.

The work of each day is begun with Religious religious exercises in the chapel and is Features. closed with evening prayer. The Sabbath is observed as a holy day. The boarding students attend the Sabbath-school in the Institute conducted by the resident teachers. All students are expected to attend church on Sabbath morning. Prayer-meeting is held in the Institute weekly. There is also a morning prayer-meeting, conducted by the students. The Agnes Scott Christian Band, composed of teachers and students, meets every Sabbath evening.

The Institution has been founded and sustained by Presbyterians, and hence its moral standards and religious life conform as nearly as possible to those which obtain in that church. Special care, however, is taken not to interfere in any way with the religious views or preferences of students from families belonging to other denominations, or to no denomination, all of whom are welcome.

Every effort is made to give The the Institute the character of a Institute Home. Christian home. Teachers and students constitute one household. Care is taken to render the home-life of the student not only attractive, but conducive to the cultivation of those graces which mark refined women.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Only such restrictions are thrown around the students as are considered important for their health, safety, and improvement. Importance is attached to the cultivation of that considerate regard for the wishes and feelings of others which leads to courteous deportment.

A student who persists in disobedience or disrespect, or even neglect of duty, and who is evidently gaining no good herself and is hindering others, is not permitted to remain in the Institute. Students are not allowed to leave the grounds without permission, or unaccompanied by a teacher. Instruction in manners and etiquette is given by the Lady Principal.

Decatur, the county seat of DeKalb
Location. county, is a town of some 2,000 inhabitants on the Georgia Railroad, six miles east of the Union Depot, Atlanta. All the conditions of healthfulness seem to be met perfectly here: an elevation of 1,050 feet; no large streams or bodies of water near enough to give dampness to the atmosphere; fine freestone water; excellent drainage; and freedom from malaria. There are Presbyterian, Methodist, and Baptist churches with resident pastors, and also an Episcopal chapel. The Donald Fraser High School for boys, a preparatory school of high grade and superior management, is located here.

The nearness and accessibility of Decatur to Atlanta render available all the advantages of the city. Besides the Georgia Railroad with frequent passenger trains, there are three electric lines with fifteen and thirty minute schedules. It is, therefore, entirely convenient and practicable for the students to attend the lecture and concert courses in the city, always, of course, accompanied by teachers. All things considered, it would seem difficult to find a location combining more advantages for a great institution of learning than this.

The Main Building, completed and Buildings. occupied for the first time in the fall of 1891, is a massive edifice, simple in architecture yet not lacking in impressiveness.

It is constructed of brick, granite, and marble, is one hundred and ninety-four feet long, fifty-four feet wide, and four stories high above basement.

The entire building is heated and ventilated by the indirect steam method, and lighted by electricity.

Chapel, parlors, office, and class-rooms occupy the first floor; the sleeping apartments the second and third floors of the building. All of these rooms are thoroughly ventilated by outside windows and over 500 feet of wide halls. ;

The chambers are unusually large, arranged so as to admit abundant sunlight, and in their construction especial attention was given to securing perfect ventilation. The furniture and appointments are homelike and comfortable. While luxury has not been studied, every convenience necessary for health and comfort has been supplied.

The departments of Music and Art occupy the entire fourth floor.

Each floor is supplied with water, bath and toilet rooms, electric bells, and ample hose and fire buckets.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

The sanitation has been arranged with the utmost care, and is regularly inspected and kept in order.

At the close of the session of 1900-Westlawn. 1901 it became evident that the rapid growth of the Institute made it necessary to provide more room. To meet this pressing need the Trustees purchased in the early summer the beautiful home of Mr. W. F. Pattillo. This purchase was made possible by the generosity of two friends of the Institute, Mr. S. M. Inman and Mrs. Josephine Abbott. The property acquired adjoins the Institute grounds, and comprises a lot of about three acres and a comfortable dwelling containing eight rooms. This addition has been named Westlawn. The division fence between the Institute and Westlawn has been removed, thus giving us within one enclosure, nearly ten acres. The dwelling has been thoroughly renovated and connected with the Institute building by a brick walk, thus adding eight comfortable and attractive rooms for the accommodation of teachers and students.

The additional rooms provided White House. by the purchase of Westlawn were filled the first session. The continued growth of the Institute rendered it necessary to provide still more room. This great need was met by adding the "White House." This building, a two-story frame structure, was rearranged and enlarged by the owners, and equipped with modern conveniences, steam heat, electric lights, sanitary plumbing, and hot and cold water. It contains twenty-five bedrooms, parlor, and study hall.

and has wide verandas on three sides. Two of the teachers reside in the building; and all the inmates take their meals in the Institute, with which it is connected by board and brick walks.

All the bedrooms are comfortably furnished, and are thoroughly warmed and ventilated, and are never crowded. The occupants of each room are required to keep it in order, and all rooms are daily inspected.

