EVENTS WITH BOOKS AND AUTHORS

BOOK GROUP

Sponsored by Women Alone Together®

The Temple Bombing* by Melissa Fay Greene

Discussion led by the author

Date: Thursday, Sept. 10

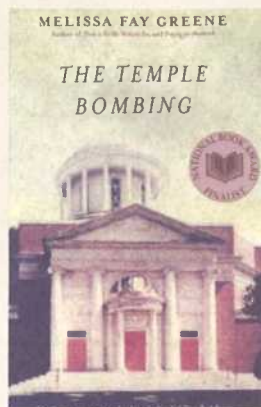

Time: 6 p.m. registration; 6:30 p.m. salad served

Location: The Colonnade, 1879 Cheshire Bridge Road NE, Atlanta

Cost: This event includes "dutch treat" dinner (inclusive price averages $27 per person) and the restaurant accepts cash or check. No credit cards. Payment for dinner is collected on-site.

Description: At 3:37 a.m. on Sunday, Oct. 12, 1958, a bundle of dynamite blew out the side wall of the Temple, Atlanta's oldest and richest synagogue. The devastation to the building was vast, but even greater were the changes those 50 sticks of dynamite made to Atlanta, the South and, ultimately, all of the United States. A finalist for the National Book Award, The Temple Bombing is the brilliant and moving examination of one town that came together in the face of hatred, a book that presents a slice of the civil rights era whose lessons still resonate nearly 50 years after that fateful fall day.

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Monday, Sept. 7, by emailing the Book Group Leader at bookgroup@womenalonetgether.org.

BOOK GROUP

Sponsored by Women Alone Together®

Mister Owita's Guide to Gardening: How I Learned the Unexpected Joy of a Green Thumb and an Open Heart* by Carol Wall

Discussion led by the author's husband, Dick Wall

Date: Thursday, Oct. 8

Time: 6 p.m. registration; 6:30 p.m. salad served

Location: The Colonnade, 1879 Cheshire Bridge Road NE, Atlanta

Cost: This event includes "dutch treat" dinner (inclusive price averages $27 per person) and the restaurant accepts cash or check. No credit cards. Payment for dinner is collected on-site.

Description: Carol Wall was at a crossroads in her life. Her children were grown; she had success; she had overcome illness; her beloved parents were getting older. One day she noticed an African man tending her neighbor's yard. His name was Giles Owita. He bagged groceries at the supermarket. He came from Kenya. And he was very good at gardening. Before long Giles was transforming not only Carol's yard, but her life. Though they were seemingly quite different, a caring bond grew between them. But they both held long-buried secrets that, when revealed, cemented their friendship forever.

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Monday, Oct. 5, by emailing the Book Group Leader at bookgroup@womenalonetgether.org.

READER'S CONNECTION

Sponsored by the Atlanta Alumnae Chapter

Austin City Limits: A History* by Tracey E.W. Laird, Professor of Music

Discussion led by the author

Date: Thursday, Oct. 15

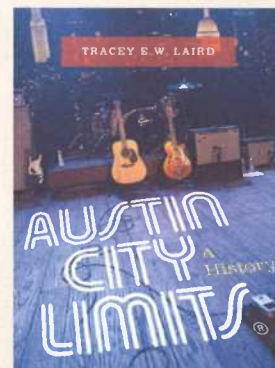

Time: 7 p.m.

Location: Room 121, Cathedral of St. Philip, 2744 Peachtree Road NW, Atlanta

Cost: Free

Description: Austin City Limits: A History tells the story of Austin City Limits, the longest-running musical showcase in the history of television, captivating audiences for 40 years. From legendary performances by B.B. King to repeat appearances by Chet Atkins, Bonnie Raitt and Ray Charles, the show has defined popular roots music and indie rock. Engagingly written and packed with anecdotes and insights from everyone from the show's producers and production staff to the musicians themselves, including country rocker Miranda Lambert, Austin City Limits: A History gives us the best seat in the house for this illuminating look at a singular presence in American popular music.

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Thursday, Oct. 8, by registering online at alumnae.agnesscott.edu/ATLfall-RC or by calling Ruthie McManus Mansfield '75 at 404.231.9285.

