CURL UP WITH A GOOD BOOK

BOOK GROUP

Sponsored by Women Alone Together®

My Nightlife is 24/7 by Fiona Page

Discussion led by Fiona Page, author

Date: Thursday, Jan. 10

Time: 6 p.m. registration; 6:30 p.m. salad served

Location: The Colonnade, 1879 Cheshire Bridge Road NE, Atlanta

Cost: This event includes a "dutch-treat" dinner. (Inclusive price averages $27 per person and the restaurant accepts cash or check. No credit cards.)

Description: In her debut memoir, Fiona Page shares her story of waking up blind at the age of 44. As she went from sighted to blind she made a choice about how to deal with the difficulties she faced. Turning her tragedy to triumph, she shares with readers how she overcame her challenges with courage, conviction and a lot of humor.

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Monday, Jan. 7, by emailing the Book Group Leader at bookgroup@womensalonetogether.org. Payment for dinner is collected onsite.

The Women Alone Together® Book Group meets monthly at the same time and location. Additional winter/spring titles and dates include: Pope Joan by Donna Woolfolk Cross (Feb. 14), A Titanic Love Story by June Hall McCash '60 (March 14), The Social Animal: The Hidden Sources of Love, Character, and Achievement by David Brooks (April 11) and John Adams by David McCollough (May 9). For more information, go to www.womensalonetogether.org.

READER'S CONNECTION

Sponsored by the Atlanta Chapter

A Titanic Love Story: Ida and Isidor Straus* by June Hall McCash '60

Discussion led by June Hall McCash '60, author

Date: Wednesday, March 13

Time: 7 p.m.

Location: Room 382, Cathedral of St. Philip, 2744 Peachtree Road NW, Atlanta

Cost: Free

Description: "From tiny Talbotton, Georgia, to Macy's and New York's Upper West Side to their last moments together in the icy waters of the North Atlantic, the love story of Ida and Isidor Straus is also a story of America as a land of both prejudice and opportunity, and of a remarkable family whose generosity and compassion helped to make it a better place for many others. June McCash excels in telling this touching and absorbing tale." James C. Cobb, Spalding Distinguished Professor of History, University of Georgia.

About the author: June Hall McCash, author of ten books, was named Georgia Author of the Year in 2011 for her first novel, Almost to Eden. She is also the author of three nonfiction books about Jekyll Island, all published by the University of Georgia Press. She earned her B.A. degree at Agnes Scott and her M.A. and Ph.D. from Emory University. Her most recent books, all published in 2012, are A Titanic Love Story: Ida and Isidor Straus; Plum Orchard; and The Jekyll Island Club Hotel (co-authored with her son, Brenden Martin).

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Friday, March 8, by contacting Mary Jones Underwood '75 at 404.364.0793 or munderw341@aol.com.

AFTER HOURS READERS

The After Hours Readers group is composed of alumnae of all ages and others interested in great books. It meets every other month, generally on the third Wednesday. The next meeting dates are Jan. 16 (Bossypants by Tina Fey), March 20, May 15 and July 17. The informal discussions are held at 7:30 p.m. at the Anna I. Young Alumnae House at Agnes Scott College. The group discusses fiction and nonfiction works and is open to all. There are no dues. If you are interested in joining or learning about the group, contact Laura Cox '01 at laura.cox@alum.agnesscott.edu.

ARTS CONNECTION

Sponsored by the Atlanta Chapter

Frida & Diego: Passion, Politics and Painting at the High Museum of Art

Special guests—Katherine Smith, associate professor of art history, Agnes Scott College, and Katherine Wilson '13, art history major

Date: Wednesday, Feb. 20

Time: 1 p.m.

Location: High Museum of Art, 1280 Peachtree St. NE, Atlanta
The group will meet at the Robinson Atrium of the Stent Family Wing before proceeding to the exhibition.

Cost: $12 for non-museum members; museum members enter for free but must email their member number to register.

Description: Few artists have captured the public's imagination like Mexican painter Frida Kahlo (1907-1954) and her husband, the Mexican painter and muralist Diego Rivera (1886-1957). The myths that surrounded them during their lifetimes arose not only from their significant body of work, but also from their active participation in the historical happenings around them. The exhibition features more than 75 works primarily drawn from the collection of Mexico's Dolores Olmedo as well as the Jacques and Natasha Gelman Collection of Mexican Art. The High Museum of Art will be the only U.S. venue for this exhibition.

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Wednesday, Feb. 13. Non-museum members need to mail a check for $12 per person payable to Agnes Scott College, to Kim Vickers '87, Office of Alumnae Relations, Agnes Scott College, 141 E. College Ave., Decatur, GA 30030. Museum members can register by emailing their member number to Kim Vickers at kvickers@agnesscott.edu.