Rooms are assigned in the order of application for entrance.

The Intendant of the Infirmary and the Matron are in special charge of the dormitories. They at all times rigidly inspect the rooms of the students, and see that they are neatly and properly kept in order, reporting any dereliction to the Lady Principal.

Each boarding student must furnish two
Outfit. pairs of sheets, two pairs of pillow-cases, six table-napkins, napkin ring, six towels, two laundry bags, gossamer, umbrella, and a pair of rubber shoes. The pillow-cases should be 35 by 22 inches.

All articles, including trunks, must be plainly and durably marked with the name of the owner. Failure to comply with this requirement causes confusion and loss.

It is urged upon parents not to burden their daughters with the care of valuable jewelry or an expensive wardrobe. Each outfit should contain, besides school dresses, one street suit and wraps of light and heavy weight. A simple high-necked evening dress will be found convenient, but not necessary. Students will not be permitted to wear low-necked dresses.

In pursuing a course of Health and Physical Training. study, good health is of the highest importance. There is in this institution a close and intelligent supervision over the health of the boarding students. The best medical advice is secured and a trained nurse provided. All the conditions of proper sanitation are carefully observed. The Institute has a superior system of sewerage, and an abundant supply of the purest water. From basement to attic much care is exercised to maintain cleanliness and healthfulness.

The Infirmary has been removed from the main building into a cottage near by. The advantages in this arrangement are obvious. The sick are transferred from the unavoidable noise of the large boarding department into a place of absolute quiet. In the event of any contagious disease developing among the students, perfect isolation can be effected at once. The Infirmary is furnished and equipped with every convenience and comfort. It will be a satisfaction to parents to know also that Miss Appleyard, who is in charge of the Infirmary, is a trained nurse, who has had the best training and large experience. In sickness, therefore, parents may rest assured their daughters will have every comfort and the most skilful nursing. Miss Appleyard looks carefully after the health of the girls, and is able frequently to prevent sickness by timely suggestions and attention. In cases of protracted sickness or contagious diseases parents must provide a nurse at their own expense.

PARTIAL VIEW OF CHEMICAL LABORATORY

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Dr. W. S. Kendrick, the Institute physician, is in telephonic communication, visits the school periodically, and in case of illness is summoned promptly.

Parents are urged to communicate freely with the Lady Principal concerning the physical condition of their daughters at the time of their entrance, and to state whether their daughters have any special weakness or tendency to disease, or idiosyncrasies of constitution.

The Trustees feel that they can conscientiously assure parents, that, in case of illness, their daughters will receive prompt and skilful medical attention, faithful and tender nursing, and in every case of serious illness they will be promptly advised.

The Institute Gymnasium contains the best apparatus, including Horizontal and Vaulting Bars, Horse, Flying-rings, Chest-weights, Clubs, Wands, Dumb-bells, Rings, Hoops, etc.

All the work is under the supervision of a competent teacher, and the greatest care is taken that no one overtax her strength. All students, unless excused by the proper authority, are expected to exercise daily in the gymnasium, for which no extra charge is made. When the weather permits exercise out of doors is frequently substituted for work in the gymnasium. Four tennis courts two croquet grounds, and a basket ball ground furnish opportunity for healthful and bracing outdoor games.

Each pupil is expected to supply herself with a suit of blue flannel—blouse and divided skirt—and gymnasium shoes.

miscellaneous topics.

It is the intention of the Trustees to add such reference books as will keep the departments fully abreast with the advancement made in the different lines of study.

The reading-room is supplied with a large selection of choice periodicals, including the leading magazines, scientific, educational, literary, music, and art journals, and also quite a number of the best church papers.

The Literary Societies con-and literary attainments of the students, and are valuable as a means of cultivating ease of manner and expression, of fostering a taste for good literature, and of developing social and literary gifts.

The Mnemosynean Society was organized in October, 1891, and the Propylean in May, 1897.

These societies have beautiful and attractive halls in the Institute. They meet once a week, and their programs consist of readings, recitations, essays, debates, and music.

These societies are using their funds year by year in the building up of excellent libraries for the benefit of their members.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Mr. T. P. Shonts, of Chicago, generously offers a prize of $100.00 each year to be applied to the purchase of books for the Society Libraries. This prize is to be competed for by the two societies, and to be awarded on certain specified conditions at the close of the session to the successful contestant.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The W. A. Moore Scholarship.—Under the will of the late William A. Moore, a Ruling Elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta, the Institute received, in 1892, a legacy of $5,000.

The will of Mr. Moore provides that "this sum shall be held as a permanent fund or endowment for the education at this Institute of worthy girls of Presbyterian parents who are unable to provide a collegiate education for their daughters," the same to be permanently invested, and only the interest to be used.