BOOK GROUP

Sponsored by Women Alone Together®

Wherever There Is Light* by Peter Golden

Discussion led by the author

Date: Thursday, Nov. 12

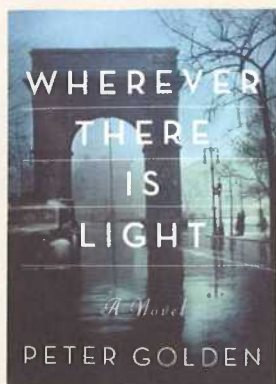

Time: 6 p.m. registration;
6:30 p.m. salad served

Location: The Colonnade,
1879 Cheshire Bridge Road NE,
Atlanta

Cost: This event includes
"dutch treat" dinner (inclusive price averages $27 per person) and the restaurant accepts cash or check. No credit cards. Payment for dinner is collected on-site.

Description: The author of Comeback Love chronicles the decades-long love affair between a Jewish immigrant and the granddaughter of a slave, a sweeping, panoramic tale of 20th-century America.
Julian Rose is only 15 when he leaves his family and Germany for a new life in 1920s America. Lonely at first, he eventually finds his way—first by joining up with Longy Zwillman and becoming one of the pre-eminent bootleggers on the East Coast, and later by amassing a fortune in real estate. Kendall Wakefield is a free-spirited college senior who longs to become a painter. Her mother, the daughter of a slave and founder of an African-American college in South Florida, is determined to find a suitable match for her only daughter.

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Monday, Nov. 9, by emailing the Book Group Leader at bookgroup@ womenalonetogether.org.

AFTER HOURS READERS

The After Hours Readers group is composed of alumnae of all ages and others interested in great books. It meets every other month, generally on the third Wednesday.
The next meeting dates are Sept. 16 (The Invention of Wings by Sue Monk Kidd), Nov. 18 (My Beloved World
by Sonia Sotomayor) and Jan. 20 (Out Stealing Horses
by Per Petterson). The informal discussions are held at 7:30 p.m. at the Anna I. Young Alumnae House at Agnes Scott College. The group discusses fiction and nonfiction works and is open to all. There are no dues. If you are interested in joining or learning about the group, contact Lockey McDonald '92 at lockeymcd@comcast.net.

KIRK CONCERT AND MASTER CLASS SERIES PRESENTS RICHTER UZUR DUO

Sponsored by the Department of Music and the James T. & Ella Rather Kirk Fund

Date: Saturday, Oct. 24

Time: 7:30 p.m. concert; 4 p.m. master class

Location: Maclean Auditorium, Presser Hall

Cost: Free

Description: The Richter Uzur Duo (RUDuo) plays a whimsical mashed-up blend of classical, world and rock music. In the U.S. the RUDuo is perhaps best known through its regular appearances on NPR's Performance Today. Together the duo has composed and arranged the most expansive collection of music for cello and guitar duo in existence, in particular their Duo Concerto for Cello and Guitar, commissioned by the Jackson Symphony in Michigan and premiered in May 2012. The Richter Uzur Duo are outspoken advocates for the arts and arts education, Brad Richter as the executive director of Lead Guitar, a not-for-profit that establishes guitar programs in public schools nationwide, and Viktor Uzur as professor at Weber State University and director of the Bonneville Chamber Music Festival. For more information, go to <http://richteruzurduo.com>.

MOVIE NIGHT AT "THE FRANNIE"

Sponsored by the Agnes Scott Alumnae Association

SCREAM 2

Date: Friday, Oct. 30

Time: 7 p.m.

Location: Frances Bailey Graves Auditorium, Campbell Hall

Cost: $5 per person

Description: Join us this Halloween weekend for our first movie night at "The Frannie," the 100-seat auditorium in the newly renovated Campbell Hall. Scream 2, our feature film, is a 1997 horror thriller directed by Wes Craven. For alumnae and students, this movie holds special significance because it was filmed at Agnes Scott, and the campus is featured so prominently in the film. Scream 2 combines straightforward scares with dialogue that satirizes conventions of slasher films, especially (in this case) slasher film sequels. At the time of the film's release, President Mary Brown Bullock '66, was quoted in the New York Times as saying "Being a part of a movie like Scream 2, the sequel to the hit horror movie Scream, helped Agnes Scott's visibility in our age group and it was fun."

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Monday, Oct. 26, by registering online at alumnae.agnesscott.edu/Scream2 or by sending a check for $5 per person payable to Agnes Scott College to Kim Vickers, Office of Alumnae Relations, Agnes Scott College, 141 E. College Ave., Decatur, GA 30030.

FACULTY RECITAL: PHILOMELANTE FEATURING DR. FRANCISCA MAXWELL, SOPRANO Telemann Cantatas

Sponsored by the Department of Music

Date: Sunday, Nov. 8

Time: 4 p.m.

