A N N O U N C E M E N T S

Focus on Faith Week will be from January 23 to 26. The speaker this year will be the Rev. J. Randolph Taylor, pastor of the Myers Park Presbyterian Church in Charlotte, North Carolina, and formerly minister of the Central Presbyterian Church, Atlanta. While in Atlanta, he served as chairman of the following groups: (1) The Atlanta Community Relations Commission, (2) Literacy Action, Inc., and (3) the Metropolitan Atlanta Housing Conference. Dr. Taylor is presently chairman of the joint committee on Presbyterian Union and is a trustee of the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, of St. Andrews Presbyterian College, and of Johnson C. Smith Seminary. He is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Davidson College, received his theological training at Union Theological Seminary in Virginia, and earned his doctorate at the University of Aberdeen in Scotland.

On Sunday and Monday, January 30 and 31, Agnes Scott will host an Admissions Open House for prospective students.

On Monday, January 31, at 8:15 p.m. in Presser Hall, pianists Jay Fuller and Michael McDowell will perform music for two pianos. Works by Mozart, Schumann, Brahms, and Poulenc will be featured.

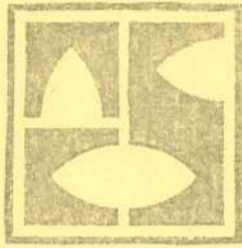

The speaker in Chapel on Friday, January 21, is Ms. Ann Avant Crichton, Mayor of Decatur. On the day before she appears at Agnes Scott, she expects to be in Washington attending the inauguration of James Earl Carter as President of the United States. While Ms. Crichton is here, she will be asked to give her impressions of the inauguration.

In connection with the opera auditions on January 20, six to eight women will be chosen for the chorus and two soloists will be selected from this group. Students may also audition for future opera productions at this time.

Certain items of surplus property owned by Agnes Scott are to be put on sale by bids. Any person interested in this sale may secure further information by coming to the physical plant office on or before Friday, January 21. Office hours are from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENTS ON REVERSE SIDE OF SHEET

A N N O U N C E M E N T S

On January 30 and 31, the Admissions Office is sponsoring an open house for high school seniors. This open house will begin with a Hub party at 12:00 noon on Sunday, January 30. There will be another activity in Winship at 7:00 o'clock on Sunday night. On Monday our guests will attend classes, meet as a group in the Winter Theatre, and later in the day be guests at a reception in Rebekah.

During this quarter Blackfriars will be producing four one-act plays and a children's show. There are many opportunities for fun and creativity in working backstage, and help is urgently needed! Anyone interested in working with Blackfriars is asked to place his or her name on the sign-up sheets on the Blackfriars bulletin board in the Mail Room or to contact Lynn Summer. No experience is necessary - just enthusiasm!

Representative Council would like to announce a new way to get involved on campus called "interest groups." Interest groups offer one a way to her favorite activity or hobby and a chance to share it with others! All are asked to come and sign up to show an interest in participating in such activities as backgammon, furniture making, and flying a "tail dragger", to name a few activities. Sign up sheets will be available in the dining hall from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, January 31 and February 1.

On Tuesday, February 8 at 7:30 p.m., World Travel Films will present in Gaines Chapel "Arizona Adventure." Admission $3.25 - Students $1.50

Agnes Scott will observe Black History Week from February 6 to 12, 1977.

ANNOUNCEMENTS ON REVERSE SIDE OF SHEET

A N N O U N C E M E N T S

Students who wish to make course or section changes for the spring quarter will do so on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 1 and 2. Students are asked to consult their major professors and faculty advisers prior to March 1. Full instructions are posted on the official bulletin board in Buttrick lobby.

Textbooks for the spring quarter will be ordered on the basis of course enrollments as of March 2. They must be ordered at that time in order to avoid book delays and shortages.

Special attention is called to the fact that after March 2, no course or section changes for the spring quarter can be made until the second week of the quarter except in cases necessitated by winter quarter failures.

Students will turn in examination envelopes to professors on Tuesday, March 1, and Wednesday, March 2.

At 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, February 22, World Travel Films will present in Gaines Chapel "Scotland afore Ye." Admission is $1.50 for students and $3.25 for others.

The Atlanta Alumnae Clubs of Agnes Scott College will sponsor the third annual Golden Needle Award Show at downtown Rich's on February 23-27, 1977.

The one-act plays which the Department of Theatre will present on February 25 and 26 are Harold Pinter's "A Sleight Ache," Noel Coward's "Fumed Oak," Maxwell Anderson's Act III of "Mary of Scotland," and Lawrence Osgood's "Pigeons."