Scholarships under this fund are annually awarded as directed in Mr. Moore's will.

The Rebecca Steele Scholarship.—Mr. A. B. Steele, of Atlanta has given $5,000 to found this scholarship, called in memory of his mother the Rebecca Steele scholarship. In making unsolicited this generous gift, Mr. Steele has specified that the proceeds shall be applied to aid "poor country girls."

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

The Alumnae Scholarship.—The Alumnae have caught the spirit of helpfulness which characterizes their Alma Mater, and though comparatively a small band, have nobly maintained a scholarship. The scholarship pays $60.00.

The Propylean Scholarship.—This is a scholarship offered by the Propylean Literary Society. It will be available for session of 1903-1904. The scholarship pays $60.00. It will be awarded only to a boarding student taking a regular course and entering for the session. For particulars address the President.

For General Excellence in Collegiate Department.—Tuition in the Institute for the next session will be given to the student, in any class below senior, who makes the highest general average above 90. In order to compete for this prize the student must pursue a regular course. The scholarship is not transferable, and is good only for the session immediately succeeding the one for which it was awarded.

For General Excellence in the Academic Department.—Tuition in the Institute for the next session will be given to the student who makes the highest general average above 90, under the same conditions as above.

English.—In order to stimulate and encourage the study of English, a special prize is offered to the student in the Junior or Senior class who presents the best essay on the subject assigned by the teacher of English. Conditions under which this prize will be awarded :

GENERAL INFORMATION.

1. The student must have an average of 90 or above in the previous English course.

2. The essay must be correct in spelling, punctuation, use of capitals, and paragraphing, and must be neatly and plainly written.

3. It must be original and accompanied by a certificate to that effect signed by the writer.

4. It must be handed to the President by April 15 unsigned, but accompanied by certificate referred to above.

Music.—Two Scholarships are given: one in piano playing, and one in voice culture. They are awarded on commencement day to those pupils who have made the best record in these departments for the year.

Art.—Tuition in the Art Department of the Institute for the next session will be given to the student who does the best piece of work from cast or nature.

No one can compete for this scholarship who has not been a diligent student in the Art Department for the entire session.

The Laura Candler Medal.—This medal is awarded to the student of the Junior or Senior class who makes the highest average for the year in Mathematics, provided the average is above 90.

In awarding all scholarships, distinctions, and diplomas, attendance, deportment, and punctuality are considered.

No Institute scholarship or medal will be awarded until all charges have been satisfactorily arranged. All dues must also be arranged before graduation.

*Laboratory fee (for scientific students only)	5 00

The above charges are designed to cover actual cost of the advantages furnished. The Institute is not conducted for financial profit, and neither desires nor expects to do more than maintain the Institution at its present high state of excellence. The entering of a pupil in this Institute shall be deemed a formal and explicit contract for her to remain until the close of the school year. The Institution obligates itself to furnish board, instruction, and all the advantages it offers for the scholastic year, while the patron, upon his part, by entering his daughter, or ward, obligates himself to send her for the entire session. In no other way can a school without endowment be maintained since all engagements with teachers and other provisions for conducting the school must be made in advance for the entire year. Patrons can therefore understand why no portion of the fees will be refunded in the event of withdrawal, unless such withdrawal is recommended or approved by the Institute physician on account of sickness.

The same rule applies to both boarding and day students. If for any reason a student is entered for

*Must be paid at beginning of session and will not be refunded.
In addition a deposit of two dollars is required of chemistry students. This will be returned at the end of the year, except so much as is necessary to pay for actual breakage of returnable apparatus.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

less than the session, special arrangement must be made with the President.

Those who may find it more convenient to pay quarterly in advance can arrange to do so by applying to the President.

In addition to the charges given above, each boarding pupil pays a physician's fee of $5.00 for the session or any part of it. This fee secures the services of a prominent Atlanta physician for the entire session, except in cases of protracted and aggravated illness. This arrangement is made entirely in the interest of our patrons. The Institute does not receive one cent of these fees, but pays the entire amount to the physician. The economy of the plan is seen in this that the attendance of the physician for the session is secured for an amount charged by an Atlanta physician for a single visit to Decatur.

NO DEDUCTION FOR ANY CAUSE WILL BE ALLOWED PUPILS WITHDRAWING AFTER THE BEGINNING OF THE FOURTH QUARTER.

All drafts, checks and money orders should be made payable to F. H. Gaines, President. If remittance is by local check, add 25c. for exchange.

DISCOUNTS.

When two or more boarding students are entered from the same family, a discount of five per cent. is allowed on total bills, except on physician's fees

To ministers regularly engaged in their calling the following rates are given: Board, tuition in Literary Department, including heat, light, physical culture, for school year, $180.00.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Special studies, physician's fee, and laundry at regular rates.