Location: Julia Thompson Smith Chapel

Cost: Free

2ND ANNUAL ASC TRIVIA NIGHT AT MANUEL'S TAVERN

Sponsored by the Greater Decatur Alumnae Chapter

Date: Thursday, Nov. 19

Time: 7 p.m.

Cost: Free to participate, but bring cash for drinks and snacks.

Location: Manuel's Tavern, 602 North Highland Ave. NE, Atlanta

Description: Work in teams to answer trivia questions about your alma mater. Bring a group or join a team of feisty Scotties when you arrive. The Decatur Chapter will supply a round of appetizers, and there will be one check per table, so bring cash not credit cards. Pull out those yearbooks and get ready to compete, because the winning team will receive fun prizes and bragging rights.

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Thursday, Nov. 12, by registering online at alumnae.agnesscott.edu/ASCtrivia or by calling the Office of Alumnae Relations at 404.471.5400.

WINE, CHEESE & ART WITH PROFESSOR NELL RUBY

Sponsored by the Greater Decatur Alumnae Chapter

Date: Saturday, Jan. 23

Time: 2 p.m. wine and cheese; 2:30 p.m. program

Location: Anna I. Young Alumnae House

Cost: Free

Description: Join us for an interactive studio experiment with Nell Ruby, Kathy '68 and Lawrence Ashe Professor of Art and director of the Center for Digital and Visual Literacy. All supplies will be provided. No previous artistic experience necessary ... just an interest in having fun!

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Friday, Jan. 15, by registering online at alumnae.agnesscott.edu/artclass or by calling the Office of Alumnae Relations at 404.471.5400.

ARTS CONNECTION

Sponsored by the Atlanta Alumnae Chapter

Iris van Herpen: Transforming Fashion

Special guest—Julia Forbes, Head of Museum Interpretation and Digital Engagement

Date: Wednesday, Nov. 18

Time: 2 p.m.

Location: High Museum of Art, 1280 Peachtree St. NE, Atlanta
The group will meet at the Robinson Atrium of the Stent Family Wing before proceeding to the exhibition.

Cost: $10 per person for non-museum members; museum members enter for free but must email their member number to Kim Vickers to register (see address below).

Description: This fall, the High will become the first U.S. museum to present a major exhibition of work by visionary Dutch fashion designer Iris van Herpen. The exhibit, Iris van Herpen: Transforming Fashion, will feature her one-of-a-kind haute couture designs, which interweave traditional handwork with groundbreaking 3-D printing technology, computer modeling and engraving. Her visually impressive sculptural designs—often featuring unusual materials such as magnets, umbrella ribs and synthetic boat rigging—create silhouettes that appear both organic and futuristic. Her work has been worn by style icons such as Lady Gaga, Beyoncé and Bjork. The exhibition will feature 45 outfits carefully selected from 15 of van Herpen's collections, offering a comprehensive visual survey of her design career.

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Wednesday, Nov. 11. Non-museum members can register and pay online at alumnae.agnesscott.edu/ATLfall-arts or mail a check for $10 per person payable to Agnes Scott College to Kim Vickers, Office of Alumnae Relations, Agnes Scott College, 141 E. College Ave., Decatur, GA 30030. Museum members can register by emailing their member number to Kim Vickers at kvickers@agnesscott.edu.

SUPPORTING FUTURE LEADERS: A PROFILE OF POSSES AT AGNES SCOTT

Sponsored by the Greater Decatur Alumnae Chapter

Presentation on the Posse Scholars by Rafael Ocasio and Liz Bagley, ASC Mentors for Posses 2 & 3

Date: Saturday, Oct. 17

Time: 10:30 a.m. coffee and registration, 11 a.m. program

Location: Anna I. Young Alumnae House

Cost: Free

Description: Now in its third year at Agnes Scott, the Posse Scholar Program, sponsored by the Posse Foundation, identifies urban public high school students who may be overlooked by traditional college selection processes but who have extraordinary academic and leadership potential. The Foundation extends the opportunity to pursue excellence by placing them in supportive, multicultural teams—posses. The Posse Foundation partner institutions (53 schools around the U.S., paired with 10 cities) award Posse Scholars four-year, full-tuition scholarships. Agnes Scott College is matched with Chicago. Our Posses serve as a catalyst for increased individual and community development. This program will provide a snapshot of the three Posses currently on ASC's campus and will feature Posse students as well.

R.S.V.P. acceptance only by Friday, Oct. 9, by registering online at alumnae.agnesscott.edu/posse or by calling the Office of Alumnae Relations at 404.471.5400.