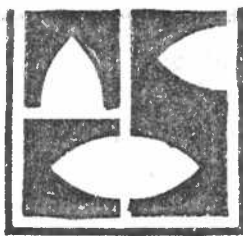

From February 27 through March 10, the Department of Art will present in the Dalton Galleries of the Dana Fine Arts Building an exhibition of current works by Bonnie Rose Beaver of Memphis State University, formerly of Agnes Scott. ANNOUNCEMENTS ON REVERSE SIDE OF SHEET

On Thursday, May 5, at the home of Professor Michael J. Brown, 333 South Candler Street, there will be a hamburger cookout and discussion for the students who plan to participate in this year's Summer Study in England.

A Life Planning Workshop will be sponsored by the Career Planning Office on Saturday, May 7, from 9:00 to 3:00 in the date parlors of Main. This is a day-long workshop designed to help students with personal, social, and vocational planning for the future via structured exercises in self-assessment and goal-setting. Enrollment is limited; sign up on the Career Planning bulletin board.

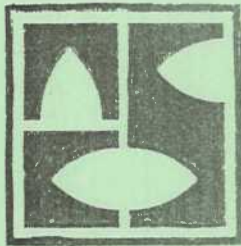

On May 13-14 and 19-20, the Agnes Scott Blackfriars will present "Impromptu at Versailles" and "Tartuffe" by Molière.

The Atlanta Chamber Players will present a concert in Presser Hall at 8:15 p.m. on May 9.

The Agnes Scott Alumnae Association is sponsoring two non-credit courses during May. One will deal with Gail Sheehy's Passages and the other with Hawaii. Passages will be discussed in two sessions on May 9 and 16 from noon to 2:00 p.m. in Evans Dining Hall. The fee for the two sessions is $10.00 and includes lunch. Leading the sessions on Passages will be Professors Mary Boney Sheats and Linda Lentz Woods. They strongly urge seminar participants to read the book before the first session. Hawaii's history and culture will be presented by Professor Kwai Sing Chang on May 10 and 12 from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Alumnae House. The fee is $7.00, and dinner may be purchased in the Evans Dining Hall on campus for $2.00 from 5:00 to 6:15 p.m.

Admissions Advance

The Student Admissions Representatives are sponsoring an "Advance" on November 10-12 for high school juniors and seniors considering Agnes Scott as a possible college choice. Nearly 180 students, the largest number ever at an event of this sort at Agnes Scott, will arrive on campus between 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. on Thursday. The events planned for the visitors include a bus tour, "Atlanta By Night," with Mr. McNair, Mr. Pepe, Ms. McKemie, and Mr. Brown as guides; attendance in Friday classes; visits with faculty and student representatives of each department and tours of academic facilities; participation in discussion clusters led by faculty, students, and alumnae concerning different aspects of "Advances in Self-Awareness"; a choice of Friday evening entertainment including the Blackfriars production, the symphony, and the Hawks basketball game; a marshmallow roast late Friday night for visitors, hostesses, and guides; a student panel, "Advances in Self-Direction"; an informal meeting with President and Mrs. Perry. Prospective students will be guests of Agnes Scott student hostesses and guides in the dorms during their stay on campus.

Alumnae Association Presidents and Directors Meeting

Alumnae Association Presidents and Directors from 12 women's colleges will meet for a conference on the Agnes Scott campus November 9-11, 1977. Member colleges in AAPD are: Agnes Scott, Cedar Crest, Chatham, Goucher, Hollins, Mary Baldwin, Mills, Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Sweet Briar, Wells, Wheaton, and Wilson.

Expedition to the Abyss

"Expedition to the Abyss: Deep Sea Research Aboard the Submersible Alvin" is a slide-lecture that Agnes Scott College will present November 15 at 7:00 p.m. in Room 207, Campbell Hall. The speaker will be Chuck Messing, marine biologist at the Rosentiel School of Atmospheric and Marine Science at the University of Miami. The public is invited, free of charge.

Le Tréteau de Paris

The Alliance française d'Atlanta and the Agnes Scott French Department are sponsoring a program by Le Tréteau de Paris at 8:15 p.m. on Wednesday, November 16, in Presser Hall. The program will consist of two presentations: La Cantatrice chauve, a play by Eugène Ionesco, and Larimaquoi? Larimarien, a tribute to Jacques Prévert based on a selection of his poems. The public is invited; tickets may be obtained by phoning the Alliance française, 875-1211. The performances will be in French.

Course or Section Changes

Students who wish to make course or section changes for winter quarter will make such changes on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 15 and 16. Complete instructions are posted on the official bulletin board in Buttrick lobby. Any changes not made on November 15 and 16 will be delayed until the second week of winter quarter except those necessitated by fall quarter failures.
