Classical Languages/Civilizations

Students pursuing a Classical Languages major will gain in-depth knowledge of the history of ancient Greece and Rome, their contributions to modern society, and concentrate on advanced competency in either Greek or Latin. They will be able to build arguments, think critically, and challenge the political and cultural norms of today.

Internship and Research Sites (*Scottie Internship Sites)

American Academy in Rome

Athenian Agora (research in Greece)*

American Hellenic Council

Center for Hellenic Studies*

Smithsonian

The American Institute for Roman Culture

The American School of Classical Studies at Athens*

The National Hellenic Museum

The Paideia Institute*

The Translations Company

US Consulate in Greece, Foreign National Student Intern Program

US Department of State

Campus & Community Involvement

Get involved during your undergraduate career, both on campus and in the local community:

Campus Involvement	Community Involvement
Center for Writing and Speaking	Center for Hellenic Studies (Georgia State University)
Eta Sigma Phi Honor Society
Publius (Pre-Law club)	Carlos Museum (Emory University)
SUMMIT Peer Advisor
Student Government Association	Classics Lecture Series (Emory University)

Career Fields

Info/Library Services

Education

Museums (curation, archives, fundraising, etc.)

Historic Architecture

Language/Linguistics

Foreign Service

Law

Archaeology

Learning Beyond the Classroom

Seek out opportunities to develop these skills and experiences:

Research and Analysis

- Field experience in material culture or ancient history
- Depth of historical knowledge
- Critical thinking and revision of political and historical documents
- Cross-cultural fluency

Communication and Teamwork

- Ability to articulate/defend own ideas
- Oral presentation of historical details/ story telling
- Collaboration with field research team

Digital Fluency

- Agility with archival databases, information queries, etc.
- Adobe suite (Photoshop, Illustrator), Microsoft Excel, etc.

Contact The Office of Internship and Career Development for more information.

Entry - Level	Mid - Career *	Late - Career *
Teacher	Attorney	Archivist
Legal Associate	Librarian	Law Firm Partner
Paralegal	Instructional Designer	Museum Curator
Research Assistant	Politician	Professor
Museum Guide	Linguist	Historian

* May Require Graduate Degree

Alumnae in the Workplace

AT&T
Leadership Team

Department of Defense Education Activity
Special Education Instructor

DePauw University
Academic Affairs

Eversheds Sutherland
Paralegal

Facebook
Content Strategist

Athenahealth
Project Manager, Onboarding

North Carolina Public Health Association
Lobbyist

Pardot/Salesforce
Client Solutions

Savannah Country Day School, Pinecrest Academy, Grayson High School
Latin Teacher

McDermott Will & Emery
Lawyer

Smithsonian Institute
Special Collections Cataloger

Thomson Reuters
Legal Assistant

United States Marine Corps
Joint Task Force Enabler Office
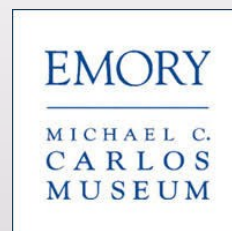

UNC-Charlotte
BASICS Facilitator

Watertown Public Library
Librarian

Keeping Up With the Trends

Build your career literacy and applied knowledge by following industry groups of interest. Join professional associations as a student member to attend events highlighting industry news and professional networking. Ideas include:

Society for Classical Studies

Michael C. Carlos Museum

Classical Association

Sunoikisis

American Classical League

American Alliance of Museums

Association of Ancient Historians

Classical Association of the Middle West and South

The Archaeological Institute of America

Contact The Office of Internship and Career Development for more information.

Updated 5/6/19