A N N O U N C E M E N T S

Beer will be served at the Black Cat picnic on Friday. All students under 18 years of age are on their honor to comply with the Agnes Scott alcohol policy located on page 25 in the Handbook.

Because of the magnitude of the SWINE INFLUENZA IMMUNIZATION PROJECT, the DeKalb County Health Department has asked the Agnes Scott College Student Health Center to assist in promoting, planning, and conducting immunizations for students, faculty, all other employees, and retired faculty members -- including the immediate family members of the last three groups mentioned.

In response to this request, the Health Center staff will offer the immunizations in the Health Center at the following times:

Thursday, October 28	8:00 - 12:00
	1:00 - 4:00
Saturday, October 30	9:00 - 1:00

There is no charge for this service.

NOTE: Please disregard the dates indicated in the Profile of October 1.

Starting the week of October 11 and continuing through November 10, the Student Health Center will offer, at no cost to the student, a complete health history and physical. These examinations are not designed to replace regular visits to one's family physician but to detect potential problems in a continuing effort to offer a program of health maintenance. The students who wish to have this service will be examined by graduate students from the Emory University School of Nursing (registered nurses who are pursuing the Master's degree in nursing). These graduate students will provide the service under faculty supervision. A limited number of examinations can be given. Call now and inquire (Ext. 200).

Pictures for The Silhouette of juniors, sophomores, and freshmen will be taken in the McKinney Room in Main from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Monday through Friday (October 11-15). The sitting fee is $1.00. Faculty and administrative persons may come at any time during this inclusive period, without paying the sitting fee.

Beginning on Wednesday night, October 6, and on each clear Wednesday night thereafter until November 17, the Bradley Observatory will be open to visitors from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m.

Agnes Scott's annual Honors Day Convocation will be at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, October 20. The speaker will be Frontis W. Johnston, Academic Vice President, Dean of the Faculty, and Kenan Professor of History at Davidson College. His topic is "The Relevance of Irrelevance."

The Agnes Scott College Glee Club is sponsoring a contest for compositions for a chorus of treble voices. A prize of $250 will be awarded the composer of the winning work.

The contest judges are Robert Shaw, music director of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra; Theodore K. Mathews, director of the Agnes Scott Glee Club; William Lemonds, chairman of the Emory University music department, and Roland Allison, chairman of the Spelman College music department.

The compositions will be evaluated on the basis of aesthetic qualities, craftsmanship, and performability. If none of the entries is judged satisfactory in all three categories, no award will be given.

Manuscripts should be submitted no later than January 1, 1977. A winner will be announced on or before February 15, 1977.

Information on the specific requirements for compositions and on other contest conditions can be obtained by writing Professor Theodore K. Mathews, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia 30030.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Do you know someone or have you heard of someone in your community whose house has been burglarized lately? It is likely that you have. There is no community that is exempt from this terrible crime. Burglaries of residences are an increasing problem in our community. In 1974 there were 298 burglaries committed in Decatur; in 1975 there were 469 burglaries committed in Decatur, and, for the first seven months in 1976, there were 215 burglaries committed in our city. Most of these burglaries were committed not by professional criminals, but rather, by casual criminals who took advantage of an opportunity created by carelessness, oversight, or just not knowing what to do on the part of the resident. While there is no simple, sure solution to the problem of home burglaries, it is possible to make the burglar's task more difficult, and in some cases, to discourage him altogether. Come to the Rebekah Reception Room at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 28 if you want to learn more about how to make your home more secure.

On Monday night, November 1, at 8:15 Janet Stewart, operatic soprano and voice instructor at Agnes Scott, will give a recital in Gaines.