To ministers regularly engaged in their calling, who send their daughters as day pupils, a discount of ten per cent. will be given on tuition in Literary Department. Branches under the head Special at catalogue rates.

Patrons will notice that, with two exceptions, all discounts have been discontinued. This has been done because rates were already at cost.

NO DISCOUNT WILL BE ALLOWED EITHER BOARDING OR DAY PUPILS FOR ABSENCE FROM ANY CAUSE EXCEPT SICKNESS, AND THAT ONLY WHEN THE ABSENCE IS FOR AS LONG A PERIOD AS ONE MONTH.

Parents must not expect to pay only for the time their daughters are in actual attendance. No student will be received for less than a quarter, and then only by special arrangement with the President.

SUGGESTIONS to PARENTS or GUARDIANS.

The success of pupils in their school work depends largely upon the cooperation of the parents with the faculty. Parents or guardians who place their daughters in this school are understood to accept the conditions as defined in the catalogue.

Every expressed wish of parent is met so far as is consistent with the general good.

Parents will find it to the interest of their daughters to confer frankly with the President or Lady Principal concerning anything in the management of which complaint is made.

Parents are urgently requested not to interfere with the studies of their daughters by withdrawing them during the session to spend a week or two at home. PARENTS ARE ALSO REQUESTED NOT TO WITHDRAW THEIR DAUGHTERS UNTIL AFTER COMMENCEMENT, EXCEPT FOR URGENT REASONS. Such withdrawals seriously interrupt the progress of the pupil, are positively injurious to the classes, and tend to distract the whole school.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Parents cannot give their daughters permission to do what is prohibited, nor to omit what is required by the rules of this Institute.

Parents are requested to consult with the President or Lady Principal before excusing their daughters from examinations, or advising them to make any change in their course of study.

Examinations are not only a test of scholarship, but are an important means of mental training, and an incentive to close application.

OUR TABLE IS ABUNDANTLY SUPPLIED WITH WHOLESOME FOOD, AND PARENTS ARE URGED NOT TO SEND THEIR DAUGHTERS EATABLES. PLACING BEFORE THEM A TEMPTATION TO EAT RICH FOOD AT ALL HOURS IS A MOST EFFECTUAL MEANS OF DEFEATING ALL THE ENDS FOR WHICH THEY HAVE BEEN SENT TO SCHOOL.

Frequent visiting has been found to interfere seriously with the work of pupils, therefore they are permitted to visit only occasionally, with the written permission of their parents, and even then the matter must be subject to the discretion of the Lady Principal.

Pupils are not expected to receive callers on the Sabbath.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Visitors will not be received during school or study hours: 8:30 A.M. to 2 P.M., and 7 P.M. to 9 P.M.

Young gentlemen are not received unless they bring letters of introduction from parents or guardians to the President or Lady Principal, and then only at their discretion.

MONEY FOR BOOKS, MUSIC, AND INCIDENTAL EXPENSES CAN NOT BE ADVANCED. A deposit of ten or fifteen dollars should be made at the beginning of each term, an itemized statement of the expenditure of which will be rendered. Heretofore the Institute has been running an account for books and stationery with parents of boarding pupils. This will be discontinued in the future, and they must pay cash for what they get in these lines.

Dentistry should be attended to before leaving for school.

Parents are urged to have their daughters vaccinated before entering them in this institution.

Punctuality is indispensable to progress. If possible have your daughter present on the first day of school.

For repeated violations of the rules, parents will be requested to take their daughters home.

The proper address for telegrams and letters is in care of Agnes Scott Institute, Decatur, Ga.

All letters on business concerning the admission or dismissal of pupils, concerning any of the departments of instruction, concerning the general management and conduct of the institution, or application for catalogues, should be addressed to the President.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

Remittances of money should be made to the President by post-office order, registered letter, New York draft, or express order, or payments may be made to him in person. If by local check add twenty-five cents to pay exchange.

Letters concerning the pupils personally, progress in their studies, health, rooms, roommates, etc., should be addressed to the Lady Principal.

AGNES SCOTT INSTITUTE.

The Alumnae Association.

During the Commencement of 1895 the Agnes Scott Alumnae Association was organized. The object of the Association is to strengthen the interest of those who have been connected with the school in each other and in the Institute, to place them in a helpful relation toward it, and to arouse and quicken interest in Christian education. For seven successive years a day pupil has been maintained in school by the Alumnae, and nearly seven hundred dollars has been collected by them toward the establishment of a permanent scholarship fund. By securing small contributions from a great number, it is hoped that the interest, sympathy, and prayers of many will be enlisted for those who would otherwise be unable to secure an education.

Donations to the fund will be gratefully received, sacredly guarded, and faithfully used.

Any money for this cause will be received by the President of the Institution.
